Mrs. Zell is planning something of special interest for the opening exercise of Sunday school. The Sunday school picnic will be either the first or second Sunday in August so we are especially inviting everybody to come and help us plan for this event. The contest is progressing very nicely. It is expected to be real interesting during the few remaining Sundays. The adult Bible class is finally beginning the discussion of the thirteenth chapter of Matthew.

At the worship service we will discuss with you some of the promises of God, studying the part that man must do, and then the greater thing that God will do. It is impossible to discuss the large number of promises that are contained in the Holy Writ, therefore we will only take up a few of them. God has said, "If man will do something, He will do something. This will be an illustrated blackboard talk.

"Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you."

AUSTRALIANS VISIT HERE ON TOUR OF NORTH AMERICA

Lee S. McMullen acted as host here this week to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Crawford of Sydney, Australia, who are touring the United States and Canada with the idea of promoting business relations between North America and Australia.

Crawford is an economist representing the Rural Bank of New South Wales and is a lecturer in the University of Sydney.

As a local feature of the trip, Ralph R. Macartney, general manager, conducted the visitors on a tour of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company plants.
