Mr. Farmer

Do you know that now is the time to purchase your trucking equipment for harvesting your crops. The reason—A good stock of used trucks to choose from, plus greatly reduced prices as listed below. Why wait until they are picked over? Act now.

Mr. Veteran

Why not go in business with that bonus money? The trucking field is one of the largest and best fields of operation. Be independent. Buy a good used truck and start in business for yourself. Make your bonus money make money for you.

Mr. Wood Hauler

Why not get ready for the big fall and winter rush. Get your trucks now and have them ready also while you have a good selection to choose from. Take advantage of our reduced prices and save money.

Mr. Store Keeper

BUSINESS IS GOOD
Why not do away with your antiquated equipment. Buy nearly new delivery trucks at a tremendous saving. The appearance of your trucks is a reflection on your business and better trucks reduce operation costs to you. So see our wonderful stock of nearly new trucks now.

Mr. General Hauler

How about that old equipment that has been costing you so much to keep operating. You are now going into your busiest season, be prepared. Turn your old trucks in on nearly new trucks and stop repair bills. Look our stock over. We are sure you will find just the trucks for your needs. Act now, don't delay.

Mr. Log Hauler

We have several trucks that are just suited for your business. You will have to see them to appreciate how nearly new they are, also what wonderful values, so come in. Courteous salesmen will be glad to show you.

MERRILL PARISH VACANCY FILLED

MERRILL, July 15.—Father George Murphy, Baker, Ore., has been appointed to succeed Father John Curran, pastor of the Merrill Holy Cross Catholic church for the past several years, who was recently transferred to The Dalles.
Father Murphy, recently ordained, is accepting his first parish and will officiate at his first mass in Merrill next Sunday morning.

The annual picnic sponsored by the Altar society of the local church is also scheduled for next Sunday, following a 10 o'clock mass.

The event is being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lacey on The Dalles-California highway, and representation is expected from all parts of Klamath County as well as from northern Skagit County.

Lunch will be served at noon and refreshments during the afternoon, when games and sports will be enjoyed.

The public is cordially invited to attend and money accruing from the event will be used for future activities of the society.

Community Club to Meet Next Monday

TULELAKE, July 15.—Next Monday night, July 20, has been designated for a call session of the Tulelake Community club, according to Earl Ager, president, who states that a number of discussions vital to the residents of the community will be brought before the members. Questions of raising funds for continued drilling of the water well will be taken up as one of the major project discussions. At the first meeting in August questions pertaining to incorporation will be raised, and it is expected that a sufficient number of names will have been attached by then to petitions now in circulation to get some definite action.

Cafe Owners Open Employment Bureau

TULELAKE, July 15.—Sewell and Johnson, proprietors of the Oasis cafe, formerly the Mecca, plan installation of a labor board at the cafe in the immediate future for the purpose of facilitating contact between local farmers and laborers who are seeking work.
A telephone has recently been installed to assist in the work, and those needing help or work may call at the cafe.
