

Plans Made By Bethel

Trip to San Francisco Of Interest to Daughters of Job

Numerous members of the Klamath Bethel, Daughters of Job, as well as others interested will be leaving about the fifteenth of August for San Francisco to attend a four-day grand session in the bay city and a special Daughters of Job day at the exposition. Miss Margaret Horton, honored queen, urges those planning to make the trip to contact her.

At the opening of the session Tuesday evening, August the fifteenth, there will be a girls' banquet at six o'clock, followed by a dance. There will be also a past supreme officers banquet at six o'clock, followed by a reception and entertainment at eight o'clock.

The tentative program for the other days follows: Wednesday — Opening of meetings at half past nine o'clock in the morning; reports, half past one o'clock in the afternoon; membership banquet at six o'clock; exemplification, half past eight o'clock.

Thursday—Morning and afternoon sessions to be followed by a tour of the city at four o'clock, ending in Chinatown where dinner will be served.

Friday — Regular session at half past nine o'clock; grand guardian and associate grand guardian luncheon at noon;

Saturday — After session breakfast from eight until ten o'clock in the morning; leave for Treasure Island at eleven o'clock; registration and reception in San Francisco building; luncheon at Continental house.

Sunday—Tour of East bay. Reasonable hotel rates have been listed for the visitors, according to word received here, and guest houses and apartments are also available.

COUPLE GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY FRIDAY NIGHT

A group of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller at a surprise party at their home on the Lakeview road last Friday evening, July the twenty-eighth, when they presented them with a wedding gift. Cards were enjoyed after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Naomi Kerslake and Mr. Miller who is a well known Klamath rancher were united in marriage on July the fourteenth in Alameda, California, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cain, son-in-law and daughter of the groom. Before returning here to make their home they spent about two weeks on a wedding trip.

Mrs. Herbert Landis, Mrs. Charles DuFour and Mr. Jack Miller accompanied them to Alameda to attend the wedding.

MRS. CONFORTI COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

A group of friends complimented Mrs. Albert Conforti at her home on Riverside drive Saturday evening. Hostess for the occasion was Irene Pastega. A clever arrangement of miniature candy baskets was used on the table, centered by a large stream. Individual moulds of ice cream completed the party theme.

Guests included Mrs. Conforti, Edith Pinelli, Jimmie Pastega, Angelina D'Olivio, Carolyn Grievani, Livia Boechi, Angelina Pastega, Amelia Guidi, Lillie Pretari, Beniah Agee, Lottie Agee, Alma McLean, Edith Reams, Amelia Pinelli, Ruth Brooks and the hostess, Mrs. Conforti.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED IN DORRIS

DORRIS — A joint birthday party for 11-year-old Charlotte Varnum and 16-year-old Victor Cavenor was held this past week at the home of Mrs. Frank Peebles of Red Rock. The afternoon was spent in playing games and at a late hour delicious food refreshments were served the young people.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Peebles' hospitality were Mary Paul Parsons, Delores Paulson, Paul Cavenor, Ruth and Harold Cavenor, Ray and Mary Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Craddock, Jane Craddock, Mr. and Mrs. Archie West and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Henderson, Leslie Beal and Mrs. Jennie Varnum and family.

MRS. LARGENT HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

A group of friends surprised Mrs. Mildred Largent at her home on Miller Hill road Tuesday evening, August the first. The occasion honored her birthday. Five hundred was played with high scores held by Mrs. Largent and Mrs. Oscar Schupp, low by Mrs. Edith Eschle and Mrs. Bill Martin. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Mrs. Largent was presented with a lovely decorated birthday cake and a very nice gift from the group.

MISS DAHLEIM THURSDAY BRIDE OF TODD KNAPP

In a quiet ceremony read Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Rev. L. K. Johnson of the Klamath Lutheran church, Miss Bernice Dahleim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dahleim of this city, became the bride of Mr. Todd Bradford Knapp, also of Klamath Falls.

The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Justin Andrew McDonald, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

The bride was lovely in a costume which included a burrhead wool coat, a frock of duonnet and orchid with a small black hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of rosebuds and gardenias.

Mrs. McDonald wore a frock of ashore of roses with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was similar to that of her sister.

Following the ceremony the wedding party enjoyed dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Knapp are at the Marion apartments and plan to leave this coming week on a wedding trip to the south.

Mrs. Knapp has resigned her position as stenographer in the offices of Mr. Vandenberg and Mr. Ganong. Mr. Knapp is a member of the Oregon state police.

Annual Picnic Held

Martin Greene Home Scene of Gala Gathering Sunday

For nineteen consecutive years the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Greene near Holey has been the scene of a delightful gathering, the annual picnic of the congregation of Sacred Heart Catholic church. This year the picnic was held Sunday, July the thirtieth.

A temporary garden was erected in the garden against a natural background of shrubs and flowers, and mass was said by Rev. Father Michael Ahern, serving as pastor for this parish during the absence of Father Timothy Casey.

The picnic is sponsored by St. Mary's Altar society, M. A. Roy Pickett the president, and the Knights of Columbus, Mr. McLaughlin council, Mrs. Hector DeBaetes, chairman of group. No four of the altar society, assisted Mrs. Pickett.

A picnic luncheon, bountifully spread on long tables under the large shade trees in the side garden, was served at noon and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in games. A buffet luncheon was served later in the afternoon with food drinks graciously provided during the late hours.

A great many from neighboring parishes were present, and especially well represented were Merrill and Fort Klamath communities.
