Experts Wonder if Brown Bomber is Punch Shy From Beating.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP)—Joe Louis, Detroit's negro heavyweight boxer, will enjoy a 2 1/2 pound edge in weight over Jack Sharkey, former world's champion, in their ten-round bout at the Yankee stadium tonight. Louis scaled 199 3/4 pounds at the weighing-in today; Sharkey 197 1/4.

By ORLO ROBERTSON Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP)—They've made Detroit's Joe Louis a 7 to 5 favorite to beat Jack Sharkey, the aging Boston tavern keeper, in their ten-round bout at the Yankee stadium tonight.

But the experts who have fixed those odds or agreed that they are about right already are wondering if they may have made another mistake.

There is the possibility that the Brown Bomber may be a bit "punch shy" after the beating he took at Max Schmeling's hands last spring.

With the top price the lowest it has been for any of the dark demon's New York appearances, Promoter Mike Jacobs predicted the stadium will be filled to about half its 90,000 capacity, producing a gate of about $200,000 at 9 p. m. (E. S. T.).

On the Louis side, because of his remarkable performances before Schmeling blasted the legend of his invincibility, there are more angles to consider than there are in a labyrinth.

For example, there is the question whether Louis, in a short but intensive tutoring session, has learned how to defend himself against the "sucker punch," the right-hand wallop that laid him low before.

Sharkey, the 33-year-old former champion, offers some angles of his own. He retired a couple of years ago with plenty of money and a desire for peace and quiet after a career marked by strange ups and downs, had fights when he should have made good ones and vice versa.

Now the faithful are wondering whether he can stage a real comeback. His preliminary bouts have not shown much one way or another.

Sharkey has endured the training grind with somewhat better grace than he used to and has worked himself into fine physical condition. He is confident he can prove what he always maintained—that Louis is no great shakes as a fighter—and regardless of the 12 years difference in their ages he can whip any negro boxer.

Gives Yanks First Olympic Swim Victory

Giving the United States its first swimming victory of the Olympic Games, husky Jack Medica, 21-year-old University of Washington graduate, started America on the road to regaining its water laurels, annexed by Japan in the 1932 Games. He won the 400-meter free style in new Olympic record time of 4:44.5. Medica, above, defeated Shumpei Uto, Japan's ace man at that distance, by more than a second.

McCarthy Gets Jitters As Gomez Gives Up Hits, Walks

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. Associated Press Sports Writer It's hard to find a reason why Joe McCarthy should be having any serious headaches with his Yankees leading the American league by 11 games and accumulating almost certain pennant winners, but if Joe ever suffers from migraine the cause probably is Vernon (El Gooty) Gomez.

On the other hand, he seems to have a sure cure in Iron Man Lou Gehrig.

Gomez, who once seemed destined to supplant Lefty Grove as baseball's outstanding southpaw, has been belted off the hill with almost monotonous regularity since the early part of the season.

His record now shows only eight victories and seven defeats, while his earned run average must be painful to McCarthy's eyes.

The slim sinner, who hasn't won a game since July 4, lasted just one inning against Washington yesterday and he gave away enough runs to let the Senators win 7-5.

The only reason that shellacking didn't decrease the New York lead was that the White Sox, in hot pursuit of third place, teed off against Johnny Allen and belted over the runner-up Cleveland Indians 7 to 3 in the day's only other major league game.

While Gomez was giving up five hits and a walk for five Senators runs in the opening inning, Gehrig, who was hailed as the new iron man just three years before when he played his 1308th consecutive game to surpass Everett Scott's former major league record, kept rolling along.

He eased off his weekend pace, when he hit three homers in as many games to bring his total to 23. But Lou, playing despite an injured finger and a lame back, got his daily hit, a double, He failed, however, to keep up with young Joe DiMaggio, who socked his 20th homer and two singles.

The White Sox victory was largely a result of Allen's wildness. He and Thornton Lee gave only seven blows but Johnny handed out seven free trips to first and Lee four. The Indians' main efforts to connect with Ted Lyons' delivery were circuit drives by Hal Trosky, who hit his 85th of the year, and O'Dell Hale.

Herman Walks Out In Protest When Extra Pay Withheld

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18 (AP)—Floyd "Babe" Herman, 33-year-old outfielder, walked out on the Cincinnati Reds today in a protest of non-payment of a bonus offered him if he "hustled."

Herman, playing his 11th season in major league baseball, took an early morning train for Chicago with the announced intention of placing his contract before Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis and then going to his home at Glendale, Calif.

"I do not have to play baseball," he said, "and can get along without the game if necessary and it may come to it that I will retire to my place in California."

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP)—Floyd Herman will never play another game of ball for the Cincinnati Reds if he has left the team in Cincinnati, General Manager MacPhail said today.

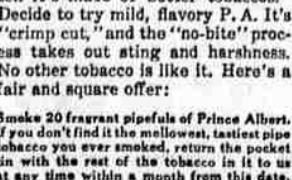

MacPhail did not know that Herman had quit over his failure to receive a bonus promised him "if he hustled."

"I hope he has gone back to California," MacPhail said. "And if he has, he'll never come back. He just saves us about $100 a day by leaving."

MacPhail said Herman was receiving $9900 a year and that a clause in his contract offered him $250 a month extra "if he bared down and in the opinion of Manager Dressen played the kind of ball he was capable of playing."

OLD FORT GOES DOWN TO ELKS

Lodgemen Pull Surprise Softball Upset; K. C. Also Wins One.

The Elks scored an upset in the second game of a double-header at Modoc field last night by defeating the previously unbeaten Old Fort team by a score of 19 to 9. The Elks scored four times in the first and six times in the third to practically put the game on ice. Old Fort finally found the range of Jack Benner's slants but could not overcome the big lead. The defeat dropped Old Fort into a tie with Weyerhaeuser for first place. Each of these two teams has one more game to play in the first half of the league schedule which closes Friday night.

In the first game, the Knights of Columbus bowled over the Klamath Billiards by a score of 14 to 3 to take second place in the league standings. The Casey's crossed the home plate three times to start the game and Klamath Billiards came back with two in their half of the first inning. After that McDonnell of the Casey's goose-egged the cue artists in all but the seventh when one more run crossed the plate to make the Klamath Billiard total three. In the meanwhile the Casey's were scoring almost at will to amass a total of 14.

The familiar wrestling formula of sweetness and light versus eye-gouging ruffianism will be administered Klamath Falls wrestling fans in a double dose tonight, when Promoter Mack Lillard sends Max Glover of Detroit against Cherokee Ike, Oklahoma bad boy, then winds up the card with a feature match between Joe Hubka, Nebraska football hero, and Bob Montgomery, Georgia mauler.

The Hubka-Montgomery engagement gives promise of plenty of excitement. Young Joe, short, powerful and fast, leaped into the first rank of Klamath performers last Tuesday, when he dumped Les Wolfe to take a surprise victory over the Texas hook-scissors expert.

During the course of the same evening Montgomery was disposing of Bobby Chick with the precision which has marked nearly all of his appearances in the local ring. Montgomery has dropped only one match at the armory, and that by disqualification at a time when he had his opponent apparently on the run.

Despite his reputation for roughness, the Georgia grappler unquestionably knows all angles of his business, and he will be able to hold his own at straight wrestling in event Hubka's versatile attack overpowers his gorilla strategy.

Glover has established no great reputation for politeness here, but his moderate roughness fades to a pale pink in comparison with the savage methods of Cherokee Ike. In his two previous showings at the armory, the Oklahoma Indian lost to Walter Stratton of Ohio on a foul, then returned to defeat the punch-softened strongman with vicious hammerlocks.

Stratton meets a newcomer, George Craig of Topeka, Kansas, in the opener of the three-match card. The matches start at 8:30.

Denver Football Star Attracted To Oregon State

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 18 (UP)—A bombshell was exploded in local football circles here today when it became known that Orlando Majo, star of the Denver university football team last year, had departed for Corvallis, Ore., where he may enter Oregon state college this fall.

Before departing Majo, an all state halfback at Trinidad, Colo., in 1934, said that he was leaving to talk to Percy Lacey, former Denver university coach, before making his decision in changing schools.

Lacey resigned as head coach at D. U. last spring to accept a position in the administration department at the Oregon school. The Denver university campus was in an uproar today as the loss of Majo is expected to hurt the Pioneers grid championship prospects which were the brightest in years.
