

Red Sox Nose Out Pelicans by 4 to 3 Margin

FORMER COUGAR HURLS VICTORY

Klamath Clubs in Southern Oregon League Stage Battle.

In one of the fastest games played on Modoc field this season, the Klamath Red Sox defeated the Klamath Pelicans, Southern Oregon league foes, by a score of 4-3.

Wheeler Leads Hitters - Roy Wheeler, heavy hitting Sox shortstop, lead his team in blows for the day, slamming out three safe hits in four times at bat, two of his hits being doubles.

The game started out as a pitcher's duel, no scores being made until the third inning. In the third frame for the Pelicans, Oakes singled and was sacrificed around the bags by Veninger and Donaldson, scoring on an error by the Sox outfield.

The first of the eighth frame found the Pelicans trailing by a score of four to one. In a final rally the Pelicans touched Hogan for two hits and one run in the eighth. Veninger and Donaldson both singled, Veninger scoring on a long fly to right field by Welch.

Both teams played heads-up baseball throughout the game, Wheeler and Hammericksen making sparkling plays for the Sox, and Donaldson, Pelican second-sacker, thrilling the fans with a sensational catch in short right field.

Next Sunday the Sox travel to Glendale and Grants Pass comes to Klamath for a battle with the Pelicans.

Each of Three Mat Matches Has Distinctive Feature

The three wrestling matches scheduled for the Klamath armory Tuesday night each had its own distinctive feature.

The hundreds of followers who last week saw Alvin Britt, junior heavyweight champion of the National Wrestling association, lose to Dude Chick of Wyoming will be back to see if he can re-establish himself in Klamath Falls by defeating Ted Christy of Los Angeles in the main event.

Many fans will be interested in the second meeting between Pete Belcastro, coast junior champion, and Prince Mihalakis, the Arab.

Last Tuesday's wild match saw Belcastro lose his second battle of the year when he was disqualified for fouling.

The third feature will be the appearance of Bobby Chick, older brother of the noted cowboy. Chick's brother tackles Alex Stack of Germany in the opening one-hour event.

Rapid Transit Chess Tourney Set Wednesday

The Klamath Chess club will hold a rapid transit tournament on Wednesday at the Baldwin hotel. The time limit will be 20 seconds per move.

Whenever a player is sitting as if in a trance, one may figure that his mind is working at top speed. He is considering about 10 different moves and trying to figure several different combinations which might result from any one move.

In a rapid transit tournament of chess a time-keeper sits with a watch and every so many seconds he calls, "White" or "Black," and whichever is called must move instantly or forfeit the game.

The best players get tangled up and lose the game while the worst players may win.

Earl (Tiny) Wimer and Webb Kennett are the finalists in the President's cup tournament at Reames Golf and Country club. They probably will play it off next Sunday morning.

Wimer on Sunday eliminated Jake Law, lanky railroader who last week took the veteran Wilson Wiley out of the tournament. Wimer previously defeated Norval Jones, defending owner of the cup.

CUBS' VICTORY MARCH STOPPED

Brooklyn Ends Chicago's String of Wins Sunday At Fifteen.

By The Associated Press The best-selling winning streak of the Chicago Cubs, like all good things, has come to an end, but lingering on is the evidence that Mr. Charley Grimm and company is more than ever the outfit to beat in the National league pennant wars.

After four other clubs had failed, it took the lowly Brooklyn Dodgers, deep in the cellar, to stop the Cubs' victory run at 15 straight Sunday, with Van Lingle Mungo, one-man revolution and Dodger "goat" of only last week, cast in the role of hero.

Card Pitchers Falter But, with the league-leading Cardinals' pitching staff, except for Dizzy Dean and possibly Roy Parmelee, growing weaker and weaker, the Cubs' 2 1/2-week winning stretch, and its accompanying tight-hurling and heavy hitting, makes the windy city cloutiers the pick of the circuit, with odds slightly above 2 to 1.

The Cubs went down fighting, losing 6-4 in the nightcap of a twin bill on the strength of two three-run spurges by the Brooklyn, after Curt Davis had turned in a neat 5-hit pitching job to take the opener 7-2.

By losing the second game, the Cubs missed out on the chance to break into the league lead, for the Cardinals got their ears pinned back by Bill Terry's Giants for the second straight day, dropping a 5-4 decision when Travis Jackson's homer with two on sewed up the New York victory.

Berger Clouts Homer As it was, the Cubs stayed a half-game back in second place, just a game in front of the pounding Pittsburgh Pirates, who nosed out the Phillies 7-5 in a battle of homers in which Arky Vaughan hammered out a pair.

A homer also decided the other National league game, with Wally Berger clubbing the four-bagger to give the Boston Bees their series over the Reds with a final 3-2 win.

The Yankees, meantime, were dropping their second straight decision to the supposedly slipping Detroit Tigers, 7-5, despite Joe DiMaggio's home run. The loss, however, only cut a half-game off the Yanks' five-game American league lead, since the second-place Red Sox could get no better than an even break in their double bill with the break-in-holding St. Louis Browns, who won the nightcap 6-3, after Wes Ferrell turned in the day's best pitching performance in the opener, allowing but two hits in a 2-1 shutout.

Detroit's victory over the Yankees boosted the Tigers into a fourth-place tie, as the Cleveland Indians trounced the Senators 5-3 to drop them out of a third-position deadlock. Round-riding out the program, the Athletics, after hearing that their old teammate Jimmy Dykes, had just resigned as White Sox manager, clouted his Chicago club 11-5.

Hard Match Played In one of the most bitterly contested matches of the day John Walker of Klamath lost to Glascock, 5-4, 1-6, 4-6.

Stride, young Klamath high school star, won handily from L. Klein, 6-1, 6-0.

Jones of Klamath found the game of Harried to his liking, breezing through to a 6-4, 6-0 win.

Riger of Klamath lost to Wood of Medford only after a hard fight. The scores were 4-8, 4-8.

Following Sunday's victory, Grants Pass withdrew its protest.

Wimer, Kennett Finalists For Reames Title

Earl (Tiny) Wimer and Webb Kennett are the finalists in the President's cup tournament at Reames Golf and Country club. They probably will play it off next Sunday morning.

Wimer on Sunday eliminated Jake Law, lanky railroader who last week took the veteran Wilson Wiley out of the tournament. Wimer previously defeated Norval Jones, defending owner of the cup.
