The Elks and Smoke started off the second half of the City Softball League Monday night with the former slamming out a 21 to 9 victory on 21 hits. The winners scored in all but the fifth off Milne and Kenneth. Smoke hurled, and practically sewed up the game in the first frame when they chased seven runs across the plate. Peterson hit a home run for Smoke and Orell and Benner duplicated the feat for the Elks.

The second game was a tight affair until the sixth when Lowells scored six times and won out over the Weyerhaeuser team by a 12 to 5 count. Weyerhaeuser opened up like they meant to win by scoring four runs in the first inning. Lowells got back two of the runs in their half and tied it up at four all in the second. The mill hands forged in the lead in the third with their fifth and last run but Lowells knotted the count again with another marker in the fourth. The fifth was scoreless for both sides and then came the six run spurge for Lowells which netted them the game. Carlstrom slashed out a four bagger for the grocery boys.

Hoover's Fishing Ability Wins Warm Praise of Guide

BEND, Ore., Aug. 25 (AP)—Take it from Fay Robideau, being a fisherman's guide isn't living the life of Riley and that's where Herbert Hoover comes in to the picture.

Long a devotee of Oregon fishing streams, which the former president has upon occasion described to piscatorial experts as the ne plus ultra of the trout world. Hoover spent the last weekend testing out his luck in the racing Deschutes river near here.

Robideau was his guide.

"If all people were as considerate and as good a sportsman as Mr. Hoover, this job of being a guide on the upper Deschutes would be a lot of pleasure," Robideau remarked today.

Robideau, after guiding a boat for Hoover three miles down the whitecapped Deschutes rapids south of here, said he was greatly impressed with the former president's ability with rod and line under circumstances designed to test a fisherman.

He revealed, incidentally, that Hoover was content to take his turn among others who sought Robideau's services. Without telephone communication to make advance arrangements, Hoover left here and drove up along the river until he found Robideau.

The guide was out in a stream with two Stanford students and the undergraduates unwittingly made their distinguished alumnus wait two hours before they caught their limit and came ashore. Hoover congratulated the students, Paul Baker and Howard Brown, and not waiting to change from a business suit, the former president climbed in the boat.

While Hoover fished the river, Larry Larrecin and James Triner, his drivers, went to a nearby lake to get their first experience with the fighting steelhead. The net result was that they each caught more trout than the boss, Robideau said.

Hoover used brown uprights as bait. When he left, he asked Robideau to send him a telegram when the trout were striking again.

"We'll really get 'em next time," Robideau promised.

16 Gridiron Heroes Start Practice for Bear Battle

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 25 (UP)—Sixteen of the nation's best football players of last season started workouts on a single team here today, but the sport fans did not get to watch them.

These 16 players, chosen for their outstanding work on college eleven, will be on the Texas Centennial all-star squad, which will face the Chicago Bears in an amateur-professional game here September 7. Seventeen other collegians will join the all-stars after a similar game with the Detroit Lions in Chicago on September 1.

Dutch Meyer, who coached the Texas Christian university team which won the Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans last winter, had charge of the all-stars as they swung into their workouts, and it was he who decreed that the work should be secret.

Dick Sklar, husky all-big-six conference tackle from the University of Kansas, was the first out-of-town player to arrive for the all-stars' workout. Ten others were expected to get in tonight, to join five Southern Methodist players who have spent the summer here.

The other players were Abe Mickel, brilliant pass thrower from Louisiana State; John McCauley, Rice Institute quarterback; Rex Clark, speedy Texas Christian back; John Peterson of the University of Kansas; Ike Poole and Jim Howell, Arkansas ends; Willie Geny, an end, and Rennie Throsmorton, tackle, from Vanderbilt; Sam Marx, a guard from Rice; Charlie Baker, Billy Stamps and all-American J. C. Wetzel, Southern Methodist linemen; Wes Muller of Stanford; Jack Rabbit Smith of Southern Methodist; and Harry Shuford, southern Methodist captain in the Rose Bowl game last winter.

WILSON GARDENS SCENE OF AFFAIR

MERRILL, Aug. 25—Mrs. J. S. Wilson entertained Friday at one of the most delightfully arranged affairs of the late summer season when a host of guests gathered for the afternoon on the spacious lawn of the Wilson home.

Games were enjoyed by the children and impromptu bridge was the afternoon's diversion for the ladies. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to Mesdames Dan Barry and son, Dan, Jr., Melvin Bowman and son Donald, Madison Brown and George and Denalda, John Giacomini and son, John, Mr. Louis Hill and daughters, Laura Lou and Louise, Paul Mauldin and daughter, Marjorie, S. Little son were weekend guests at Bly.

Oddfellows of Merrill will entertain at a "feed" next Wednesday evening following the initiation of Edwin Stanley of the San Francisco, who will take the first degree. Members of the organization of the Tulelake basin are invited to attend.

Paul Mauldin of Sanford and company, is recovering from a serious cut on his left hand that necessitated several stitches. A number of blood vessels and the tendon of the forefinger were severed in the accident.

Delegate Returns From Convention

MERRILL, Aug. 24—Harold J. Hendrickson, one of Oregon's two delegates to the International convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters, which convened August 4-7 in Detroit, has returned to Merrill. John Deschner, Portland, state chief ranger, was the second delegate. Hendrickson is speaker for the Merrill Holy Cross court.

The journey east was made through Minnesota and the Dakotas where temperatures of 119 were encountered. Hendrickson visited in Spokane and Minneapolis en route to his destination.

INDIANS STAY IN TOURNEY

Young Sluggers Survive Preliminary Rounds of Amateur Meet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25 (AP)—Preliminary battles for Pacific coast amateur diamond belt championships today left a diminished field of young sluggers, including several Indians who refused to bite the dust.

Three Indians from Arizona—Willie Numkewa, 112 pound Hopi, Mervin Ringero, 175 pound Pima, and King Mike, 118 pound Navajo—remained among the battlers from six states who will return to the ring for semifinals and finals in eight divisions tomorrow night. Numkewa wore his moccasins in the ring.

The Nevada and Arizona teams were composed entirely of Indians.

Tom Moyar of Portland reached the 125-pound semi-finals in the tournament by hammering out a decision over Herman champion of Fresno, Calif., in quarter-final match after earlier defeating Don Sam, Nevada Plute Indian.

Charles Notchman of Portland was another victor in a first round match, pinning a technical knockout on John Alcezer, Oakland, in the first round of a 160-pound battle.

Jack Buhlman, also of Portland, suffered elimination in his first start when Willie Numkewa, Hopi Indian from Arizona, shuffled his way to a decision in the 112-pound class. Numkewa laughed all the way through the bloody, hard-fought match.

In the 135-pound class, Jerry Buckley of Portland drew a first round bye, then lost a decision to Edwin Stanley of the San Francisco presidio. The same fate overtook Roy Quisenberry, 147-pound Portlander, who was defeated by Boyd Nichols of Los Angeles.

Cliff Nelson, St. Helens, Ore., scrapper, dropped a decision to King Mike, Navajo Indian 115-pounder, in a first-round battle. Nelson suffered a cut eye, while Mike improved as the fight went along.

Ancient Player Out for Varsity Team at U. of C.

BERKELEY, Calif., Aug. 25 (AP)—William Loane West, 20 years ago star tight end on University of California's "wonder team," is back at school, determined to play varsity football again.

The 40-year-old athlete, who says he is Cherokee Indian and Irish, stands six feet plus, and weighs 225 pounds. He wants a tackle position.

West left the university as a sophomore to go to war, and in recent years he toured the country lecturing on physical education. He registered from Savannah, Ga., as a junior student.

Coach L. B. "Stub" Allison said West has two years' eligibility. "I'll treat him like any of the kids," Allison said. "On my team the best man gets the first string position. West will be put in where he stacks up."

"I may not make the varsity," said West, "but the boy that beats me out will sure have to work."

CRISIS NEAR IN NATIONAL

Pennant Winner May Be Decided Before Sept. 4; Cubs Beat Reds.

By The Associated Press
The National league pennant race may be decided between now and September 4, although the season still has more than a month to run.

The stage was set for a "crucial" four yesterday when the Pittsburgh Pirates, replaying Sunday's game, handed the St. Louis Gas House Gang an unmerciful 17 to 5 drubbing and sent them into a tie with the idle New York Giants for first place.

Tuesday the Giants, showing no signs of the late season "crackups" that have marked their other campaigns, opened an important trip through the southern half of the circuit. If Bill Terry's team should run into a big winning streak it could almost wrap up the flag and bring it home.

Paul Dean, making his first start, since July 4, showed no signs of the sore arm which has been bothering him, but he could not keep the Cards on top. Given a comfortable lead by a four-run blast that drove Ralph Birkofer out in the third, he weakened in the fourth inning and retired before an attack that tied the count.

Ed Heusser was the victim of a six-run blast in the next inning and the Bucco bats played the same tune against George Garshaw and Flint Rhem to pile up a total of 25 blows. Bill Brewer set the pace with five straight hits while every other regular collected two or three as Mace Brown checked the Cards with two safeties in the last 6-2-3 innings.

Meanwhile the Cubs, only 3 1/2 games off the pace and holding a fine spot to go places if they can hit the same clip in their home park as they did at the same stage last year, had a stiff struggle with Cincinnati's Reds. They finally won out in the 10th inning, 2 to 1, when errors by Les Scarcella and Alex Kampouris put Frank Demaree on third and Augie Galan singled him home. Galan nearly lost the game by misjudging Lew Riggs' hit in the seventh but he atoned by knocking in both Cub runs.

In the only other game on the big league program, the Chicago White Sox continued their bid for third place in the American league by hammering out an 8 to 4 decision over Detroit's Tigers. Neither Tommy Bridges nor Vic Karpis could check the Chicago batters, as Luke Sewell and Luke Appling inserted a pair of homers in a 14-hit attack. Between them they handed the Sox nine free trips to first.

SPORT SHORTS

By EDDIE BRUETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—Jesse Owens will "definitely" turn pro. . . Who wouldn't, with 150,000 potatoes in sight. . . The Queen Mary has an athletic salon decorated with pictures of well-known fighters in characteristic poses. . . Phil Scott is revealed—you guessed it—prone on the canvas. . . Glad to see Paul Dean back with the Cards, inasmuch as this corner picked the Gas House to win the gonfalon. . . Talking about flag races, the Giants have won 12 series in a row.

Notre Dame will have a swell team next fall, despite heavy graduation losses. . . And don't let anyone kid you about that. . . Elmer Layden, despite the moanings you can hear all the way from Canada, has enough material for three Grade A teams. . . And secretly brags about it.

Jesse Owens was given a lot of nicknames by European sports writers, but the only one he remembers is the "black panther," the tag given him in London. . . Jesse says he couldn't read the labels the German scribes tacked on.

Max Schmeling demanded $600,000 on the line for a return bout with Joe Louis. . . Mike Jacobs, who had offered $300,000, recovered himself and told Max to go to. . . So far, Joe McCarthy is the only major league manager to call his shots in the spring. . . But it looks as if William Terry may get under the wire. . . If the Yanks and Giants meet in the world series, they're sure to break all attendance records.

Suspension of Ferrell Lifted

BOSTON, Aug. 25. (AP)—Boston Red Sox Manager Joe Cronin today announced he had lifted the suspension he slapped on the hurling ace Wes Ferrell last Friday after the big right hander stalked from the box in the sixth inning of the game with the New York Yankees.

Cronin talked with Ferrell for three-quarters of an hour at Fenway park before announcing the pitcher would take the mound again on Thursday. His suspension, however, was lifted effective today.

Cronin said the $1000 fine he imposed on Ferrell would stand. Ferrell went onto the practice field immediately after his conference with Cronin.

Softball Tourney on Salem Diamond

SALEM, Aug. 25 (AP)—Tillamook Portland No. 1 and first-round victories in the state softball tournament here, which ends with a championship game Saturday.

Tillamook eliminated McMinnville, 7-1, Portland defeated Coos Bay, 3-0, and Eugene outplayed Silverton, 11-1. Ten more teams play first-round games tonight and tomorrow, with the quarter-finals Thursday, and the semi-finals Friday.

Portland No. 1, defending its 1935 championship, relied on the strike-out hurling of Berlant for victory. He fanned 11 and allowed only three hits. Tillamook put its game on ice with a five-run spree in the fifth inning, while Eugene, never headed, collected 14 hits to move into the second round.
