

Cubs, Pirates Chief Threats to Cardinals

BUGS WALLOP ROBINS AGAIN

Chicago Takes Third in Row From Phillies, 4 to 3.

(By The Associated Press) Any way you look at it, the bucking Buccaners from Pittsburgh and the champion Cubs of Chicago seem to be the boys to supply whatever headaches come to Mr. Frankie Frisch and his St. Louis Cardinals in the current National league race.

They're chasing each other right up the ladder, resting in second and third place, respectively, today, now that what is generally regarded as the New York Giants' long-predicted blow-up has come to pass.

Dodgers Stopped Again The Pirates drubbed the Dodgers, 6-3 Wednesday for a clean sweep in their four-game series, and the Cubs took their third in a row from the Phillies, 4-3, in a major league program that found the weatherman getting most of the laughs by raining out half of the schedule bill in each loop.

Their victories, along with the surprise walkout of Van Lingle Mungo, the Dodgers' number one speedball pitcher, from the Brooklyn's temporary camp in Pittsburgh, featured the shortened program in which Cleveland's 19-13 triumph over the Senators, and the Boston Red Sox 4-3 win over Detroit, furnished the only other competition.

Over in the American league, while the leading Yanks were idle the Red Sox pulled up to 2-1-2 game back of the pace with their win over the Tigers, while Cleveland again became a threat for third place in taking the Senators.

Lillard Signs Two More Events For Mat Card

A double semi-windup to support the Alvin Britt-Dude Chick main event at the armory next Tuesday night, was completed Thursday by Mack Lillard, promoter.

Ted Christy, the swaggering roughneck from California, has been matched against Tiger Taskoff, Bulgarian. It is a return meeting, Christy having won the first.

Prince Mihalakis, the Arabian, will return to meet Pete Belmont, who lost his first match of the season to Dude Chick earlier this week. The prince has recovered from an arm injury which kept him out of the game for several weeks. Recently he has been wrestling in Los Angeles.

A flip of a coin will determine which event will go on just before the Britt-Chick match.

Defender Moves Ahead in State Golf Tournament

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11 (P)—Mrs. B. E. Eva of Portland, defending her state women's golf title, meets Mrs. G. Spencer Hinsdale in the second round of the Oregon Golf association's tournament today.

Mrs. Eva's 83 gave her a 4 and 3 victory over Muriel Veatch in the opening round yesterday. Mrs. Hinsdale eliminated Mrs. Edward Wuenn, 6 and 5.

Marion McDougall won from Bernice Burke in the opening round 7 and 6; Betty Mae Howe advanced when Mrs. Victor Johnson defaulted; Nancy Hurst won from Mrs. P. B. Hainsch; and 5; Dorothy Sellars took her first-round match from Mrs. H. G. Thompson, 3 and 7; Florence Sellars defeated Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, Hood River, and Mrs. Martin Hunter won by default from Mrs. Cameron Squires.

High Water, Insects Leave Town Isolated

PRESCOTT, Ore., June 11. (UP)—Residents of Prescott had little choice Wednesday but to stay home.

Flood waters of the Colt river swirled over the only road leading from the town, barring automobile traffic.

The mile-long foot bridge crossing a swamp to the mainland was covered with masses of squirming caterpillars, proving slippery going to those hardy enough to attempt it.

Gun Permit Asked to Protect Potato

SEATTLE, June 11. (UP)—High spud prices echoed Wednesday in the city council chambers when J. J. Lawson applied for permission to bear firearms. "I have this day purchased a potato," he explained. "For that reason I petition for permission to carry a gun so that I may at all times protect my interest in this property."

U. S. B. S. Boat Attracts Attention

Visitors on the Upper Klamath lake waterfront have evinced much interest in the biological survey's handsome launch, "The Golden Eye", shown above. The craft is powered with a 150-horsepower motor, and should be effective in running down offending duck hunters this fall. (Herald-News Photo-Engraving).

Star Brooklyn Pitcher Quits Team In Anger

NEW YORK, June 11 (AP)—Van Lingle Mungo, star Brooklyn pitcher who went on strike yesterday and quit the Dodgers cold in Pittsburgh, said today he would not don a Dodger uniform again. "Unless they treat me right."

"I haven't been getting the right kind of support from the team or the proper treatment from the club, and the truth of the matter is I want to be traded," said the fire-ball right handed hurler.

When Mungo failed to report to the Dodgers' dressing room at Forbes field, Pittsburgh, John Gorman, business manager of the club, indicated Mungo would be fined or suspended, or both.

"I'm not fussy about which team I'm traded to. The New York Giants? That's a good club. I wouldn't mind playing for it."

Ross Defeats Chicago Boxer

MILWAUKEE, June 11 (P)—Barney Ross, world champion of the welter, knocked out Laddie Tonielli of Chicago in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round bout at State Fair park last night.

The champion weighed 142½ pounds, Tonielli 150½ pounds. Tonielli took the count at a minute and twenty seconds after the start of the fight. Ross caught him with a right to the jaw and as Tonielli started to fall duplicated the punch. Tonielli fell on his back, out cold. It was several minutes before he could get to his feet.

NEW GOLF GARB

Here is what feminine golfers will wear soon, according to styles from Paris. The trousers and sweaters made their appearance during the British women's championship at Southport, adorning the trim form of Gloria D. Minoprio. The fair French entrant drew a large gallery, not only because of her unusual garb, but due to her scoring a 90 while playing a No. 2 iron throughout 18 holes.

SPORT SHORTS

By EDDIE BRIETZ Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, June 11. (P)—A check of the Broadway spots indicates Joe Louis will go into the ring a 3 to 1 favorite to defeat Max Schmeling next Thursday night. . . The Browns likely will dispose of Rolly Hensley before the selling and trading deadline rolls around. . . So far the Indians are the highest bidders. They'll part with $60,000 for Rolly. If our dope is on the up and up. . . Right now it looks like a safe bet in making world's series reservations in New York and St. Louis. . . With Bill Jurges out for the rest of the year, the Cubs may grab Blondy Ryan from Minneapolis any day now. . . Scout Clarence Rowland has been looking at Blondy for more than a week.

Here's a hot tip straight from Dixie: Disgusted with the run-around the Davis cup stuffed shirts gave him, Bryan Grant will turn pro as soon as he returns from Wimbledon. . . Does anybody blame him? . . The nays have it. . . Bing Crosby, the crooner, is called the best putter among the Hollywood actor people. . .

The Boston Red Sox out-bid seven other major baseball clubs for the University of Richmond's star battery—Herbie Hash, a big right-hander, and George Lacy, 200-pound catcher. . . Each will get a bonus of $3,000 when he reports and $250 monthly for performing either with Canton in the Middle Atlantic league, or Rocky Mount in the Piedmont loop.

American league rookies are just too polite. . . Young Lamar Newsome, a 17-year-old shortstop, reached first in a game against St. Louis and said to Jim Bottomley: "Nice stop, Mr. Bottomley." . . Jim, who is only 36, was burned up. . . Newsome is 24. . . Author M. Schmeling couldn't remember the name of the magazine which printed his story of how to beat Joe Louis—all for five cents.

Jap Swimmers Off for Berlin

TOKYO, June 11. (UP)—Cheered by thousands who crowded the Tokyo railroad station, Japan's powerful Olympic swimming team entrained today for Berlin.

The 22 swimmers and five officials will go to Germany via Siberia, determined to give their utmost to fight for America's challenge for world swimming supremacy.

El Rey Team Of Portland Leads

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11. (P)—The El Rey baseball team made its first count, and jumped into the lead of the Portland American Legion Junior league with a 6-2 victory over the favored Postoffice Pharmacy team.

El Rey has won three and lost none, while the Postoffice Pharmacy team was tied with Frostkist, each having two victories and one defeat.

Softball League Meeting Tonight

Carl Cook of the city recreational committee will meet with managers of softball teams at the Elk hotel tonight, 8:00 o'clock.

Kelly Wins Tennis Title

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11. (P)—Darrell Kelly won the Portland City Center tennis tournament for the second consecutive year, defeating Arnold Murch, who also was runner-up last year.

Moe and Hogan Tie for Honors In Golf Event

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11 (P)—Thirty-two golfers, survivors of the qualifying rounds in the Oregon Golf association's tournament, squared off today for the championship flight over the Waverley Country club course.

Don Moe of Portland, who tied with Eddie Hogan at 148 to lead the qualifiers, met Walter Cline, Jr., Eugene, in the day's first match. Hogan was paired with Louis Cyr of Portland.

Salem's two qualifiers drew tough assignments. Bert Victor meeting Dr. Cliff Baker and Millard Groves being paired against Rudy Wilhelm. Baker and Wilhelm are well-known Portland golf stars.

Moe took a 78 for the final 18 holes of the qualifying round yesterday but his sparkling 70 of the day before gave him a tie with Hogan who turned in two 74s.

Other qualifiers and their scores (the entrants being from Portland unless otherwise indicated): Arlo Kyle, 149; Rudy Wilhelm, 150; Joe Brown, 151; Dr. Cliff Baker, 151; Wolford Salvador, 152; Dr. M. S. Rosenblatt, 153; Harold Salvador, 153; C. H. Walker, 153; Roy Wiggins, Oswego, 154; Allan Mills, 154; Scotty Wilson, 154; Nell Meyers, 156; Bob Hofer, 156; Ed Labbe, 156; Walter Cline, Jr., Eugene, 156; Louis Cyr, 147; C. W. Scott, 147; Millard Groves, Salem, 147; Roy Hensberger, 147; Bert Victor, Salem, 147; James Corwell, 155; J. Wilson Johnston, 148; George Inglis, 148; Cliff Foley, Corvallis, 149; Dr. O. F. Willing, 159; E. I. Neustadter, 159; James Bushong, Forest Grove, 160; Dale Bedford, Oswego, 160; Don Thompson, 161; Dr. R. B. Watson, 162.

Call Sent Out For Candidates

While the post has made no appropriation for a junior baseball outfit this season, Lynn Roycroft, coach, said a club would be organized.

He sent out a call for candidates. All boys interested in trying out for the squad will meet at the Legion hall Friday at 7:30 o'clock.

Wolfe May Meet Chick or Britt

In a long distance telephone conversation with Les Wolfe at Sherman, Tex., Mack Lillard, Klamath promoter, made tentative plans for the southwesterner to come to Klamath Falls to meet the winner of the Dude Chick-Alvin Britt wrestling match.

Wolfe will give his final reply Friday after conferring with promoters who already have him booked.

Wolfe said Britt and Chick were both well known in Texas. The toothless mammal, pangolin, has unique scales which consist of hairs cemented together.

ACORNS AGAIN TRIM INDIANS

Oakland Lets Down Suds With Only 3 Hits to Win 9 to 0.

(By The Associated Press) The Oakland baseball club celebrated Bill Meyer night by landing their quiet skipper a 9-0 victory and the coast leadership. Jack La Rocca, whose fast ball looks like a pea at night, set the cattle Indians down with three hits, while the revamped Acorn and neap pounded Paul Gregory and Hal Spindel for 12 hits. La Rocca, who is so good after dark his owners, the Yankees, stipulate he be used frequently in daytime contests, struck out nine Seattle batters.

Angels Beat Reds Second division clubs also added to the happiness of Manager Meyer by taking their second straight contests from the faltering Missions and Seals.

Los Angeles, with one foot in the cellar, knocked over the third-place Reds, 7-4. Catcher John Bottarini, hit two home runs to lead Los Angeles 14-hit attack. Steve Mesner also got a four-ply clout.

Seals Lose Another The Seals played miserable baseball and San Diego won its second straight game in San Francisco by 8-3. Dick Ward, released by Sacramento because he had lost the tip on his fast ball, held the Seals in check until the eighth, when he was relieved.

Sacramento lost its sixth straight game as Portland pounded out a 6-3 victory at Sacramento. The Solons outbit the Beavers, 11-10, but the winners bunched three hits in both the first and third innings of John Chambers to score five runs.

Referee Gives Portland Match To Ray Steele

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11 (P)—An argument as to whether an Indian chinlock constituted a struggle hold ended last night when Referee Nap Devore awarded a main event wrestling match to Ray Steele, 220, Glendale, Cal.

Chief Chiwaki, 235, Indianapolis, Ind., knocked Devore down twice in the melee. Steele had taken the first fall in 6:43 and the Chief the second in 7:18.

Lon Plummer, 225, Toronto, Canada, and Leo Anderson, 225, Washington, D. C., went to an eight-round draw and each took a fall; Con O'Mahoney, 223, Ireland, won a fall in the third round from "Hank" Metheny, 220, Boston; Al Karasick, 200, Portland, won a fall in the first round from Cy Gotchy, 217, Vancouver, Wash.

St. Helens High Selects Coach

ST. HELENS, Ore., June 11 (P)—Eddie Frantz, junior high coach at Astoria, will be mentor of all sports at St. Helens high next fall.

Frantz, who is from Nellville, Wis., was graduated from Williamette university in 1935. He was all-northwest conference quarterback in football and an all-conference guard in basketball.

The Champ

Alvin Britt, Kansas, recognized in 32 states as the junior heavyweight champion of America, will tackle Dude Chick, undefeated Wyoming cowboy, at the Klamath armory next Tuesday.

PILES

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves Your itching, bleeding, protruding piles will go when you actually remove the cause—bad blood circulation in the hemorrhoidal veins. Salves or cutting can't do this—an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonard, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, eases the pressure of the congested blood and helps to heal and restore the affected parts. HEM-ROID has such a fine record of success that Underwood's Pharmacy and all druggists may one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must relieve your Pile agony or money back.

Hollywood May Have Another Baseball Club

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., June 11. (P)—Harry Myers, promotional director for the American Legion county council, disclosed today the Legion is considering sponsoring a Coast league baseball club in Hollywood.

On behalf of the county council, Myers planned to file articles of incorporation today for the Professional Sports Enterprises, Inc.

With the transformation of the Hollywood Seals into the San Diego Padres this season, an opening for a second Coast league outfit in metropolitan Los Angeles became evident. Baseball circles recently reported the Mission Reds of San Francisco, struggling to compete with the San Francisco Seals and the Oakland Oaks of the bay district, would like to shift here.

Pelican Outfit To Play Friday

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11. (P)—The Garden Home half-mile track will be the scene of the Portland Hunt club's annual spring race meet June 20 and 21. Managers Don Bagley and Harvey Lounsbury said it will be the only amateur racing event in the northwest this year.
