Veteran Manager Eyes Boxers

Jack Kearns Discusses Comparative Strengths Among Leading Heavyweights.

Max Schmeling will defeat Jim Brax'lock, if they collide in September.

Schmeling would belt out Joe Louis every night in the week.

Max Baer would do the same thing to Schmeling.

Louis would never have any more trouble with Baer than he had last fall.

These are the opinions of Jack Kearns, who managed Jack Dempsey to the championship and million dollar gates.

"I doubt that Braddock can get in sufficiently good condition between now and the end of the current outdoor season to repeat the Schmeling who came out of the Louis fight," says Kearns, now the proprietor of a loop restaurant.

"Joe Gould was guilty of a colossal blunder when he permitted Louis to beat Braddock to the Schmeling scrap."

"I have an idea that Schmeling knocked Braddock out of his one chance for a really important purse when he convinced Louis of the folly of carrying his chin so high. The Negro was the lad who was packing them in."

"Fighting largely is a matter of styles," asserts Kearns, explaining his picking Schmeling over Louis, Baer over Schmeling, and Louis over Baer.

Kearns considers Braddock as nothing more than an extremely fortunate individual who caught Baer in worse condition than Louis found the Californian.

"At that, Braddock might have gone on for another two or three years against the blokes who are around now had he kept busy," declares the dapper doctor.

"Braddock shows the almost inevitable result of a chap suddenly coming into what to him is big money after five lean years. Braddock is one of the finest men who ever boxed. Naturally a good fellow, he has revealed in the many banquets that have been tossed his way."

"I'll charge another large mistake to Gould if he sends Braddock into a Schmeling battle this year without something in the way of a warm-up, and the stevedore scarcely has time for anything more than that between now and another indoor season. Jim can't be sharpened up in a gymnasium."

Kearns cannot comprehend Baer's comeback activities to date any more than he can understand the management of Braddock.

"Anch Hoffman first should have taken Baer into the woods and had him ready for something out of the ordinary this fall," says the man who signed for Dempsey while the Manassa Man was making boxing big business.

"Schmeling's knockout of Louis presented Baer with a golden opportunity."

"After all, he stopped Joe Jacobs' entry. A great majority suspect that Louis experienced an off night against Schmeling. Any first class ballyhoo bureau could do a first class job of selling the customer on the possibility that Baer had two off nights a few weeks apart last year."

"But instead of bringing Baer east in some kind of shape and talking him back into the spotlight, Hoffman has him running around Texas towns, boxing for biscuits and hearing the Bronx cheer."

Kearns said he was fed up with boxing when he bowed out of it as Mickey Walker slipped to the sidelines. He operated a chicken farm in southern California for a spell, but finally contracted the itch again and came to Chicago last winter with Hank Bath, a young Colorado heavyweight. He since has acquired Lorenzo Pack, a colored lad who showed promise for a time.

The famous handler opened a cafe when it became evident that Bath and Pack either were too far away or destined to get nowhere in particular.

Kearns would chuck his business in a jiffy, however, if he could find a young man of size who could keep his pins while belting what is acknowledged to be mediocre competition. Selling a heavyweight is what the doctor knows best.

OLYMPIC GAMES MONEY RAISED

Over 300 Athletic Stars Board Ship for Big Competition.

NW YORK, July 15. (AP)—Hounded by pressing financial obligations, 334 of the U. S. Olympic team's 332 members boarded the liner Manhattan today to sail at noon for the Berlin games.

It took a good deal of private and public cajoling to do it, but the team sails with its own expenses clear. An obligation of about $30,000 for running expenses remained, but there was even some hope that this might be wiped away before the games are over.

Practice Week Scheduled

The team will spend nine days on the water if the weather is clear. It is scheduled to reach Berlin July 25. This will give six days of practice before the games start August 1.

Only three members of the women's swimming team were still trying early today to get the money necessary to sail. They were Iris Cummings of Rodento Beach, Calif.; Dorothea Dickinson and Elizabeth Ryan, both of New York.

All others had raised the $500 necessary to finance each member of the team.

Women Raise Funds

The women's track and field team, both of which faced extreme curtailment of their funds Monday, came through in great shape yesterday. The women raised theirs by soliciting aid from public organizations and private interests, and the men got under the wire by signing a note to the father of one team member.

There was great excitement on the waterfront this morning as the Manhattan, streaming from stem to stern with bright bunting and flying the American and Olympic flags, started taking on her precious cargo.

Every berth was taken either by contestants, officials or newspapermen.

NW YORK, July 15. (AP)—Lee Rourke of the Bronx wants to replace the all-star game with a contest between the leading teams in each major league on July 5.

What do you say? . . . Freddie Steele, new middleweight champ, will head east shortly. . . Top in self exploitation is furnished by Everett Marshall, new heavyweight wrestling king (in some state). . . He modestly admits in his four sheets that he is "the paramount marvel of the wrestling world". . . In other words, some boy.

As you may have noticed, our Giants are not going so hot. . . One New York scribe wires his paper that Bill Terry and his game knee are taking more farewells than Sarah Bernhardt. . . Another quip that Hal Schumacher is considering suing his teammates for non support. . . Meanwhile, the Dodgers are yelling for a split season, notwithstanding that drafted Pepper Martin beat 'em with a homer in the last half of the ninth yesterday.

That wild yarn about Louis being doped bobbed up again yesterday. . . Forget about it. . . The only dope Joe had was Schmeling's right hand—as this corner told you two days after the fight. . . If Glenn Morris repeats his decaathlon victory in the Olympics, he'll be a leading candidate for the James E. Sullivan award for the best American athletic performance among amateurs.

Terry McGovern was Joe Humphrey's all time tops as a fighter. . . And Joe saw 'em all, including Dempsey and Joe Louis. . . Three long ones for President Ford C. Frick for ordering National league umpires to work in their shirt sleeves.

Sports Editor Alan J. Gould is aboard the Manhattan with the Olympic team and will keep you posted on what goes on. . . Pinch Single Counts

The Missions and Beavers put on the Alphonse-Gaston act a few times before Chick Outen's pinch hit single with the bases loaded sent John Stoneham home in the eleventh.

Harry Rosenberg muffed a fly in the ninth to allow Portland to tie the score, then Louie Almada missed the plate coming home in the tenth and the Portland catcher nailed him before he scrambled back. The game started as a slugfest with each team pushing over eight runs in the first three innings.

Dario Lodigiani dropped a pop fly in the eighth to allow the Seals to tie the score with Oakland, and a perfect squeeze play brought Johnny Graves home with the winning run in the ninth. The Acorns paraded five flingers to the hill.

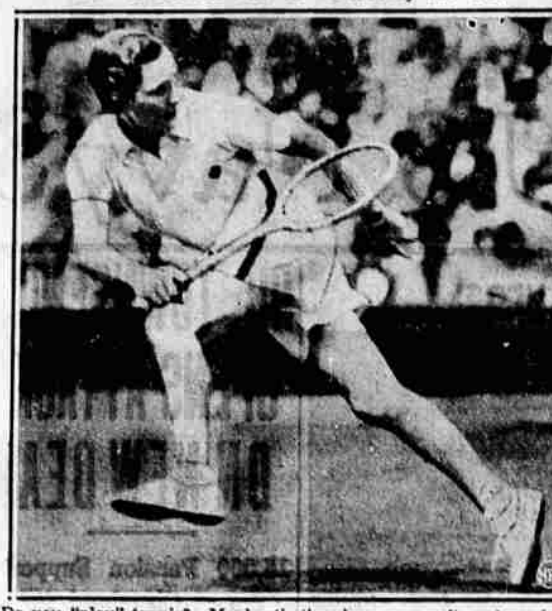

Officers Spirit Negro to Safety

ANNISTON, Ala., July 15. (UP)—Roosevelt Collins, a strapping 25-year-old negro, was arrested Tuesday by manhunters seeking the ravisher of a 25-year-old white woman, and spirited out of town while 1500 muttering citizens packed a 10-block area surrounding the Anniston jail.

The negro was hustled into a state highway patrol car, rushed toward Montgomery, Ala., and Kibby prison to prevent possibility of outraged Alabamians taking the law into their own hands.

Seventy-seven single-seater pursuit planes, and parts equivalent to eight additional planes, have been ordered by the U. S. Army Air Corps.

So Tennis Is a Game, Is It?

Do you "play" tennis? Maybe that's why you aren't a champion. Look how hard Helen Jacobs works at side tennis. She's in full speed reverse, going back to make a difficult return; and her eye's on the ball every second. Such tennis enabled her to beat Hilda Sperling for the Wimbledon title.

It is no mystery why the Grants Pass Merchants and the Klamath Falls Red Sox are tied for the top Southern Oregon league.

Out of ten regulars hitting .300 or better, nine of them wear the suits of either the Merchants or Red Sox. Rex Adamson, Glendale second sacker, is the lone outsider to crash the corner of the two top teams have on the charmed circle.

Led by the hammering Cliff McLean, who raised his league leading mark 38 points last Sunday, the Merchants boast the first four places in the batting race. The flashy Indian catcher is clouting for the almost impossible average of .476 to head them all. Bill Reible, Merchant outfielder, is next in line with an even .400.

Roy Wheeler, shortstop, heads the Red Sox brigade of sluggers with an average of .342.

Donaldson, outfielder, with a mark of .397 is the Pelicans' most consistent hitter.

Rex Adamson and Bill Reible both kept intact their consecutive-game batting streak Sunday. Both have connected safely in every league game.

Southpaw Bob Hardy, Grants Pass youngster, lost his first game of the year Sunday, but still retains the league leadership. He has won 5 and lost 1 for a percentage of .833. Clyde Carlstrom, in beating Hardy, raised his percentage to .800 from four wins and one loss. Merle Johnson heads the strikeout artists with 69.

Revived Angel Club Moves Into First Division

(By The Associated Press)

San Diego continued to get phenomenal pitching, and Los Angeles muscled into the first division as aftermath of series openers in Pacific coast league parks. As added flavoring, two games turned out to be weird, wild-scoring affairs.

The Seraphs went into a mathematical first-place tie with Portland by trouncing Sacramento 13-5, and 3-1, in a nocturnal doubleheader, while the Padres, behind Dick Ard's three-hit pitching, blanked the league-leading Seattle Indians 2-0.

San Francisco's Missions triumphed over Portland in 11 innings 10-9, while the San Francisco Seals thumped the Oakland Acorns 2-8.

The Padres have won six out of their last eight games, limiting the opposition to seven runs during the streak. Ward was well-nigh invincible, holding the tribe hitless for the last five innings of Tuesday's game. Vince Di Maggio's run in the second inning settled the issue.

The Seraphs hopped on Bob Ross in the first inning to score eight runs and clinch the opening contest at Sacramento, then Ray Prim chalked up his eighth victory of the season in the abbreviated nightcap by allowing the Solons but three hits, two of which were bunched in the sixth for the lone run.

The Missions and Beavers put on the Alphonse-Gaston act a few times before Chick Outen's pinch hit single with the bases loaded sent John Stoneham home in the eleventh.

CARDS VISITED BY POOR LUCK

Frankie Frisch's Outfit Dogged by Serious Handicaps.

(By The Associated Press)

For Frankie Frisch, like Mickey Cochrane, it never rains but what it pours, as far as the bad breaks of this baseball year are concerned.

It's getting so now, what with Daffy Dean's ailing arm and Dizzy Dean's head hurt, that no one can blame the peppy pilot of the gas house gang if he begins to feel a little down on his luck.

Moore Out of Action

Yet, as it turned out, the Deans weren't his only worries. With the lump Burgess Whitehead's line drive left on Dizzy's head last Saturday barely reduced to normal, another batted ball took Terry Moore, outfield star and heavy hitter, out of action.

A freaky hop by Brooklyn Babe Phelps hit into the outfield sent Moore to the sidelines yesterday with an injured groin, out for a few days, at least. Terry's outfield mate, Pepper Martin, saved the day for the Cards, however, with a four run homer in the last of the ninth for an 11-7 victory over the Dodgers.

Cochrane Will Return

The Cards took some solace in the victory, as Dizzy Dean may be back to pitch this week, and as Tuesday's triumph leaves them only a few percentage points back of the league leading Cubs, who made it three out of four over the New York Giants with a 6-1 decision.

Also scheduled to return to the baseball front, along with Dizzy Dean, was that other hard luck victim, Cochrane, who joins his Detroit Tigers for a doubleheader with the league leading Yankees in New York after a Wyoming rest cure for his jangled nerves.

The Tigers lost a good chance to pick up some ground on the idle Yanks Tuesday by falling against hardworking Harry Kelley and the Athletics and going down 10-2.

Red Sox Slump

Those clouting Cleveland Indians clubbed the Red Sox out of the first division and moved up to fourth place with a 5 to 1 victory for a clean sweep of the series. The Senators tightened their grip on third place, finding the sinking St. Louis Browns little trouble and emerging on the long end of a 13-3 count.

The Phillies, who seem to be finding themselves to some extent, outlasted the slipping Cincinnati Reds, 9 to 5. Woody Jensen's homer and Mace Brown's four hit pitching enabled the Pirates to come from behind and stop the Bees 2-1.

Babe Hollingbery Has Anniversary

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (AP)—Orin E. "Babe" Hollingbery, Washington state college football ball coach, celebrated his forty-third birthday here today. He suggested as a gift he would prefer a couple of tackles of the 220-pound model.

A native of San Francisco, Hollingbery operates a chain of automobile service stations here in addition to coaching at the northern school.

Mrs. Eva Leads Oregon Tourney

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15. (AP)—Mrs. E. E. Eva, leader in the qualifying round, and Marian McDougall, defending titlist, led the way into the quarter-finals of the Oregon women's golf tournament today.

Hurst, one-up in a hard-fought first round yesterday, will meet Florence Sollars, who won from June Bryant 5 and 3.

Miss McDougall, who defeated Mrs. S. B. Hoskin 5 and 4, will play Rosemary Neeter, who advanced by winning from Patsy McKenna in a 20-hole match.

Others still in the title bracket are Charla Heger, Mrs. G. S. Hinsdale, Mrs. Mac Wilkins and Lyle Porter. With the exception of the latter, all are of Portland. Miss Porter is from Corvallis.

Future Promising For Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15. (AP)—If Oregon and Washington "watch pollution" they will be the future playground of a "greater and greater number of American tourists," Swenson Earle, liaison officer of the U. S. Bureau of fisheries, said during a brief visit here.

"In my opinion," he said, "the future of the great northwest lies in preserving the natural conditions—protecting your forests and keeping your streams clean."

He is on a tour of United States fish hatcheries.

Oakland Heavy Beats Coates

LOS ANGELES, July 15. (AP)—Keeping out of range of a dandy right, Frankie Hammer, Oakland, Calif., heavyweight, won a 10-round decision over Charlie Coates, Akron, O. negro, at the Olympic auditorium last night.

It was the second time in a month the California red-head had outpointed Coates. The negro floored him with a right to the chin as the bell ended the second, but tired in the closing rounds to allow Hammer to pull ahead.

Steinke, Zaharias Wrestle to Draw

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (AP)—Dr. Hans Steinke, 213, of Germany, and George Zaharias, 226, Pueblo, Colo., wrestled one hour to a draw here last night in a main event match called at midnight.

Jumping Joe Savoldi, 208, of Three Oaks, Mich., pinned Brother Jonathan, 229, Salt Lake City, in 14 minutes, 25 seconds with a drop kick and body press.

WOLFE WINNER IN MAIN EVENT

Pete Belcastro Defeated by Athlete From Texas.

Los Wolfe of Texas won a popular victory over unpopular Pete Belcastro in the armory main event last night.

The match, made slow by Belcastro's inclination to rough it rather than wrestle, gave Wolfe a successful start in his return campaign in Klamath Falls. The Texas had not wrestled in this section since last winter.

The slimmer athlete from the southwest now holds four victories out of five matches against the junior heavyweight champion of the Pacific coast.

Continual bickering between Belcastro and Referee Ray Frisbie gave Wolfe the first fall in 13 minutes and 55 seconds on a foul. After warning Belcastro frequently, Frisbie disqualified him for kicking and slugging.

Wolfe won the second fall in 9 minutes and 14 seconds with a body press. Beaten down by Belcastro's droppicks and Sonnenbergs, the Texan had sufficient strength left to stop his opponent's hard attack and slap him to the canvas.

If negotiations can be completed, Mack Lillard, promoter, hopes to bring the southwesterner against Dude Chick, undefeated cowboy grappler.

In a hard fought unsensational semi-windup, Prince Mihailakis, the Arab from San Francisco, and Bobby Chick of Wyoming wrestled to a six-round draw.

The match was clean. The wrestlers were stand-offs in strength and cleverness. Mihailakis took the first fall in the fourth round with a toe hold. The round had gone 2 minutes and 45 seconds when he applied the winning hold.

Ballying in the final round, Chick, unbeaten here, squared the count with a series of backward body slams 1 minute and 18 seconds after the round got under way.

The best match of the program was the opening event between Charlie Carr of Mississippi and Jim Loft of Alabama. Almost alike in size and wrestling skill, Loft won when Carr was unable to return for the fourth round.

Up until this single fall, the men wrestled on even terms at a fast pace. Loft gained the fall with a combination leg lock and body slam.

Carr's knee was sprained.

Hurler Recalls Portland's Old Pitching Record

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (AP)—Pitcher Jack Larocca's recent achievement of hurling 32 scoreless innings today recalled a remarkable streak of shutouts achieved by the Portland Coast league team in 1910, when the Beavers blanked the opposition for 88 consecutive frames.

Portland started its streak of flawless football on the basketballing of a game on October 4. Eight straight shutouts followed and a tie in a 13 inning contest broke the spell on October 16.

During that stretch, however, no pitcher approached the league mark of Jimmy Whalen, who in 1905 hurled four complete games, or 36 innings of runless ball.

Pelicans New Coaching Aide Has Fine Record

Kenneth "Buck" Hammer, new assistant football and basketball coach at Klamath high school, has established an outstanding record in three years of high school mentoring.

In two years at Wheeler and one at Rahier, Hammer has won 20 games, lost 4 and tied 2.

Levin Over cautious Over Outwinne

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 15. (AP)—Dave Levin, 193, New York, won in two straight falls from Howard Cantowine, 230, Iowa, in a wrestling show here last night. Levin won the first fall in 15:36 and the second in 6:31.

Steve Savage, 210, pinned Bill Longson, 217, Seattle.
