BLY

BLY—Alfred Elder is the guest of his father, G. L. Elder, from Los Angeles. Before returning there he will visit with brothers in Williams, Oregon.

Archie Cruise was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Friday.

Mrs. James Waldeck was in Klamath Falls Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen White and daughter Shirley, were guests at the Gene Detrick home over Friday and Saturday of last week.

They left early Saturday for Walla Walla, Washington, their home city.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick and daughter Betty were in Bly Friday. They were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Causeby on Friday evening by a few friends. The Kilpatricks have just returned from Ashland to be at their home in Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stump and daughters Helen and Marjorie were guests at the home of Mrs. Stump's parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Williams on Wednesday, August 3, at Fort Klamath.

Miss Bernice Mahan of Lakeview called at the Joe Wallis home on Friday. Miss Mahan, who is a teacher of tap dancing was organizing a class of beginners at Bly. Due to so many being away for the summer and the whooping cough epidemic it was decided to postpone the classes until next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gootch and daughters were away on a vacation which took them to Medford, Ashland and Bonanza.

Mrs. Stone and children Melvin and Bonnie Jean have been vacationing at Summer lake, their previous home town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lindimuth and daughter Margaret, accompanied by Miss Anna Marie Wolf have been the guests of Mrs. Lindimuth's sister, Mrs. William Titus in Bly from Yorks, Pa. They left to continue on their trip Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Causeby and two small sons were weekend guests at the Kilpatrick home.

Marvin Stephens was visiting with his wife and small son as well as other relatives recently from Paisley.

Bill Stephens and family left Sunday for their home near Chico, Calif., after spending several weeks in Bly.

Mrs. Wilma Keffer and daughter Jessie Lee are at home in Bly from Eugene where Mrs. Keffer was a student at the University of Oregon summer session.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Meyers have had as their guests Meyer's brother and wife from Los Angeles. They were accompanied by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McGee have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Herick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wallis and children and Mr. and Mrs. John Beller were the Bly grangers who attended the grange picnic at Boggs canyon in upper Langell valley Sunday, held by the Langell Valley, Bonanza and Hildebrand granges.

BLY GRANGE HEARS SEASON'S PROGRAM

BLY—L. Alva Lewis, Pomona master, and Mrs. Amos Slack, state deputy, were visitors at the first August meeting of the Bly grange. Lewis stated that the program for the coming season in the subordinate granges was to arrange more interesting meetings to prompt better attendance, and to solicit new members.

Mrs. John Bieler was appointed as home economics chairman to take the place of Mrs. Charles Dixon who has resigned. Tentative plans were made for the organization of a home economics club.

The next meeting of the grange will be held September 1.

AGED DIVER

WHEATON, Ill.—The kids said "gee" when Grandma Candrian took a dive from the four-foot board at the city swimming pool. They didn't know Mrs. Adolph Candrian had learned to swim and dive when she was 57 years old. She's 79 now.

It was children's day, but the manager approved Mrs. Candrian using the pool, thinking she wanted to wade around.
