MERRILL LEGION AUXILIARY HAS OFFICIAL VISIT

MERRILL.—Mrs. Roy Young, auxiliary president of district No. 4; Mrs. Beas Reigel, district hospital chairman and Mrs. Ned Dixon, district child welfare chairman, all of Roseburg, paid an official visit to the local auxiliary unit Tuesday afternoon with six members of the Mallin unit and Mrs. Huffman, Klamath county health nurse also guests.

Mrs. Young outlined plans for work during the coming year and Mrs. Reigel offered for inspection rugs, trays and baskets made by veterans at the Roseburg hospital, now open only to shell shocked and mental patients.

Mrs. Huffman sought cooperation of the auxiliary in assisting with a health clinic which is planned for some time in November for children of the elementary building and the membership agreed to help.

Ten dollars was voted for Christmas cheer money for the patients at the Roseburg hospital.

Members from the Mallin auxiliary included Mesdames Mary Victorine, Edith Rixor, Agnes Schreiner, Dulcie Alsworth, Alice Nyhart and Martha Brothman. Merrill members included Mesdames Percy Pierce, Warren Fritts, Paul Lewis, Beas Penhall, Arlene Brown, R. L. Dalton, Gene Hill, Anna Howard, Mrs. Tom Willis was a guest and the hostesses were Mrs. Elmer Stukel and Mrs. Fred Stukel with the meeting held at the home of the former.

HENLEY

Henley grange was entertained by the Henley high school band at their annual booster meeting on Wednesday night. The band, under the direction of Otto Johnson, played four numbers. This was followed by an accordion solo by Marjorie Dehlinger and Helen Durant entertained the crowd with a humorous reading. Earl Mack and Carol Howe conducted a Professor Quiz contest and awarded prizes to the winners. Mrs. Williams and Judge Reeder. Games were played under the direction of the lecturer, Jeanette Jackson. At the close of the program Master Percy Dixon talked to the young people on the importance of agriculture and grange work. Refreshments were served to the large crowd by Mrs. U. E. Reeder, Mrs. Jay Fairbro and Leo Jardine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dixon are spending this week in San Francisco at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins and son, Tommy, left Thursday morning for Portland where they plan to spend a week.

Mrs. Earl Reynolds entertained her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon. High score was won by Mrs. James Robison and low by Mrs. Ira Orem. The group was sorry to hear that one of their members, Mrs. Frank Carey of Merrill, is in the hospital at Lodi, Calif. Mrs. Carey was visiting relatives in Lodi when she fell and broke both wrists.

Henley's newest industry, the seed cleaning plant, owned by Harold Dixon, has been operating on a 24-hour schedule cleaning alkali clover seed for several weeks. This week Dixon is running one eight-hour shift since he is busy harvesting his potato crop, but plans to return to the 24-hour schedule in a few days.

Mrs. Bill Williams, chairman of the Henley Grange home economics committee, has announced that Mrs. Gillen, home demonstration agent, will again conduct study groups at the grange hall. The first meeting will be held on Thursday, October 19 and the group will meet on the third Thursday of each month.

Mrs. Elizabeth Norris has been substituting for the past two weeks teaching music in the high school for Mrs. Raymond Cooney, who is in Dallas, Texas, attending a P. E. O. convention.

In last Saturday's football game Henley High's football team won from the Merrill team by a score of 26 to 13 in a game played on the Henley field. Saturday afternoon Henley's seventh and eighth grades football team played Chiloquin and lost by a score of 20 to 13.

In Pennsylvania, there are "ice mines," where icicles form in hot weather and melt when winter comes.

MERRILL BRIEFS

Miss Irene Forsythe, home on a furlough from missionary work in China, is expected to speak at the morning service in the Presbyterian church the Sunday following Thanksgiving day and since it is not definitely known now when the day will be observed here, no definite date can as yet be announced, according to Rev. Lawrence Mitchell.

Miss Forsythe, whose home is in Oregon City, returned to the United States about two months ago and will bring vivid observations on the situation in China as she saw it. She will speak at the First Presbyterian church in the evening of the day she appears here.

Twenty young people of the junior high school group of the Christian Endeavor enjoyed a party last Friday night in the church annex. Supper at 6:30 was followed by a round of games.

Installation of officers of both the senior and junior Christian Endeavor societies will be included in the service next Sunday evening. Junior members will install Gordon Wynant as president; Lee Haskins, vice president and prayer meeting chairman; Wanda Colvin, secretary; Gordon Fritts, treasurer; Kenneth Hummel, lookout chairman; Betty Myers, social chairman and Jerlean Conner, missionary chairman.

Senior young people have re-elected Dale Moore, president; Lois Lewis, vice president; Aileen Colvin, secretary; Velma Haskins, treasurer; Vernon Bowman, prayer meeting chairman; Marjorie Taber, lookout chairman; Joe Fotheringham, missionary chairman and Virginia Haskins, social chairman.

On Wednesday afternoon October 25 the Missionary society of the church will entertain at a missionary tea when Mrs. Ernest Moser, returned missionary from Kribi province, West Africa has been asked to speak. Mrs. Moser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Klamath Falls, with whom she is spending several months of her furlough. The tea will be held in the manse from 2 until 5 o'clock and members of the Mallin and Tulelake societies have been invited. An invitation is extended to anyone who is interested to attend.

DORRIS ITEMS

High prize for the deer with the most points goes to Elden Dennis. He hunted in the Nigger Hole district Sunday and came home with a beauty. Counting only horns of appreciable length the deer had 16 on each side, with many others broken off or only a few inches in length. It weighed 265 pounds and had a 32-inch spread.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ballard were surprised Wednesday by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goettl of Beaumont, Calif. Mrs. Goettl is a cousin of Mr. Ballard. Four Oklahoma potato diggers got excited Sunday evening and started a fist fight at the Homestead cafe and the 40 club, but no arrests were made as they finally wandered back to where their work of potato digging was.

BLY

BLY.—Dr. Rozendal and Mrs. Caldwell of the Klamath county health department were at Bly school Wednesday morning making physical examinations for the first graders. The examinations are expected to continue next Thursday.

Babe Green is expected to return soon from a buying trip to San Francisco.

Lorraine Larsen of Medford has taken over the operation of Neva's beauty shop, which is owned by Mrs. Mary Conn of Lakeview.

Camp Commander and Mrs. P. E. Rohner and Dr. Coniah Bigelow visited the Pike's Crossing side camp on the Sycan river Wednesday.

The Contract club met at the home of Mrs. Lee Quackenbush Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. August Tikkanen and Mrs. Orville Kuhlman made a trip to Klamath Falls Wednesday.

OCCUPATION OF DRIVER SURPRISE

More truth than poetry might have been included in the report filed by a motorist whose car was involved in an automobile accident recently.

While filling out the report in the sheriff's office the man was asked to fill the blank space left for occupation. "Auto wrecker," came back the reply.
