FRESNO, Calif., March 5 CP-Much of the city of Fresno, in-cluding the business district, lay-under a fled threat today but of-ficers expressed hope that levees would held.

The threat of extension of the flood, which had already inundat-ed 14 square miles of outlying residential sections, was from the bank-full Herndon canal.

One 49-foot break was reported in the canal but Under-Sheriff Jack Tarr said the south side of the canal appeared to be holding. It was from this side that the business district threat came. Warnings Broadcast
