Miss Irene Hamilton with her sister, Miss Lillian Hamilton, both of Crescent City, have been guests in the W. C. Bailey home.

The young women are nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester V. Barton are expected to arrive home next Sunday following a wedding trip through California and to the Hawaiian Islands.

Barton left Merrill six weeks ago for Kansas, where his marriage took place. They will make their home in Merrill.

Mrs. Chester Dine and small son left Tuesday for central Alaska, where she will join Mr. Dine, who has been north for the past two months.

After having lived in the Merrill community for the past year and a half they are planning to settle permanently in Alaska on a homestead.

Reports from the district where the new home is to be located state that vegetation makes a phenomenal growth during the short growing season. Records kept on nasturtium plants this year show a daily growth of three inches. The sun shines 20 hours of the day and those having gardens have harvested their first crops of vegetables and have a second planting well on the way to maturity.

Guilty Plea Made on Forgery Count

Ray Graham waived grand jury investigation Thursday morning and pleaded guilty to charges of forgery in circuit court.

He was sentenced to two years in state penitentiary by Judge Edward B. Ashurst.

Graham was extradited from California in April, and brought back to this city to face the forgery count.

DELEGATE BACK FROM CONFERENCE

Mrs. Jean Porter returned Thursday morning from Lake Tahoe, Calif., where she represented the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club at the regional conference of the organization.

Mrs. Porter, who is past president of the local B. and P. W. club, accompanied Winifred Herricks of Salem, state president of Business and Professional Women's clubs, and Ethel Taylor, state recording secretary, from Eugene. There were six other Oregon delegates.

The delegation presided at an Oregon breakfast on Monday morning, and presented an interesting Oregon Trail program.

Mrs. Porter was in charge of the round table discussion on public relations on Tuesday.

The next regional conference of B. and P. W. will be held in 1938 in Salt Lake City, U. S.

There were 300 women present at the Tahoe conference, with seven states represented.
