Coast league leaders, going into the final two-week stretch, ranked unchanged in standings Saturday with Los Angeles still topping Sacramento by two games. The Seals, with Bill Walker in fine pitching form, beat San Diego, 3 to 0, Friday to check the Padres' winning streak at five games.

But Los Angeles clung to its two-game advantage by defeating San Francisco, 5 to 3, and incidentally, halting Sad Sam Gibson's bid for his 21st pitching victory of the season.

The Seals' veteran twirler failed to baffle the sharp-eyed Angels, who swung on his offerings for 13 hits, including a homer by Third Sacker Eddie Mayo. Ted Jennings of the Seals also hit a homer and accounted for three of the seven hits off Guy Bush.

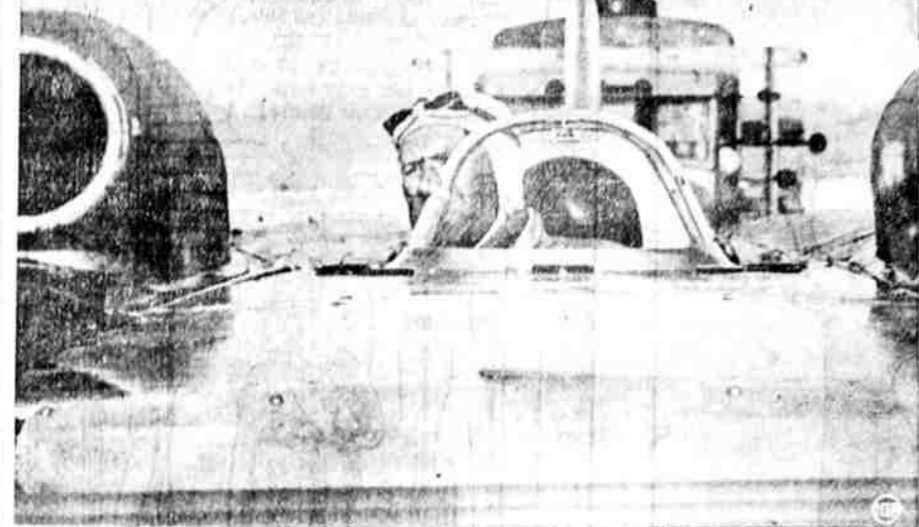

Seattle's surging Suds, continuing a spurt which has carried them from the second division into third place and only 4 1/2 games behind the Angels, pounded Ken Douglas and Bill Miller for 13 hits in defeating Portland, 9 to 7. Hal Turpin, allowed 11 hits, went the route for Seattle.

Rambles Six Miles Per Minute—But No Record

Captain George E. Eyston didn't set an official record—but nevertheless, he reached a speed of 360 miles per hour on Utah's Bonneville salt flats. The electric eye of the timing device recorded 347 miles per hour on the first trip, but went out of order on the return trip, when experts said he hit 399 miles per hour. "I'll try again," Eyston declared. He is shown in his "Thunderbolt."

Local Nine Determined to Carry Playoffs Into Third Game

Dunsmuir	0	1	.000

Intent on making it two games straight over the Klamath Falls Red Sox, the hard-hitting Weed Sons of Italy invade Klamath Falls Sunday for the second game of the three-game series to be played at the local fairgrounds.

Last week the Red Sox were humbled by big John Landucci, 5-1, in the California town, collecting only six bingles off the towering right-hander and scoring in only the first inning. The Weed Sons are anxious to complete the semi-finals in two games, if at all possible and in this way earn a week of rest should the Redding-Dunsmuir feud last the full three games.

A win for the Red Sox on their home diamond Sunday would put them right back in the pennant chase.

Pretty Betty Lou Johnson, 16-year-old sharpshooter from Parkright, Ill., seeks and gets expert advice from Marine Private Clyde Betty Lou, a junior championship entry, is just one of 4000 marksmen who are blazing away at hundreds of targets which stretch for two miles along Lake Erie

Rochel, flashy first shooter, who was out with an injured hand. Landucci also was unable to hurl due to an injured elbow. Both boys are back in the lineup now for the final pennant drive, and a much sturdier and stronger nine will represent the Weed Sons than the fans looked over before.

Should the Red Sox win Sunday, the toss of a coin will decide where the final game of the series will be played next week. Naturally both teams are anxious to have home games to please loyal fans.

BRITT ARMED TO FACE PETE

Aging Alvin Counting on Armbreaker to Thwart Belcastro Threat

Alvin the Armbreaker, sometimes known as ex-champion Britt, moves into the armory wrestling arena Tuesday night, and his immediate objective will be to humble, subdue, pulverize and otherwise quash one Pete Belcastro.

Alvin the Armbreaker has a large task cut out for him. His aforementioned opponent, a foreboding spirit who has been casting gloom and despair amid the grappling ranks and arousing sentiments of alarm, if not outright terror, among the wrestling followers for lo, these several weeks, is not an easy personage to humble, subdue, pulverize or otherwise quash.

But do not worry too much—at least not prematurely—about Brother Alvin's powers of digestion. He lost to World Champion Duke Chick once—on another occasion he had the titleholder hanging on the ropes at the end of the hour's time limit—but otherwise his armory record is unimpeachable.

On the other hand, Britt has to be formally introduced to Peter a new "mystery hold," a wicked surfboard punctuated by kicks in the small of the back. That, too, may make a difference.

Bill Hutchison, club pro, said the 36 holes might be played either all at once or in two separate rounds of 18 holes each. He stipulated, however, that each contestant notify him immediately before starting play. Otherwise, he said, scores would not be accepted.
