Chairman

I. M. Coleman, delegate from the barbers' union to the Central Labor council, was elected chairman of the council Wednesday night following the resignation of Archie Rice.

Rice, who has been active in organized labor here for a number of years, stated he was resigning because he expected to be out of town a great deal the coming year and could not give full attention to the leadership of the council.

Coleman is employed at Murphy's barber shop. He was a member of the committee which handled local arrangements for the recent state labor convention here.

He extends his sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Summers and family in their bereavement.
