

City Briefs

Police Court—One "rag" five drunks and one woman charged with possession of liquor appeared in police court Wednesday morning before Acting Police Judge Jerry Thomas. Iva Scott, Indian woman, entered a plea of guilty to the charges of drunk and possession and was sentenced to $25 or 12 days in jail. She was in jail late Wednesday in lieu of fine. One traffic ticket holder paid a fine at the desk sergeant's window.

Hunting—Clay Sample, member of the city police force, spent Wednesday hunting.

Guild to Meet—The guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parish hall at which time hostesses will be Mrs. R. H. Anderson and Mrs. John Schubert. Plans for the "country store" to be held in the parish hall Friday evening, November 10, will be discussed.

Car Stolen—A. G. Smith, 133 North Tenth street, reported to city police the theft of his Ford V-8 October 11. Smith advised officers that he did not know from which point the car was removed.

From Boise—Mrs. G. R. Emerson, mother of Mrs. Harry Sturm, and Mrs. Ralph Edwards, sister, both of Boise, Ida., are in Klamath Falls to be with Mrs. Sturm until after the funeral of her young husband who was killed early Monday morning in a crash seven miles north of Sand Creek mountain. The three women are staying at the home of another of Mrs. Sturm's sisters, Mrs. Henry Woyak of Wlad lane. Relatives of Harry Sturm are expected this week from Enterprise, Ore.

Returns Home—Dell Carpenter, driver of the car which was involved in a tragic accident which cost the lives of Harry Sturm and Stewart Fisher Monday morning on the Dalles-California highway when Carpenter's car struck a truck trailer, was able to return to his home near Chemult, Wednesday morning according to Hillsdale hospital authorities. Carpenter suffered head injuries and body bruises.

Club to Meet—The Lucky Thursday Pinochle club will meet October 12 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Louise Borton, route 3, box 1021. Members will gather at the home of Mrs. Nona Hall, 915 East Main street, for transportation.

Has Operation—Agnes Allenby, 310 South Fifth street, is recovering from a major operation to which she submitted at Klamath Valley hospital Wednesday morning. Miss Allenby is employed by Western States grocery.

Reports Accident—Bruce Bartz, block setter, reported a minor accident at Seventh street and Klamath avenue Tuesday at 1 p. m. in which a man named Myers was involved.

Friendly Sewing—The Friendly Sewing club will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carl Williams in Altamont.

Western Writers—The Klamath-Lake chapter, League of Western Writers, will meet in regular session at the chamber of commerce rooms Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Revolver Stolen—Irwin Burke of Bonanza reported the theft of a German Luger revolver, which he said was stolen from his cabin on or about October 11.

Reserve Officers—The Reserve Officers association will meet at 8:30 p. m. Thursday at the Elk hotel. Colonel H. C. Dempewolf will discuss local mobilization.

Leave for South—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd left Wednesday for Palm Springs, Calif., after spending the summer hunting and fishing in southern Oregon. They are pioneer residents of Klamath Falls and each summer return here for the season and leave for their home in Palm Springs in early fall.

Improving—Friends of George J. Walton will be happy to know that he is showing definite improvement at his home in Homevale and is now able to be about. He has not returned to his office, however, and members of the family are planning a trip south soon for Walton's health.

Improving—Martha Jane Bevin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bevin of Pine Ridge, is reported improving at Klamath Valley hospital where the 13-month-old baby is receiving treatment.

Kiwanis Meet—Two speakers on fire prevention from Portland will appear at the Kiwanis club luncheon Thursday. Grover Motley will preside.

To Speak—Phyllis Corbett, Klamath county juvenile officer, was to meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock with the adult study group of the Community Congregational church in the parsonage. The public was invited to hear Miss Corbett.

Improving—Frank Condit, employee of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, was reported as improving by Hillsdale hospital authorities Wednesday morning. Condit was seriously injured in an automobile accident a month ago.

Returns Home—Robert Hunt, son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Hunt, has left Klamath Valley hospital for the family home on Pacific Terrace. Friends of the young man will be happy to learn that he is recovering nicely from a serious accident.

Leaves Hospital—Mrs. Spencer Bishop and infant son returned to their home on Lakeshore drive from Klamath Valley hospital where they have been for the past 10 days.

Circle Luncheon—Lend-a-Hand circle of the First Methodist church will serve luncheon at the church Thursday from 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m., according to an announcement from the committee. There will be a small charge.

In Hospital—Mrs. Florence Sheets, sister of Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt, is receiving treatment in Klamath Valley hospital where she is reported as seriously ill. Mrs. Sheets has been ill at the Hunt home on Pine street for the past 10 days.

Returns Home—H. L. Myers, WPA timekeeper, returned to his home at 216 Roosevelt street Wednesday after receiving treatment at Klamath Valley hospital for injuries received Sunday in an automobile accident.

Lady Eagles—Lady Eagles club will meet Friday at 1 p. m. for a potluck luncheon. Hostesses will be Mrs. Errel Bratton and Mrs. Clare Belland. Sewing will occupy the afternoon.

Women's Council—The women's council of the First Christian church will meet Thursday, October 12, at noon in the church rooms. Luncheon will be served. Group No. 1 is in charge of hospitality and will serve a hot lunch at 12 o'clock to those who do not wish to bring a paper sack luncheon. There will be a small charge. A business meeting and program is slated for 1 o'clock.

Columbus Day Dance—Knights of Columbus will observe Columbus day Thursday, October 12, with an annual dance to be given in the Willard hotel. All KCs and their friends are invited to the affair of which Phillip Albert is chairman. Special features have been arranged for the evening and the dance is anticipated by members of the group.

Neck Injury—A. E. Follett returned to his home at Crescent, Ore., from Klamath Valley hospital where he received treatment for a neck injury suffered several weeks ago.

From Corvallis—Mrs. Wilma M. Rondeau, associate state director of farm security administration, has been in Klamath Falls Tuesday and Wednesday from headquarters in Portland. Mrs. Rondeau is making a combined business and pleasure visit here with Ruth Chindgren, home supervisor of FSA.

VITAL STATISTICS

WIZNER—Born at Hillsdale hospital, Klamath Falls, Ore., October 11, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wizer of Merrill, a girl. Weight: 7 pounds 6 ounces.

And with broiled chops... Wileland's Lager Beer. M'mum!

The PELICAN THEATRE'S 2nd ANNUAL

"PARADE OF HITS"
Starting Monday
October 16th

ONE TO FIE TO!

Even the price is mild

Full 90 proof, 10% straight whisky four years old, 15% straight whisky three years old, 75% distilled grain neutral spirits.

80c FULL PINT

$1.55 FULL QUART

Cobbs Creek

Continental Distilling Corp., Philadelphia, Pa.

Club to Meet—The Lucky Thursday Pinochle club will meet October 12 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Louise Borton, route 3, box 1021. Members will gather at the home of Mrs. Nona Hall, 915 East Main street, for transportation.

Has Operation—Agnes Allenby, 310 South Fifth street, is recovering from a major operation to which she submitted at Klamath Valley hospital Wednesday morning. Miss Allenby is employed by Western States grocery.

Reports Accident—Bruce Bartz, block setter, reported a minor accident at Seventh street and Klamath avenue Tuesday at 1 p. m. in which a man named Myers was involved.

Friendly Sewing—The Friendly Sewing club will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carl Williams in Altamont.

Western Writers—The Klamath-Lake chapter, League of Western Writers, will meet in regular session at the chamber of commerce rooms Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Revolver Stolen—Irwin Burke of Bonanza reported the theft of a German Luger revolver, which he said was stolen from his cabin on or about October 11.

Reserve Officers—The Reserve Officers association will meet at 8:30 p. m. Thursday at the Elk hotel. Colonel H. C. Dempewolf will discuss local mobilization.

Now --- at DICK REEDER'S

Store for Men

Corner 5th & Main

Another Famous Name FLORSHEIM SHOES

600 Pairs on Display and Sizes 6 to 12---Widths AA to E

In keeping with our established policy of featuring only nationally known brands of merchandise, Dick Reeder adds this great Florsheim line of shoes, which is an additional well known name in our family of outstanding men's wear labels.

Brand new stocks of the world's most famous shoes are here—shown for the first time—awaiting your choice for Fall. See these latest shoes... styles for 1940. Heavy brogues for winter, dress shoes, a variety of styles and lasts for your individual needs.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY of Florsheims

$8⁷⁵ and $10⁰⁰

Florsheims Are New at Dick Reeder's

Stetson Hats... Kuppenheimer Suits... Arrow Shirts... Interwoven Socks

Patricia Dean
Will Make Your
"Dream" Figure
Really Yours!

SEARS FAMOUS CORSETIERE

TOMORROW!

Before your very eyes! See out-of-proportion figures transformed into figures of beauty! Miss Dean shows how it's done. Don't miss her priceless charm secrets!

For a New and Lovelier You!

2⁹⁸

Charmode "WILL NOT RIDE UP"
Nu-Back

—trims and slims the waist!
—molds and smooths the hips!

A Charmode NU-Back may be all you need to possess the lovely figure you've dreamed of. See it on the living model. Watch its patented sliding back—and marvel at its low price—at Sears tomorrow!

Coed "GLORIFIES
YOUTHFUL CURVES"

1⁹⁸

To Mould a Glamour Girl

• controls, corrects, beautifies!
• feels light as nothing on!

So skillfully fashioned—you feel uncorseted. So flattering—you can wear the most revealing dresses and win admiration. A corsetry masterpiece. Outstanding Sears value!

FOR YOU! That Young, High-Bosomed Look!

For the figure that's rightfully yours Miss Dean's "Style-Aids" will give you the rounded, uplifted bosom and small waist that fashion demands. The secret of looking smarter, younger, more feminine! 50c to $1.00.

MISS PATRICIA DEAN will personally be in our Ready to Wear department for three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 12, 13, 14.

SAVE MONEY ON 50,000 ITEMS IN SEARS CATALOG. USE OUR CATALOG ORDER SERVICE
SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

SEARS SELL ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING TOTALING $10 OR MORE ON THE EASY PAYMENT PLAN