CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for the beautiful floral offerings and kind expressions of sympathy tendered during our recent bereavement, the loss of our beloved daughter, sister, and granddaughter, Janice Lorraine Hawkins. We wish to especially thank the Rhodes and Ervin families.

THE HAWKINS FAMILY.

Riding madeup of the Big Show, writers term her, the gallant, successful and radiant, Chita Cristiani, the first lady among the equestriennes of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus, coming to Klamath Falls, Saturday, Sept. 2, who races her rearing and high jumping horses around the show's vast hippodrome track to the wonder and delight of the thousands in the stands.

Chita, with all her reckless abandon in the saddle, is an expert horsewoman, as well as one of the finest girl riders ever known in the circus world, and it is her amazing skill that protects her in the most reckless charges of her mounts. She thinks nothing of riding at the highest hurdles blindfolded, and she thinks less of lying on her back on her racing steed as it leaps over brush hurdles.

She also stars in the big high school riding display with The Greatest Show on Earth in which eighty accomplished riders take part.

Opening its gigantic performances at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. with the revolutionary new spectacle designed by the noted Charles Le Maire, the Big Show will present the most imposing array of new wonders, features and innovations ever assembled.

To permit leisurely inspection of the mammoth menagerie of more than a thousand rare animals before the main performances begin, the doors will open at 1 and 7 p. m.

"I have been criticized because of the few changes I have made in the personnel of state departments," Sprague said. "We must move slowly to select the most efficient appointee."

He asked republican leaders to consider carefully candidates for the presidency who will appear here on speaking tours.
