

REDDING SLAUGHTERS LOCALS

CRIPPLED SOX GO DOWN BY 10-1 SCORE TO CUT TIE

Results of Sunday's games: Redding 10, Klamath Falls 1. McCloud 6, Mt. Shasta 2. Weed 3, Yreka 1. Dunsmuir-Hilt (no game).

The fast Redding Tigers invaded the local fairgrounds Sunday afternoon and slaughtered a game but crippled Klamath Falls Red Sox nine to the tune of 10 to 1.

Manager Shipman of the Sox was without the services of two star players, Marshal Evestone, centerfielder and Clyde Carlstrom, pitcher. Evestone was out of town on a vacation trip and Carlstrom was laid up with a sprained ankle.

Cliff McLean, Sox relief hurler, went the full route for the locals, allowing 13 base knocks and issuing six free passes to first. Of the 10 Redding scores only four were earned off McLean. Leo Visintainer hurled a no-hit game for Redding, scattering 10 safeties and yielding but one free pass to first. McLean struck out nine and Visintainer 1.

Redding scored first in the third frame and Klamath came right back to tie the ball game up. Redding had a big fourth inning during which time they collected four singles, a triple, and a free pass to score five times. All five runs crossed home plate after three outs should have been made and were chalked up as unearned.

With the big six to one lead, the Tigers' Visintainer blanked the locals for the remainder of the fray while his mates romped home three times in the sixth and once again in the eighth. McLean's triple was the longest hit of the day. Other Redding batsmen, who led the parade, were Hammericksen with two for two and Huelman with three blows in five trips to the plate.

Jack Lloyd for the locals with three hits in four times up, headed the Sox batters. Quinn collected two hits, a single and a double.

Although the Red Sox made but two errors, both were costly. The Sox ran bases raggedly all during the contest. Cliff Neuffer, league secretary, announced Monday morning the official team standings for the 14-game schedule would be published this week. Neuffer stated that there were still some important matters to clear up before playoff opponents were named. The Klamath Falls Red Sox will be a member of the playoff group and hope to be at full strength once again by next Sunday.

More about the coming playoff will be released later in the week. Box score:

Carter Gets Stretched Out

Marshall Carter, scientific wrestler who will meet Frankie Hale of Los Angeles in the opening event of next Tuesday's mat card, is shown here at the business end of an arm-stretcher applied by Foots Estes. George Wilson, former All-American from University of Washington, will meet Cowboy Dude Chick in the main event and in the middle bout of the card Bob Kenaston will wrestle Tony Morelli.

Klamath Boys In Fisticade

Klamath Falls will be represented by three fighters in the pre-Olympic Fisticade scheduled for the Portland baseball park Monday night, August 28, it was announced by Eddie Volk, matchmaker for the gigantic amateur card, which has been sanctioned by the National Amateur Athletic Union.

The local scrappers are Virgil Jarrett, runner-up for the north-west Golden Gloves heavyweight title last year; John Cobell, sensational Indian light-heavyweight who as a middleweight won the Oregon A. A. U. championship this year, and Hal Burton, promising lightweight.

The fighters will wear the colors of the Chiloquin Athletic club, of which Fred Mutschman is manager. They will be featured on the all-star card, which will include at least 12 bouts.

An international rivalry will spice the program, as Canada is sending four champions to compete with the best talent in western U. S. The Fisticade is being staged to give northwest boxing fans a preview of the first-slingers who will be contenders for the U. S. and Canadian Olympic teams next year.

Tommy Moyer of Portland, holder of the Pacific coast Golden Gloves lightweight title and one of the most prominent amateur fighters in the nation, will meet one of the Canadian champions in one of the headline attractions. Matchmaker Volk announced.

Reserved seats at $1.10 each can be obtained by writing to Rich's Cigar store, S. W. Sixth avenue and Washington street. General admission will be 55 cents.

Rare Triple Play Reported

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 21 (AP)—One of baseball's rarest feats—an unassisted triple play—was made in an amateur game here Sunday. Bruce Compton, 22-year-old second baseman, caught a line drive over second, stepped on the sack to double off the runner and then raced to third before the player, who had started home, could get back. Compton's team won 5-1.

POTATO INSPECTION BEING MADE HERE BY OSC PROFESSOR

Second field inspection on potatoes entered for certification is being made August 21 to 24, inclusive. Professor G. R. Hyselop is again making inspection. RAINIERS NIP SOLONS FIVE STRAIGHT TO STRETCH LEAD

Seattle held a comfortable nine-game lead in the home stretch of the Pacific Coast league pennant chase today after shutting out the upstart Sacramento Senators in five straight games.

The rampaging Rainiers capped the second half of a split week with a double triumph over the Senators at Seattle yesterday while the second-place Los Angeles Angels were dropping a pair to the newly Oakland Oaks at Los Angeles.

A ninth inning tally gave Seattle a 5 to 4 win in the opener, and in the nightcap Les Webber gave up only five widely-scattered hits as he blanked the Senators, 13 to 0.

Oakland's Manager Johnny Vergez cracked out a home run with two on deck in the fifth inning to give the Oaks a 5 to 2 victory over Los Angeles in the first game, and in the second affair the Oaks pushed across four hits in the final frame for a 7 to 3 triumph.

At San Francisco, the third-place Seals and the Hollywood Stars divided honors in a twin bill by identical scores of 5 to 3. Heavy batwork by Dominic DiMaggio and Ted Norbert was a big factor in the opener. Hollywood got four runs in the sixth inning to clinch the nightcap.

Fifty-five base hits echoed in the Portland park as the home town Beavers nipped San Diego in both ends of a bargain bill, 3 to 7 and 11 to 3. Portland bunched four hits in the eighth to tie the opener and six in the fifth to clinch the nightcap.

Betting Boys See Armstrong 7-5 Favorite

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (AP)—The usual pre-fight rumors of "business" drifted along Bash Boulevard today on the eve of Henry Armstrong's lightweight title defense against Lou Ambers, but even the betting men weren't the slightest bit interested.

As you know, this betting fraternity takes very good care not to catch cold in its pocketbook. The odds-layers came right out in meeting and continued to lay 7 to 5 that Armstrong would be "winnah and still champeen" when the tea party is over in Yankee stadium tomorrow night.

The two will cut out the capers and get down to serious socking for 15 rounds or less. The fight itself figures to be the "natural" of the year. Their last tussle was a honey. As a result, Promoter Mike Jacobs still is hoping for a gate somewhere between $200,000 and $250,000.

Mr. Dykes Emphatically Denies He's an Umpire Baiter

"What? Me an umpire baiter?" says Jimmy Dykes, who will manage the White Sox for two more years at a salary of $20,000.

"Umpires make me want to tear my hair out at times. Most of them are too arrogant, too quick to show their authority."

"They seem to be gunning for me. Well, they can suspend and fine me and I'll still squawk when I think I'm entitled to."

DORRIS BEATS GRANTS PASS IN PLAYOFF TILT SUNDAY

Dorris defeated Grants Pass, 8 to 2 Sunday, in the first game of a championship playoff in the Southern Oregon league. The game was played at Dorris. Another in the series will be played next Sunday at Grants Pass.

Features of the game were the three-hit pitching of Alvizo, Dorris moundsman, and the big-time slugging of M. Stelich and Coldaver.

Alvizo was definitely on for the day, and gave a demonstration of brilliant hurling that brought enthusiastic applause from a big spectator section.

Coldaver and Stelich smashed out two homers each for Dorris. Score: R. H. E. Grants Pass 2 3 5 Dorris 8 12 1

MEADOW, Aug. 21 (AP)—Mike Koll, Crescent City pitcher slammed out a homer in the tenth inning, with two men on bases, and the score knotted at 7-all to defeat Medford 10 to 7, in the first of a three-game series between the two teams in the Southern Oregon league playoff.

OWNER HURT ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21 (AP)—Sam Breadon, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals National League baseball club, was injured seriously yesterday afternoon in a fall from a horse. Dr. Robert F. Hyland said Breadon's injury was serious and he may have a fractured skull.
