FT. KLAMATH

law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frost and family of Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Oris Moon and infant daughter returned home to Fort Klamath Tuesday from Klamath Falls, where Mrs. Moon has been a patient at the Klamath Valley hospital.

Mrs. Roy Deffenbacher was a Chiloquin visitor Monday afternoon.

A recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Lawton was Mrs. Lawton's sister, Miss Bertha Pitman, of Pasadena, Calif.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fitz Hamilton at the Hamilton ranch on Klamath Marsh are Hamilton's mother, Mrs. Martha Ann Hamilton of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Hamilton's daughter, Mrs. Arlissa Crawford of Terrell, Texas. Mrs. Crawford brought with her from Terrell a 10-gallon Stetson hat, a gift from the mayor of Terrell to Mayor Mahoney of Klamath Falls, commemorating a rodeo now in progress in the Texas town. Mayor Mahoney being absent from Klamath Falls at the time of Mrs. Crawford's visit, the headgear was given to Miss Mary Jane Mahoney, daughter of the mayor, who will present it to her father on his return to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Plant of Pasadena, Cal., accompanied by their grandson, Richard Clary of San Francisco, Cal., left for their homes Monday after spending the past two weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Turner at the Turner ranch near Fort Klamath.

The following group of people enjoyed a picnic at Cold Springs in Crater Lake park last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Merle Looney and children of Malin; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bunch and daughter Beth Lee of Henley; Mr. and Mrs. William Hackler of Ft. Klamath and Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page and son Gene, also of Fort Klamath. This outing is an annual affair enjoyed by this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Bulach Turner and son Thomas of San Pedro, Calif., were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton. Mrs. Turner was formerly Miss Rita Scott, and during her visit to Fort Klamath looked up many of her old school mates and friends in Wood River valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Scott, who will be remembered by many old-time residents of this section, and her visit to Fort Klamath is the first in 20 years.

Overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferguson Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and son Jim, whose home is in Springfield, but who are at the present time at Odell lake, where Baker is employed by the Southern Pacific railroad.

Frank Denton started haying Monday morning at the Denton ranch. E. M. Leever finished haying at his ranch Wednesday and put up 150 tons of fine grade clover and wild mix, from 60 acres of hayland.

Fred Looney and M. L. Ferguson are busy at present threshing blue grass for seed, and expect a yield of about a ton for the 14 acres of blue grass. They also have 12 acres planted to clover, and expect to start threshing in about a month. Both the blue grass and clover projects are in the nature of experiments for the two ranchers, and the results with the blue grass seed are very encouraging. Several other local ranchers have large acreages planted to clover, and will thresh later in the season.

Theodore and Stewart Nicholson are in Montana on a cattle-buying trip, and expect to return the last of the week. They were accompanied by Mr. Orham of the firm of Orham and Drew, who have local cattle interests.

The cattlemen have purchased cattle from the drouth area and will ship them to Fort Klamath for pasture on their local ranches.

Monday night, 20 cars of cattle from the drouth area of Wyoming arrived in Chiloquin, consigned by rail to the Wood River ranch during the heat of the season. William C. Hackler of the Wood River ranch has been making regular weekly shipments of cattle to market in San Francisco for some time.

Just the cattle being in prime shape very early this season.

Mrs. E. M. Brattain and sons Blaine and Bobbie returned Monday to Fort Klamath after enjoying a two weeks' vacation trip, during which they visited several coast cities via the Redwood highway by motor.

Lafe Frost left Monday for Medford, where he will visit his sister before returning to his home in Salmon City, Idaho.

Frost spent the past month visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frost and family of Fort Klamath.
