"SPOOK" PARTY PLANNED BY LEAGUES

The membership of both Epworth leagues of the First Methodist church will hold a Hallowe'en party in the social hall of the church tonight (Saturday), beginning at half past seven o'clock. Miss Helen Hough has charge of program arrangements.

On Sunday afternoon the young people of both leagues will assemble at the church at half past three o'clock for a trip to Chiloquin to attend the sub-district rally which will be held in the Methodist church of Chiloquin when the leagues from Lakeview and Bly will join with the group.

Lovely fall flowers were used as the center arrangement and the young couple's future was told by candles. Cards were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Mrs. Copeland has spent the last few months in San Francisco with her brother.

Woe Eight Club At Nelson Home

Mrs. N. T. Nelson entertained for members of the Woe Eight club at her home Thursday afternoon. Luncheon was served followed by cards and Mrs. R. Coppenger held high score with low held by Mrs. E. J. Blind. The travelling prize was awarded to Mrs. C. Jones.

A guest of the afternoon was Mrs. A. D. Redfield.

SOCIETY HAS HALLOWE'EN PARTY FUN

The Main young people's society of Christian Endeavor on Wednesday night, October the twenty-sixth was host to the other societies of the Klamath-Lake union at a Hallowe'en party. After a few lively games, stunts were presented by several of the societies.

Dr. Lee Smith of the Klamath Falls Presbyterian society entertained the group. Maxine Goin of the Christian church young people enlivened four young men, blindfolded them, and had them feed one another marshmallows which they did not know were blackened. Other amusing stunts were presented climaxed by a contest suggested by the union officers. The group was divided into four parts, each given fifteen cards on each of which was one letter. These cards were properly arranged to spell "UNION CONVENTION." When the proper

MOTHER, DAUGHTER PLANNING JOINT BAPTISM SUNDAY

A unique baptism service is to be held at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Henry of 700 North Third street are to have their baby boy baptized. At the same time Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kennison Morris of St. Francis Park are to have their baby girl christened. The unique feature is that of a mother and her daughter having their babies baptized at the same time, as Mrs. Morris, formerly Luella Minerva Henry, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Henry.

According to the pastor, the Rev. Theodore Smith, this has occurred only once before in all of his over 30 years of ministry, when Eleanor Elizabeth Hurn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hurn was baptized at the same time as William Harold Van Duker, who is a son of their daughter, Mrs. Gretta Hurn Van Duker. This occurred on May 2, 1937.

In this connection Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Van Duker will again present another boy for baptism. The parents have been in charge of the Presbyterian work at Rogue River for the past two years but have arranged for a supply of the pulpit there, so that they may have their child baptized in the local home church.

The local pastor seems to be all smiles over this particular baptism for another reason, as the Henrys have decided on a combination name including that of the father and of the pastor.

MRS. BATES IS HOSTESS AT CHURCH MEET

Group two, of the First Christian church council, met Thursday afternoon, October twenty-seventh, at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Bates on Lincoln street. Mrs. R. W. Clapp assisted Mrs. Bates as hostess.

Plans were made for a harvest dinner which will be served in the church dining room Thursday evening, November third. The public is cordially invited to attend this benefit affair. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. A. E. Bailey, Mrs. Ray Biggers, Mrs. Wesley Cross, Mrs. Clarence S. Robertson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Bert Schultz, Mrs. Eva Summora, Mrs. Harry Staus, Mrs. P. W. Sayles, Mrs. Ray Steers, Mrs. M. C. Deering, Mrs. Mary Alexander and two guests, Mrs. Emil Paul of Lebanon, Oregon, who is here visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Bates on Lincoln street.

The next meeting of group two will be held November seventeenth at the home of Mrs. Wesley Cross on the Keno road.

The benefit harvest dinner will be sponsored by the entire council of the First Christian church.

MORMON RELIEF SOCIETY DRAFTS WINTER PROGRAM

The Relief society organization of the Latter Day Saints church has started work on the season's program. The first Tuesday of each month is the theology and testimony meeting. This year the women are studying the historical background of Christ and the apostles in the New Testament. The November lesson is, "The Twelve Jesus Sent Forth."

The second Tuesday has been designated as a day for work and business. At this meeting no lesson is given and the time is spent in sewing for charity and bazaars.

Visiting teachers make reports to the president at this meeting, also. These teachers visit the homes of members each month giving a lesson and receiving any contributions the members wish to give to the society. The teachers' topic for this month is "Message of the Home." At the close of the meeting refreshments are served.

The third Tuesday is the literature lesson. This year the society is studying the advance of the novel, especially "Robinson Crusoe," which is considered by most critics to be the first real English novel. They will also study the works of Sir Walter Scott.

The last Tuesday is the social service lesson. This year self-study in relation to social problems is planned, and the topic this month is "My Emotions Hinder or Help Me."

All members and any others who are interested in these topics are cordially invited to attend these meetings. The Relief society is conducting a membership drive. Anyone wishing to join may do so by attending three consecutive meetings and paying the annual dues, it was announced.

Lucky Thursday Pinocle Club Meets

The Lucky Thursday pinocle club met October the twentieth at the home of Mrs. Mary Martin, 2209 Wantland avenue.

Those present were Mrs. Kate Crowson, Mrs. Katherine Williams, Mrs. Fannie Goddard, Miss Nona Hall, Mrs. Helen Miner, Mrs. Florence Young, Mrs. Louise Borton, Mrs. Kathryn Billings, Mrs. Maggie Up-ton, Mrs. Fannie Young, Mrs. Stella Smith, Mrs. Katherine Evans and the hostess, Mrs. Martin. High scores were given to Mrs. Williams, low to Mrs. Evans and the traveling prize was awarded to Mrs. Borton.

Thursday Sewing Club Has Meeting

The Thursday Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Jeanette Jackson October the twentieth at which time Mrs. Olive Marshall was complimented with a birthday shower.

Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Florence DeLap, Mrs. Lois Hill, Mrs. Doris Smith, Mrs. Gladys Cheyene, Mrs. Leona Hayse, Mrs. Wineta Brannon, Mrs. Dorothy Jackson, Mrs. Leona Qualls, Mrs. Olive Marshall and the hostess, Mrs. Jackson.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Marshall on November the third.

Dinner Party Is Given By Barths

Mr. and Mrs. Barth entertained at dinner Friday evening at their home on Main street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Copeland, (Gladys Church).

Lovely fall flowers were used as the center arrangement and the young couple's future was told by candles. Cards were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Mrs. Copeland has spent the last few months in San Francisco with her brother.

MISSIONARY FROM CHINA TO SPEAK AT CHURCH HERE

Rev. Erwin Kohfeld, a missionary home from China, who is working in the territory of the China Inland mission, will be the special speaker at the Sunday morning service of the Immanuel Baptist church at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Kohfeld was associated with Rev. John and Betty Starn, who were martyred by the "Reds" of China.

The story of the consecration and devotion of the people who are affiliated with the China Inland mission will be a source of inspiration and encouragement to all who hear Rev. Kohfeld at this service. Rev. J. Clarence Orr, pastor of the church, declared Saturday.

The public is cordially invited to hear the Rev. Kohfeld, Rev. Orr said.

Apostolic Faith

A cordial welcome is extended to the public to come and enjoy the services at the Apostolic Faith church, 225 North Eighth street.

Devotional service each Sunday at 10:30 a. m., and an evangelistic service at 7:45 p. m.

A concert of sacred music and song by the 17-piece orchestra and mixed chorus opens the Sunday evening service.

Interesting personal testimonies and congregational singing lead by the orchestra are a part of each service. A collection is never taken.

Services each Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock. Come and enjoy these services.
