Flower Show Climax for Week Past in Klamath Falls Society Circles

OUTSTANDING on the social calendar of the week past was the annual flower show presented under the auspices of the Women's Library club of the city in the auditorium of Fremont school on Thursday afternoon and evening.

Hundreds of flower lovers visited the show during the hours that the colorful blossoms were on display.

Retrothal announcements and plans for early summer weddings will continue to hold the spotlight during the month of June, while club activities are destined to remain in a state of suspended animation until vacation months are over.

WOMEN OF REAMES BEGIN TROPHY PLAY

Play for the Weatherly trophy at the Reames club was started Friday by the women golfers in the 18 hole class, while those in the 9 hole group began their play for the Stonehouse trophy.

Some of the players failed to play their first matches, and they will be given until Wednesday to do so, according to club officers.

Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Lamm and Mrs. John Houston were the donors of prizes last week at the completion of the May tournament.

On Friday afternoon, the first play in the June duplicate bridge tournament was held, with 10 tables in play.

Mrs. S. E. Martin, of Piedmont, Calif., was a guest of the club.

TO ENJOY VISIT AT SALEM AND AGATE BEACH

Mrs. Neal Stewart, little son Angus and baby daughter Sara, left Friday morning for Salem, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Stewart's mother, Mrs. Frederick Bynon.

Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Bynon, accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Low, will leave soon for Agate Beach, where they plan to spend a month.

JOE'S DAUGHTERS ELECT OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR

Alice Mae Cornforth was elected to serve Klamath Falls branch of Joe's Daughters as honored queen for the ensuing year, at a regular meeting of the order held Thursday evening, June 4, at Masonic Temple.

Serving with Miss Cornforth will be the following officers: Lenore McCandless, senior princess; Margaret Templar, junior princess; Edna May Thomas, guide; Frances Morrison, marshal.

Public formal installation of officers will be held Friday evening, June 12, at 8:30 o'clock in Masonic temple, and all Masons, members of the Eastern Star and De Molay, as well as their friends are cordially invited.

Members of Joe's Daughters will hold practices for the installation service on Sunday morning, June 7, at 9:00 o'clock, and on Wednesday, June 10, at 8:00 in the morning.

Mrs. W. T. Dean of 2043 White avenue, left the first of the week for Pocatello, Idaho, where she will visit with her parents and other relatives. Mrs. Dean expects to be away three weeks.

Miss Nina Norton and Albert Shannon were united in marriage Monday evening, June 1, at 7:30 o'clock, in the home of Judge and Mrs. Edward B. Ashurst.

The service was performed by Rev. Arthur Charles Bates, pastor of the First Christian church, in the presence of a small group of relatives and friends.

On Saturday, May 20, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Arthur Charles Bates, pastor of the First Christian church, Miss Thelma Jennie Rice and Harvey Gordon Eller were united in marriage.

Those attending the wedding ceremony included: J. M. Rice, father of the bride, Jay Rice, Jr., and Mrs. Edna O'Neill, brother and sister of the bride, and little Miss Darlene O'Neill.

The bridal couple will make their home in this city. Mr. Eller is employed by the Montgomery Ward company.

The Eastern Star social club met Friday afternoon, June 5, at Masonic Temple, when five tables of contract and two tables of auction bridge were in play.

High score in contract went to Mrs. Thomas Hansen and high in auction to Mrs. J. H. Dunham.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the afternoon was composed of Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. Walter Weisenburger, Mrs. Carl Steinmetz and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf.

Catherine Mesner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mesner, left Saturday morning for Hollywood, Calif., where she will visit her grandparents. She will be away about three months.

Several luncheons were discussed for the coming Moose convention to be held July 24, 25 and 26 in this city, and the prizes and trophies to be awarded at that time.

Present were the following members: Mesdames Belle Tompkins, Elma Biehn, Edna Jensen, Opal Biehn, Iris Biehn, Annetta Hall, Fannie Mae Thompson, Betty Wood, Lulu Potts, Maud Christenson, Mary Kauble, Pearl Mann, Anna Eccles, Billie Benner, Madue Sargent, Norene Hales, Mabel Ward and Blanche Dixon.

The next meeting will take place June 19, at the home of Mrs. Belle Tompkins at 622 Lewis street.

Mrs. Mary Holmes was hostess Monday evening at dinner and bridge in compliment to Mrs. Neal Stewart.

Dinner was served at the Pelican grill, and followed by bridge in the home of Mrs. E. C. Moon on Roseway Drive.
