

JUNIOR CHOIR SET TO SING AT SERVICES

Saturday night at 7:30 at the Rayburn tabernacle, the Junior choir, composed of children from the third grade through the sixth grade, was to sing again. Last Saturday night they gave quite a number of interesting songs. One especially attractive was singing the books of the Bible. Besides the chorus numbers, they had several solos, some solo obligations with the chorus and other interesting features.

Friday night a large audience again welcomed the evangelist as he spoke on "Why Do the Wicked Prosper?" Many young people were present and quite a number of these with adults, some 24 in all, went forward.

It was "Church night," and all of the participating churches were well represented, although many from the outside, even some from a distance, were present. There were visitors from Clifton, from Grants Pass and some still further from home. A young man and his wife, the former from Texas and the latter from Albuquerque, N. M., were introduced as converts from their home towns in years past. They were given opportunity to testify.

Sunday morning Dr. Rayburn is to begin the service at 10:30 in the morning in order that the entire sermon may be broadcast over the local station, KFJL. Those who cannot attend are invited to tune in at 11 o'clock, when the tabernacle service goes on the air.

Sunday morning Dr. Rayburn will speak on "The Scope of the Kingdom." This is considered one of his greatest addresses. With reference to this, the evangelist requests: "I want your prayers for this sermon and for all the Sunday services. I want Sunday to be a great day in Klamath Falls."

In the morning at the First Baptist church at 8:15, all Christian people who can do so are requested to be in attendance at an early prayer meeting, emulating Jesus himself, who "rose a great while before day to pray."

Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, in the Klamath temple, the young people of the various churches will meet in a union service with Robert Rayburn as the leader.

Sunday evening at 7:30 in the tabernacle, Dr. Rayburn will speak on "Confessing Christ."

A nursery is maintained at the First Presbyterian church for all the evening meetings, and will be open for the Sunday services both morning and evening. This is to permit mothers of small children to attend the meetings in comfort and also is intended to prevent distraction of the audience during the sermons. All mothers bringing their children are earnestly requested to take advantage of this arrangement. Some have not done so, and usually at the critical time the children become restless.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the store meeting for men will be held in Walgreen's drug store, corner of Main and Seventh streets. "Confessing Christ" from noon to 12:30 p. m. a shop meeting will be held at Kesterson's mill. This meeting will be in the open air near the dry kilns.

Wednesday at 11:45 in the morning, an open-air shop meeting will be held at the Weyerhaeuser plant. All of the shop meetings have been enthusiastically received. This was especially true at Kesterson's and Weyerhaeuser's.

Dr. Rayburn will give his blackboard talk at this time. It is urged that all men who can possibly do so will attend these great meetings.

Last night Dr. Rayburn spoke on the text, "It is appointed unto man once to die, and after that the judgment." He said in part: "I could go all over this country from north to south and from east to west and would not find a single person who would disbelieve the first part of my text.

"There may be some who claim to disbelieve in the latter part of the text, but God says that the judgment is coming. We can't cut down through the text and say this part is right and that part is not true.

"There are two universal experiences in human life. One is birth and the other is death. I do not know who you are, but I know that some time, some where you were born, and some day you will die. Yet in spite of this great statement of God himself in my text, men live as though there would be no judgment. It is because they take refuge in lies."

puta up to us is fair, sensible and reasonable."

"The devil didn't get a Roman soldier but an apostle to betray Christ. The ones that betray Jesus today are in the church of Christ."

"It is possible to be filled with the Spirit or to be filled with the devil. There are 'children of God' and 'children of the devil.' The one hundred and twenty were 'all filled with the Holy Spirit' at Pentecost. Peter said to Ananias and Sapphira, 'Satan filled his heart to lie to the Holy Spirit.'"

"Satan, instead of the Holy Spirit, may at times, fill church members."

"Paul warns lest church officers 'fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.' Where does Satan set his trap? Not in a saloon or in a gambling house. Those are already his captives. He sets his trap in the church. If he can trap the church member, and better than that, an officer, and best of all, a preacher, how he can scandalize the church."

"Satan's bait may be perfectly all right. A piece of cheese or a piece of apple pie is good, but cheese in a mousetrap is dangerous for the mouse. Honey on biscuits is delicious, but honey in a bear trap is mighty dangerous for the bear."

"Satan uses things innocent in themselves to ensnare the unwary."

"I expect a preacher to have some sense whether anyone else has or not."

"It is just as much heresy to disbelieve in a personal devil as to disbelieve in a personal Savior."

"The works of Satan are just as patent as the works of God."

"The Bible speaks of the depths of Satan and the heights of God."

"James commands us to submit ourselves to God, but to resist the devil."

"What are you to do when the devil roars? Why, just let him roar. Some Christians get scared at his roar."

"If you don't believe in a personal devil, you resist him for a little while, and you'll believe in him."

"Don't let the devil have any place in your business, your religion or in your social life."

"A lot of people can't tell the difference between sophistry and argument."

"A Christian ought to be the same kind of a Christian on Thursday afternoon at the country club as on Sunday in church."

"The finest dancers I have ever seen in my life were harlots, and I have seen some of the finest dancing in the darling diversion of houses of prostitution."

"A thing that is born in harlotry is loved by harlots and practiced by harlots has no place in a Presbyterian home or a Methodist home or the homes of any denomination."

"A thing that is popular in the underworld should not be popular in a Christian home or in a Christian church."

"A man is known by his tools. You can tell a blacksmith or a carpenter or a farmer by his tools. The spotted card is the recognized tool of the gambler anywhere and everywhere in the world."

"Some say, 'you can gamble with anything.' Yes, but they don't. You go into a gambling home and suggest 'Rook' or 'Monopoly' and they will laugh at you."

"You can make harm out of anything. There's no harm in a thing unless you put harm in it, that's sophistry. That's not logic, yet that is the common defense of things questionable."

"What is the intrinsic moral difference between winning a silver card tray at Mrs. High-brow's and a silver dollar in a jackpot at 25 cents a play at Dirty Monte's with the gang? The winners both use the same tools."

"Why don't they gamble with chess? Because chess is pure science and the best player wins."

It is estimated that nearly half of the 28,000,000 vehicles in use in the United States today lack safety glass, four wheel brakes and other modern safety features.

HEARING ON LABOR HELD AT LAKEVIEW

LAKEVIEW, Ore.—The Labor Relations board hearing against the Crane Creek Lumber company came to a close here Friday. The circuit court room has been jammed the last three days with large delegations from Willow ranch because of the unusual amount of interest from that community in the case. The federal government endeavored to prove that certain employees had been discharged because of their efforts to sponsor the CIO while the testimony of the witnesses for the lumber company tended to deny the charges.

Investigators for the Labor Relations board and for the CIO are now busy in Lakeview gathering evidence in support of the complaint which the CIO has made against all of the Lakeview mills wherein the CIO claims that local mills refused to sign with their union. The CIO is also attacking the Lake County Association of Loggers and Mill Workers.

If the present CIO charges materialize the community will probably be kept in a turmoil for about six weeks while all the charges are being threshed out.

President A. J. Callaghan of the Lake County Association of Loggers and Mill Workers, an incorporated union, stated today that his union now has working agreements with the Buzard Lumber company and with the Lakeview Pine Lumber company, and that the form of contract is the type of contract being used in Pacific Coast sawmills where the American Federation of Labor is the bargaining agency. The relationship between the local CIO union and the local independent union has been very cordial the past few weeks, and members of both groups have been co-operating very harmoniously in the Lake county wooden box campaign.

MODE SHOP SOLD TO PARTNERSHIP

Announcement was made Saturday of the purchase of the Mode Shop, 535 Main street, by Mrs. Mabel Hunsucker and Mrs. Nellie Bartholf.

The former owner, Bertha Bertsch, has operated the Mode Shop in Klamath Falls for the last 15 years.

Mrs. Hunsucker is well known in this city, having been with La Pointe's for about five years and with Adrienne's for the last two years. Mrs. Bartholf has recently come to Klamath Falls from Eureka, Cal.

The new proprietors said Saturday the shop will be closed several days for remodeling and will re-open Thursday with all new fall merchandise.

SAD MISTAKE

UNION, S. C.—(AP)—A policeman asked a merchant here to repair his car, but the tradesman found it locked and couldn't locate the key.

He ordered a locksmith to make a key, had the machine washed and greased, filled with gas and oil and reparked.

Then the real owner got in and drove away, apparently unaware of what had happened.

"It looked exactly like mine," the merchant lamented.

SAFE AND SANE

LINCOLN, Neb.—(AP)—Comes forth the Lincoln American Legion post with a solution of the Halloween problem.

It will sponsor a city-wide children's party—to keep them out of mischief. The Lincoln recreation board and other civic organizations will assist.

Horses are able to go for months without lying down. Nature provides them with a muscular mechanism that allows the animal to rest his legs while remaining on them.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—An apathetic stock market today generally tilted backward, although a number of issues managed to contest the trend with modest advances.

Dealings were comparatively slow from the start with the tick-or-tape seldom pressed in its recording work.

While selling was not particularly urgent, it was sufficient to shake down many leaders fractions to a point or more.

Steels skidded from the start as another drop in mill operations at Pittsburgh and other centers was forecast. At the same time some observers thought activities in this field may now be activating in bottom.

Chrysler pointed higher following yesterday's favorable dividend action, although the company's earnings statement was a bit under Wall street's calculations.

With most foreign markets closed, there was no inspiration from that quarter. The usual weekend cashing in of profits and evening up of accounts, brokers said, contributed to the sluggish performance.

Transfers were in the neighborhood of 700,000 shares.

WHEAT REGISTERS GAINS NEAR CLOSE

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—After fluctuating nervously most of the session, wheat prices rose to small fractional gains before the close today.

The market was pulled up in sympathy with a strong advance at Winnipeg, where prices were around two cents higher at one stage. Frost in Argentine and overnight export sales of around 400,000 bushels of North American wheat, including 160,000 bushels of Pacific coast grain counted on the bullish side. But buying power in Chicago lagged. Trade gossip that some domestic No. 3 mixed wheat had been sold to Spain was noted.

Wheat closed 1/4¢ off to 1/2¢ higher compared with Friday's finish, December 96 1/2¢ to 96 3/4¢, May 96 1/2¢ to 96 3/4¢, and corn was 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ down, December 57 1/2¢ to 57 3/4¢, May 59 1/2¢ to 59 3/4¢. Oats were 1/4¢ down to 1/4¢ up.

The United States is the leading wheat producing country of the world.

OREGON'S TURKEY PRODUCTION FALLS

Oregon turkey growers expect to market some 700,000 birds this year, as compared with 800,000 in 1936, preliminary estimates prepared by extension specialists at O.B.C. show. Seventy per cent of these are expected to go to out-of-state markets.

It generally pays to market top-grade birds, growers have found, even though that requires several killing periods. It is well to withhold all feed for 24 hours before killing, and to cool carcasses to 40 degrees as quickly as possible.

He produced $7200 which the trio locked in a trunk, or so Lenci thought. In due time Lenci opened the trunk to discover his funds had been replaced with a package of stage money appropriately labeled "phony maxima."

WHEAT REGISTERS GAINS NEAR CLOSE

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—After fluctuating nervously most of the session, wheat prices rose to small fractional gains before the close today.

The market was pulled up in sympathy with a strong advance at Winnipeg, where prices were around two cents higher at one stage. Frost in Argentine and overnight export sales of around 400,000 bushels of North American wheat, including 160,000 bushels of Pacific coast grain counted on the bullish side. But buying power in Chicago lagged. Trade gossip that some domestic No. 3 mixed wheat had been sold to Spain was noted.

Wheat closed 1/4¢ off to 1/2¢ higher compared with Friday's finish, December 96 1/2¢ to 96 3/4¢, May 96 1/2¢ to 96 3/4¢, and corn was 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ down, December 57 1/2¢ to 57 3/4¢, May 59 1/2¢ to 59 3/4¢. Oats were 1/4¢ down to 1/4¢ up.

The United States is the leading wheat producing country of the world.

OREGON'S TURKEY PRODUCTION FALLS

Oregon turkey growers expect to market some 700,000 birds this year, as compared with 800,000 in 1936, preliminary estimates prepared by extension specialists at O.B.C. show. Seventy per cent of these are expected to go to out-of-state markets.

It generally pays to market top-grade birds, growers have found, even though that requires several killing periods. It is well to withhold all feed for 24 hours before killing, and to cool carcasses to 40 degrees as quickly as possible.

OLD STORY, NEW TWIST

JOLIET, Ill.—(AP)—It cost James Lenci, a tavernkeeper, $7200 in savings to learn all confidence men aren't in jail. Three strangers promised him $20 for each $100 he could produce. He produced $7200 which the trio locked in a trunk, or so Lenci thought. In due time Lenci opened the trunk to discover his funds had been replaced with a package of stage money appropriately labeled "phony maxima."
