

TERRITORY EXTENDED

Extension of territory in the special dwelling insurance rate schedule for Klamath Falls has been granted, according to an announcement from Mrs. Ida M. Odell, secretary of the Klamath Insurance Agents association. The local association has been working for some time to secure the extension, according to Mrs. Odell, and the territory included in the ruling is mainly in the California avenue section of Klamath Falls.

Man Jailed Here
for Auto Theft

Paul Revere Connell is in the Klamath county jail facing automobile larceny charges as a result of the theft and wrecking of a coupe belonging to O. D. Matthews, city plumbing inspector.

Connell was brought here from Ashland, and a complaint was immediately filed through the district attorney's office. Matthews' car, stolen from Main street, was wrecked near Keene's service station, on Greensprings highway, and abandoned by the thief.

Health Officer's
Arrival Delayed

It will be a few days before the arrival of Dr. Neil Black, new Klamath county health officer.

Dr. Black wrote the county health board stating that it would take a few days to arrange his release from his contract with the federal government. He is with the federal health service at San Francisco. Members of the board expect Dr. Black to be here shortly after June 10.

SHERIFF RETURNING WITH PRISONERS

Sheriff L. L. Low and Deputy Dale Mattson were expected to arrive this afternoon with Rex Barnes, Howard Davis and Henry Swift, who are suspected of having been the three hitch-hikers who hauled Charles Davis of Keno recently, and of robbing him of his car after being given a ride.

The trio was arrested near Blackfoot, Idaho, and held at Pocatello, Idaho, pending extradition and the arrival of Klamath county officers.

Barnes, Davis and Swift are said to be from Junction City, Ore.

Driving a few miles with the lugs loosened a trifle may stop a persistent rim squeak.
