

❖ SOCIETY ❖

MRS. HOLLY MYRON MONROE

MARRIED IN CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY

MR. AND MRS. ERMEL H. HOSLEY AND ATTENDANTS

MRS. WALLACE C. CUSICK

Summer Romances

MRS. HOLLY MYRON MONROE is the former Forest Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schneider of Cottage Grove. Her marriage was an outstanding affair of July the fifteenth in the First Baptist church in Cottage Grove. The young couple will make their home in Klamath Falls.—Kennell-Ellis, Eugene.

MRS. WALLACE C. CUSICK is a recent bride and newcomer to Klamath Falls. Mrs. Cusick is the former Gwendolyn Taylor-Paddock, daughter of Mrs. Floyd E. Bolich of Portland and Mr. M. Sayle Taylor of Hollywood and New York. Mr. and Mrs. Cusick were married at the John B. Cusick home on Jefferson street June the eighteenth.

—Kennell-Ellis.

MARRIED IN CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY on the evening of Saturday, July the fifteenth, was Miss Estelline Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bell, who became the bride of Mr. Bert W. Schmidt of Klamath Falls. The bride was particularly lovely in a gown of white lace with bows of white velvet trimming the bodice and ruffled skirt.

MR. AND MRS. ERMEL H. HOSLEY AND ATTENDANTS. From left, Miss Dorothy Templar, her sister's bridesmaid, Mrs. Ermel H. Hosley, who was the former Miss Margaret Jane Templar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Julian Templar. Mr. Hosley and his brother, Mr. Robert Hosley who also served as best man. The Hosley-Templar wedding was an interesting event of June the thirtieth at the Templar home. Mr. and Mrs. Hosley are now at home in Chiloquin.

—Kennell-Ellis.