MANY ATTEND MEETING FOR WOMEN, GIRLS

A special meeting for women and girls was held Wednesday afternoon at the tabernacle, when Dr. James Rayburn, the evangelist, spoke earnestly and directly on "Womanhood." It was the largest afternoon audience thus far.

At noon Wednesday, the Giddens held their dedication service at the Elk hotel, 1111 Main street, when 100 Bibles were presented to Manager J. R. Devian. The meeting was held in the banquet room of the hotel. Dr. Rayburn gave the principal address.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Dr. Rayburn's topic was to be "Heaven." Concerning heaven, he said, "I am going to speak on a glorious subject, 'Heaven.' There are four things about heaven that are clearly revealed in the Bible. These are all that are revealed, but they are wonderful. Many Christians have very vague ideas as to heaven. If I am going to heaven, I want to know something about what it is."

Thursday night a unique service will be held at the tabernacle at 7:30 o'clock, when Dr. Rayburn will hold what he calls a "Quaker meeting." To this all county, city, lodge and church officers are specially invited. Of this meeting Dr. Rayburn says, "There will be some talking going on Friday, but I want you to hear what I say and not what some one says I say, which Rayburn didn't say. The bulk of the message will be to young men and young women. You will never forget this meeting. The song service will be short. Something startling is going to happen the last five minutes. You should come early to get a seat."

Thursday and Friday afternoons at 2:30 o'clock the Bible study lectures will deal with "The False Prophet." An introduction will be given to the Scriptural teachings as to Divine healing. "I am sometimes asked, 'Don't you believe in Divine healing?' I certainly do, but I believe in Scriptural healing."

The lecture Tuesday afternoon on "The Deity of Christ" was one of the most convincing presentations of this subject ever heard in Klamath Falls. The close of this address dealt with the "Virgin Birth of Jesus." Dr. Rayburn closed this address thus: "Every bit of your humanity you got from your mother. The function of fatherhood is to impart life. The function of motherhood is to bear the child. If Jesus were to have a human body, it had to come from Mary. The life came from God the Father. Jesus is either the Son of God, as the Bible claims He is, or else He is an illegitimate Jew."

Tuesday night Dr. Rayburn said in part: "My text is one of warning and warnings are for sensible people. The railroad engineer must whistle at a crossing in order to protect human lives. The text is such a warning. 'Be not deceived; God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap.' One of the saddest things of all is that Satan is a deceiver. There are a lot of folks that think they are saved, but they are not saved, for Satan has deceived them.

"There are four things about sowing we all know. First we reap the same as we sow. If we sow wheat we expect to reap wheat, not something else. This poor fool that went about in a white robe, took a tree, he used one part to cook his meal with and used the rest to make his god, to which he bowed down and which he worshipped.

"That was a foolish thing to do, but you are having some people walking the streets of this town, some of them university graduates, that are doing just as silly things. They are giving their lives, their worship to just as foolish things. They think they know all about Christianity. Sometimes they know the least. This best, we know the least. This law of reaping the same as we sow is God's law, a kind law, a benevolent law. It is a kind law because by it like produces like.

"The second thing I would have you notice about this text is that you reap more than you sow. You sow a grain of wheat and reap a head of wheat, multiplied 40, 50 or 60 times. A farmer couldn't live without multiplication. The devil comes along and tells us that we will not reap more than we sow.

"The third thing is we sow with the deliberate intention of reaping. There were several millions of acres sown this year in my home state. The farmers are looking forward to reaping. Nature has fixed that wheat in a certain number of months will mature. Wheat is going to get ripe. But the devil comes along and tells you that you will not reap.

"I know something about sowing to the flesh. I have seen the sowing and the reaping of the corruption afterwards. There is one thing about the modern dance. You can never get below it. You can get below the Bible. You can get so low down that people will not respect you, but you can't ever get any lower than the dance. It will always be possible to find it lower than the lowest. It will go down just as low as you care to go."

"The fourth thing about this text is that you never, never reap what you never sowed. If you can't get wheat without sowing wheat, how in the name of reason can you get salvation unless you sow it? Whatsoever a man doesn't sow, he will never, never reap.

The Thursday morning schedule of neighborhood prayer meetings in connection with Rayburn revival campaign is as follows: Mrs. Charles Thomas, 2105 Wantland street (joint meeting of three Mills addition groups). Mrs. George Taylor, 510 North Seventh street; Mrs. Lund, 126 High street; Mrs. G. L. Black, 207 Grant street; Mrs. L. L. Truax, 403 Pine street; Mrs. Anderson, 323 Walnut street; Mrs. V. J. Josephson, 1946 Earl street. Mrs. Eastman, Pacific Terrace and Erie street; Mrs. Amy Whitehead, 1220 Pleasant street; Mrs. Kinsey, 597 Hill street, Shipington; Mrs. B. K. Robinson, Lindley Heights; Mrs. Higdon, First avenue, St. Francis Park; Mrs. Rutledge, Altamont Drive, Altamont; Mrs. Hall, Second avenue and Altamont drive, Altamont.

Mrs. Jensen, Homedale; Mrs. Cox, 226 East Main street; Mrs. Lovenberg, 322 North Tenth street; Mrs. Chamberlain, 317 North Ninth street; Mrs. McKim, 1530 Crescent avenue; Mrs. Calder, Pelican City.

Rayburnisms

"God, make us sensible in religion as in other things!"

"There's a hawl room at the Presbyterian church for babies."

"There isn't any counterfeit on earth as cheap as a counterfeit church member."

"Truth is sometimes the most uncomfortable thing in the world."

"The harvest of wild oats will be as sure as God Almighty lives."

"There is no law in this country—I hope there never will be although it looks sometimes as though there would be; if so, I hope the Supreme Court knocks it out—there's no law in this country that compels a farmer to sow what he doesn't want to sow. And there's no law that compels a young man to sow wild oats, either."

"Sometimes the things we know best, we know the least."

"You can get lower than anything else, but you can never get lower than the modern dance (Go down as low as you possibly can, and it will be lower still."

DO AMERICA'S FLIERS APPRECIATE THE COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS?

YOU bet they do! In aviation is one of the most loyal groups of Camel smokers in the country. For example, the famous transcontinental record holder, Col. Roscoe Turner, smokes Camels. So do test-pilot Lee Gehlbach, Capt. Frank Hawks, and TWA's chief pilot, Hal Sneed—to mention only a few. As Col. Turner puts it: "I guess you've noticed that men in aviation are great smokers. And, from what I see, most fliers share my regard for Camels. They need healthy nerves. That's one big reason why so many of us stick to Camels."

And many millions of Americans—more people than smoke any other cigarette in the world—give a hearty o-kay to Camels!

 WINIFRED CASTLE works long hours at her editorial desk—smokes a lot. She says: "I can smoke as many Camels as I please and they never get on my nerves."	 PETER KILLIAN is a news photographer. His slant: "Camels are always with me—especially at the table. Camels help my digestion to keep clicking."	 ED GRAFFE , gym instructor, says: "Camels set me right—and that takes in a lot of angles. I can smoke all I please without getting jangled nerves."
 WARREN PIAGET , crack salesman, drives 50,000 miles—and more—a year. "I get tired," he says. "And I think it's swell the way Camels give me a 'lift'."	 EDWARD HURLEY , busy architect, says: "To my way of thinking, a man doesn't really know what honest-to-goodness natural flavor means until he smokes Camels."	 MARIE DRISCOLL , business girl, speaks for a good many stenographers when she says: "Camels have everything I like a cigarette to have."
