GOVERNOR TO 'TELL ALL' IN RADIO SPEECH

Interior Secretary Tried to Block Building of Bonneville, Claim.

STATEWIDE HOOKUP PORTLAND, May 17 (AP)—Gov. Charles H. Martin will broadcast the final major address of his campaign for the democratic renomination at 8:30 o'clock tonight over radio stations KALE, Portland; KSLM, Salem; KORE, Eugene; KRNR, Roseburg; KOOS, Marshfield; KMED, Medford; KFJI, Klamath Falls; and KAST, Astoria.

PORTLAND, May 17 (AP)—Gov. Charles H. Martin said he would "mince no words" in a statewide radio address tonight to answer statements in which he was attacked by Interior Secretary Harold Ickes and Senator George W. Norris (Ind-Neb).

Editorials on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS HAROLD ICKES, secretary of the Interior and big shot of the PWA, takes his pen in hand to tell the Democrats of Oregon they ought to turn down Governor Martin and nominate Henry Hess...

HOW much tax does Secretary Ickes pay in Oregon? How often does he vote here? What business is it of Ickes whom the Democrats nominate for governor of Oregon?

SENATOR NORRIS of NEBRASKA is "disappointed" in Governor Martin of Oregon and likewise urges Oregon Democrats to get back of the goon-loving Hess.

WHO deal Senator Norris a hand in the Oregon political game? When did he ever care a hoot for Oregon? His business in Washington is grabbing New Deal pork for NEBRASKA, where he gets his votes.

THIS writer is reminded of the time, several years ago, when leather-lunged poller scoundrels on us here in Klamath Falls to tell us we ought to vote ourselves into bankruptcy for something WE didn't want.

WHILE Roosevelt and his crew have been running the country head over heels into debt, Oregon has been getting OUT of debt.

While the New Dealers have done a miserable job of administering the country's business, Oregon has had an efficient and successful administration. WHILE the country has been kept in turmoil over one visionary experiment after another instituted by F. R. and his left wing buddies, the Oregon administration has plugged away at a workmanlike job, restoring law and order and putting the state on its financial feet.

While federal taxes have MOUNTED TO THE SKIES, Oregon has actually eliminated its state property tax.

OREGON, under the Martin administration, has been KEPT SOLVENT. Lifetime savings in Oregon are still safe. In Oregon, the right to work and earn a living for one's family—one of the most precious of human rights—is still upheld.

If the people of the United States should begin to compare what has happened in Oregon, under the Martin administration, with what has happened over the country as a whole under the New Deal administration, that might be an UPHEAVAL that would bring the nation back to sanity.

No wonder these New Deal big shots don't like the way things have been going in Oregon!

BANDITS STEAL PLANE FROM OGDEN AIRPORT, FLEE TOWARD NORTHWEST

OGDEN, Utah, May 17 (AP)—In one of the first crimes of its type and in American aviation history, bandits today stole a cabin-type monoplane from Ogden municipal airport, Weber county sheriff, James A. Larson reported.

While a city watchman slept in the north hangar, Larson said, the men broke into the middle hangar, rolled out the plane, filled it with gasoline, warmed up the motor and took off.

Larson said the sheriff's office had been "warned in advance" that a plane theft was contemplated. He said Earl Gilbert, 22, Fairview, Idaho, whom he identified as a former Idaho penitentiary inmate, and "Red" Hall, about 22, also of Fairview, were being sought for questioning.

Larson said an Ogden man informed officers of the contemplated plane theft. He believed that a plane theft was contemplated. He said Earl Gilbert, 22, Fairview, Idaho, whom he identified as a former Idaho penitentiary inmate, and "Red" Hall, about 22, also of Fairview, were being sought for questioning.

MARTIN-HESS FIGHT STIRS LOCAL DEMOS

Observers Here Feel New Dealers' Blasts Poor Political Strategy.

By MALCOLM EPLEY Political interest was divided here Tuesday between the local situation and the red-hot Hess-Martin fight for the democratic gubernatorial nomination.

While most of the big news originated in Salem, Portland and Washington in the state campaign, Klamath people who like their politics were figuratively in the thick of the fight and on the alert for every new development.

LANDON ATTACKS MINTON PRESS BILL AS CASE OF 'LIBERALS' INTOLERANCE

CHICAGO, May 17 (AP)—Alf M. Landon, republican presidential candidate in 1936, asserted in a prepared speech today that "none of us, of this generation, has seen a group so intolerant of the views and beliefs of others as are the so-called new deal liberals."

"Only a few weeks ago," he told the Inland Daily Press association, "Senator Minton (D-Ind) introduced a measure which is a dire threat to the press."

Mr. Minton, it seems, would set up a censorship of newspapers and other publications. A great many people are apt to be misled by the apparent fairness of the proposal. The senator has pointed his bill at those who knowingly publish as fact anything which they know to be false. It would, nevertheless, provide a censorship.

"A press operating under such a law, would cease to be free. Certainly, it could not fairly give both sides of a question if one side happened to represent the views of the federal government or government officials."

PRECINCT CANDIDATE ASKS ICKES' SUPPORT

PORTLAND, May 17 (AP)—E. J. Hayes sent the following telegram to Interior Secretary Harold Ickes yesterday: "Understand you are endorsing candidates in Oregon primary election. I am running for democratic precinct committee. May I have your support?"

Indian Found Dead in Yard At Chiloquin

Death came to Alex Tecumseh, 46, early Tuesday morning as he lay in the yard of his home in Chiloquin where he was found by friends with whom he had been during the night.

Tecumseh, an outstanding character on the Klamath Indian reservation, was as well known in Klamath Falls as he was in Chiloquin. The little Indian, who had been crippled all his life, was a frequent visitor here when he walked along Main street with the aid of his two crutches, his high, broad brimmed hat framing a genial smile.

Pillow Under Head Neighbors reported hearing noise at Tecumseh's house Monday night, where it was thought a drinking party was in progress. Tecumseh later went out in the yard where he either fell, or laid down. Later a friend went out to see how Tecumseh was getting along and finding him asleep placed a pillow under his head, returning to the house and falling asleep.

Dr. Peter J. Galente of Klamath County was called early Tuesday morning to Tecumseh's home when friends failed to awaken him. Dr. George Adler, Klamath county coroner, was later notified and returned with Tecumseh's body to Klamath Falls.

An autopsy was planned by Dr. Adler at Ward's funeral home Tuesday night.

RAGING SISKIYOU STREAM SWEEPS CAR, OCCUPANTS FROM HIGHWAY BRIDGE

MEDFORD, May 17 (AP)—An accident on Carberry creek, in the isolated Steamboat district near the Oregon-California line, nearly cost the lives of two persons.

Michael Schoenberger, 66, and his mother, Luzetta, 84, while attempting to drive an auto across the Carberry creek low-water bridge, were swept into the swirling freshet and were carried 100 yards down stream before the auto stranded on a sand-bar.

Schoenberger placed his aged mother on top of the overturned auto, swam ashore and procured the aid of nearby CCC enrollees in rescuing her and extricating the auto.

The mother sustained severe bruises and suffers from exposure. The Schoenbergers were starting on an auto trip to Los Angeles.

BEETLE LOSS DECLINES

PORTLAND, May 17 (AP)—Eastern Oregon and Washington losses from the western pine beetle have declined from the peak of 1,700,000,000 board feet of ponderosa in 1932 to approximately 400,000,000 feet last year, F. P. Keen of the government entomology bureau, revealed today.

SIX KILLED, SCORES HURT IN LONDON SUBWAY TRAIN CRASH, RESULTING PANIC

LONDON, May 17 (AP)—At least six persons were killed and scores were injured today in a rear-end crash between two crowded subway trains and a wild panic in the underground tunnel under Victoria embankment.

The wreck of the worst in the history of London's subway, the "Underground."

Some of the victims were trapped for hours in the wreckage after an eastbound train smashed into the rear of another between the busy Temple and Charing Cross stations.

Forty firemen and policemen worked two and a half hours to extricate four passengers from the big red first and third class coaches.

Passengers told of the jarring impact of the crash followed by blinding showers of sparks in the pitch black tunnel.

Screaming women and blood-spattered victims fought in the darkness in a mad fight to escape through the splintered windows.

FACSIMILE LINKS BRAZIL REVOLT TO GERMAN NAZI

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 17 (AP)—The newspaper Correio de Manhã today published a facsimile of a page from the German publication "Reichswart" and said it linked the unsuccessful Brazilian fascist rebellion of May 11 with German Nazis.

The page included a letter signed by Gustavo Barroso, chief of the green-shirt integralist militia, to the European Nazi alliance, in which he said, "We await your orders." The letter was dated May 25, 1934.

3 Condemned Killers Flee Carolina Jail

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 17 (AP)—Three of six convicts under death sentence for killing Olin Sanders, penitentiary guard captain in a frustrated jail break last December 12, escaped from the Richmond county jail here early today.

The trio, George Wingard, 22, of Columbia, Herbert Moorman, 41, of Detroit, and Clayton Evans, 25, of Rochester, N. Y., were missing at the early morning checkup.

Ingenious Key Jailer H. W. Desportes said they opened the outer door of the jail with a key made from a spoon, twine and pieces of a tooth paste tube, after breaking locks on their cells and on an inner door.

With three other prisoners now in the penitentiary, Wingard, Moorman and Evans were convicted in January of murder and sentenced to die in the electric chair. An appeal to the state supreme court is pending.

Capt. Sanders was fatally wounded with an ice pick-like weapon after Governor Olin D. Johnston had made a dramatic personal plea to the convicts to release the officer, whom they were holding hostage in a penitentiary office while they sought to force prison attendants to open the gates.

GUIDE TELLS OF SEEING WRECKED REDFERN PLANE

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, May 17 (AP)—A guide told today of seeing wreckage of Paul Redfern's plane, with the lost aviator's grave beside it, "six days' travel" beyond the British Guiana border near where the Guyanai river flows in Venezuela.

Alexander Gilbert, bushman who guided the recent expedition of Theodore J. Waldeck, New York explorer, into the Guianan wilds, said the expedition learned of Redfern's death from an Indian.

This Indian, according to Gilbert, swore he and other natives in a Savannah village saw the Redfern plane crash and burn, killing the American flier.

EASTERN PRIMARY DRAWS HEAVY VOTE

Pennsylvania Tests CIO Power; F. R. Accused of Interference.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17 (AP)—Heavy balloting developed today as Pennsylvanians voted in a primary that capped bitter battles for party control and marked a major political test of power for John L. Lewis and his CIO.

In Philadelphia, where nearly 900,000 of the more than 4,000,000 Pennsylvanians eligible to vote reside, some charges of fraud were heard. Elsewhere verbal squabbles were reported in scattered precincts. Balmly weather throughout the state speeded voting.

Polls were opened from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m., Eastern Standard Time.
