Canadian War Hero Again To Serve Country

DENTON, Md., Saturday, Sept. 10.—Arthur Gratian Croke, 45 years old, Canadian war veteran, decorated by King George V. for service in the World War, may serve Canada again.

Croke, who moved here twenty years ago, received notice from the Canadian government to be prepared for a call to service. By air mail he replied he was ready.

Private Croke, serving with the 7th Canadian Infantry, was wounded and captured while fighting at the Second Battle of Ypres and spent four years in a German prison camp. He was decorated with a Distinguished Conduct Medal and a bronze star.

Croke said he expected to be sent to Vancouver, where he lives, to help train Canadian soldiers.

Hold-Up Nothing Mom Dropped

ROBERTS, Idaho, Saturday, Sept. 10.—Marden Wells kept a tearful case of hold-ups.

Mrs. Wells dropped it.

"I cried so much her dress was wrinkling out," she said.

Indian's Diamond In Safe Deposit

TRENTON, Ill., Saturday, Sept. 10.—Chief White Eagle, 30, gave a two-carat diamond given him by the late Will Rogers in safe deposit.

Because of numerous attempts to steal it, the 31-year-old Cherokee Indian had a dentist set the diamond in one of his upper teeth.
