Club Enjoys Park Picnic

Sojourners, Guests Spend Afternoon Out-of-Doors

The Sojourners held an enjoyable picnic at Moore park on Thursday, July the twenty-seventh, at half past twelve o'clock when nearly a hundred and twenty were present, including a number of prospective new members.

Success of the affair was largely due to the efforts of the committee in charge, Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mrs. J. Oren Nichols, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. Ralph Stearns, Mrs. Glenn Jones and Mrs. Ruth Turner.

After the lunch hour, each member and visitor introduced herself and gave a brief history of her life. Cards were in play later by the mothers while the children availed themselves of the playground equipment offered in the park. Mrs. Hatty Hoban was awarded the score for high in cards.

The next meeting of the club will be held August the tenth at the Willard hotel when Mrs. George Hall and Mrs. Lloyd Young will preside as hostesses. The calling committee for that meeting will be Mrs. S. C. Weise, Mrs. J. B. Jones and Mrs. Victor V. Vehringer.
