KLAMATH GIRL WEDS PORTLAND MAN AUGUST 14

The following account of the wedding of Miss Ruth Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Campbell of the Hunt apartments, Klamath Falls is of great interest to members of the younger set. The story appeared recently in the Oregon Journal:

The marriage vows of Miss Ruth Campbell and Mr. Walter A. Wilson Jr. were made at a Sunday rite, August 14, at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. K. L. Harton. The Rev. M. C. Montgomery of the West Moreland Presbyterian church read the marriage service before the fireplace, which was decorated with pink and white gladioli and candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Campbell of Klamath Falls. She wore a costume of new teal blue wool trimmed with wine colored leather and gloves to match. She wore a jacket of gray kid caracul and her "doll" hat matched the dress as did her other accessories. The orchid of her corsage had a deep red center to repeat the similar color of the dress trimmings. Miss Ernestine Campbell was her sister's only attendant. Dr. Donald B. Hicks was best man for Mr. Wilson.

Jimmy Clary lit the candles and Miss Dorothea Hill of The Dalles sang, accompanied by Mr. John S. Gilhousen, who also played the wedding march.

Assisting with the serving at the reception were Mesdames Walter Hinman, Louis J. Kohl-russ, Wayne Held, Harold Chole, and the Mesdames Arlene Williams and Endora Greggs. The bridegroom's cake was passed by Dolores Hinman and Donna Lee Harton.

On return from their wedding trip to Seattle, Victoria and the beach, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home, after September 1, at 2445 N. W. Quimby street.
