

City Briefs

Find Old Herald—Mrs. G. B. Fife, of 45 Pine, while renovating her house recently, came across a copy of the Evening Herald of April 24, 1916. An advertisement by the Herald Publishing company offered for sale printed copies of the complete list of registered voters in Klamath county, which, the advertisement stated, contained 3696 names. The present list of registered voters totals around 18,000, indicating the growth in population since 1916. In spite of the comparatively modest population, the weekend traffic jam was a problem, with a long list of accidents reported on Monday, which was the day the old paper found by Mrs. Fife was published.

Attend Fair—Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Orem, who recently attended the Golden Gate fair in San Francisco, returned to Klamath Falls Sunday. They made the trip by motor and were accompanied by their son, Harry Lawrence Orem, and Mrs. Norris, sister of Bruce Dennis, formerly of this city, and her son. While in the south they visited friends and relatives, including Mrs. Elsie Orem Williams of San Francisco, formerly of this city. They returned over the Redwood highway.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil A. Stewart and children left Saturday by motor for Seaside, Ore., where they will spend a vacation visiting the Al Stewart family, formerly of Klamath Falls. Cecil Stewart is employed in the Oregon state highway department shops as mechanic.

Returns—Mr. and Mrs. William Cosboom have returned to Klamath Falls following a vacation of two weeks, much of that time spent at Lake O' the Woods and Paulina lake. Cosboom, pioneer resident of Klamath Falls, is employed with the Oregon state highway department.

Visiting Here—Mrs. William C. Holley of Seattle, the former Lois Catherine Hout of Klamath Falls, is visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hout of Pacific Terrace. Lt. Holley is stationed in Monterey, Calif., with the Sixth Army Engineers where they are demonstrating army maneuvers for the reserved officers.

At Hillside—Marian Harty of Jamestown, N. D. has accepted a position as office secretary at Hillside hospital. Ann Michalak of New York City, who recently served in that capacity, has left for Yuba City, Calif., to work in a hospital there. Mary Kosial of Nebraska, who has been on general duty at Hillside, is also assisting in the office.

Visiting Here—Mrs. Henry, mother of Melvin Henry of Eighth street, is visiting in Klamath Falls at the home of her son and daughter-in-law from her home in Sandpoint, Ida. Mrs. Henry is a librarian in Sandpoint and will visit here for several weeks.

Flee South—Glenn Hout, one of the owners of the Home Lumber company, flew south by plane from Medford early Sunday morning, called to Los Angeles by the serious illness of his father. The elder Hout suffered a heart attack recently and has been in a grave condition.

Recuperating—Isabelle Jones, employed as operator by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, is recuperating at her home on Lincoln street following an attack of pneumonia. Miss Jones lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray P. Jones.

Improving—N. Y. Stoddard, mill superintendent of the Lamm Lumber company at Modoc Point, was reported as improved Wednesday morning by hospital attendants at Hillside. Stoddard has been a patient at the hospital for several months.

Improving—Charles Nelson, who suffered painful hip injuries in an automobile accident Friday afternoon as he was working with a state highway department maintenance crew near Wocua, was reported as resting easily at Klamath Valley hospital Wednesday morning.

To Tululake—Mr. and Mrs. James McRoberts motored to Tululake Sunday where they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Collendine.

Return Home—Mrs. Everett Palmer of Worden, accompanied by her infant twin sons, left Klamath Valley hospital for their home Tuesday afternoon.

Pinochle Party—The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary will sponsor a public pinochle party at the KC hall Thursday afternoon at 1:45.

Improving—Mrs. Ralph Vincent, who has been ill for the past few months suffering from low blood pressure, is reported as slowly improving at her home in Mills addition.

JUMPING FROGS EXCITE SCOUTS AT CAMP FEST

Boys attending the Boy Scout camp at Crescent lake this week were coloring the air with excited yells and cheers during a frog jumping contest held at camp Tuesday afternoon.

The method used, according to one of the judges, was to draw a 12-foot circle, place the frogs in a box, turn the box in center of the circle to free the frogs and the winner was the frog which first crossed the line. In the case of those having loads, the loads proved a great disappointment as they promptly buried themselves in the sand. It was reported.

Following are the winners in the frog jumping contest: Frog derby, those under two inches: first, "White Flash," Bill Masters, Troop 4, time, six minutes; second, "Hi Water," Jim Fox, Troop 4, third, "Sandy," Ray Harris, Troop 15; fourth, "Chaffey," Bud Brown, Troop 4. Over two inches: first, "Singer," Glenn Miller, Troop 4, time, 2:10 minutes; second, "Fifi," Jerry Cotter, Troop 13; third, "Chang Kai Shek," Edwin Scott, Troop 4; fourth, "Romeo," Ray Harris, Troop 16.

Free for all: first, "Measles," Elmer Waites, Troop 44, time, four minutes; second, "White Flash," Bill Masters, Troop 4; third, "Singer," Glenn Miller, Troop 4; fourth, "Screwball," Doug Fetsch, Troop 13.

MURRAY GRAPPLES FOR BICYCLE IN IRRIGATION CANAL

"Spec" Murray, armed with a grappling hook, fished the canal near the Shasta way bridge, Tuesday but his object was not to seek a gruesome object, but to recover a bicycle said to have been tossed in the irrigation ditch.

According to Murray, a young boy walking near the bridge saw a second boy pushing a bicycle along the road. Watching the youth, he saw the boy lift the bicycle and toss it over the bridge into the canal. He advised Murray, who later improvised a hook and brought out a machine owned, and reported missing, by Pat Smith, junior detective.
