TULELAKE BRIEFS

TULELAKE, June 2.—A Mr. Slinkey, representative of the Universal Newsreel company, Seattle, was in this region recently taking pictures of the great pelican colony at Clear Lake. Adult birds, nestlings and nests will be shown to the public through medium of the screen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Worcester, Berkeley, are spending a month's vacation here and in Klamath Falls. Worcester, formerly director of biological activities in this area, is supervisor of refugees in Nevada and California.

E. L. Booth, local implement dealer, has installed a 12,000-gallon tank for care of shipments of fuel oil.

Helen Wolfe, member of this year's graduating class of Sacramento college, returned home Monday morning to spend the summer with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ival Wolfe. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe motored south for the commencement exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gahney were hosts at a fun-fest and picnic Sunday for members of this year's graduating class of the Tulelake high school and their friends.

The party left early in a truck for their destination near Fort Klamath and after a satisfying lunch, games were enjoyed during the afternoon.

You Are Invited to the Opening
Of the New Home for
PACKARD
Thursday at 10:00 A. M.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank those Packard enthusiasts and my many other friends in Klamath and Lake counties and northern California whose liberal patronage has made possible this step.

The service department of the new home for Packard will be operating 24 hours a day. Packard trained mechanics will operate the finest service unit possible. One-stop super service facilities and all car mechanical service will be available night and day.

I believe that the operation of a complete automotive service unit by Packard trained mechanics will be of additional value to the motoring public.

I am glad to show my appreciation for the patronage I have received.
