CHURCHES TO MARK ANNUAL THANKSGIVING

The spirit of Thanksgiving will be observed throughout the city and county on Thursday, November 23, not only with the celebraber 23, not only with the celebra-tion of family dinners and gather-ings, but in the churches as well-ings, but in the churches as well. Scarcely a church in the city that has not made plans for ob-servance of Thanksgiving in one way or another. Many of the pastors will deliver their Thanksgiving sermons this coming Sun-day, others are planning to re-view Thanksgiving week next Eunday from their pulpits.

The union Thanksgiving service of all churches in the city will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the First Chris-tian church with Roy, Cocil C. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, as the speaker.

The morning worship opens with the organ prejude, "Praise Him," by Kohlmann. The "Tris-agion" is sung for the processional. The choir and congregation unite in singing "The Doxology" and the "Gloria Patri" following the Lord's Prayer. The choir response to the prayer is "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord," by Whelpton, and the offertory is "Offertory," by Kern. The special music is the anthem by Dickson, "Thanks Be to God." The pastor will speak on "Trust." The service closes with the benediction, the dismissal by the choir, "Lord, Let Us Now De-part in Peace," by Whelpton, and the organ postlude, "Postlude," by

The evening worship opens with the organ prelude, "He Leadeth Me," by Bradbury. The offertory is "Offertory," by Johanson. The pastor will continue the interesting exposition of the epistle of James, which has been drawing a continu-ally increasing audience. His topic will be "Faith is Revealed as the Guide of Actions in Human Rela-tionships." Those attending are notebooks. The service will close KFJI from $:30 to 9 o'clock.

The church school is held in the morning at 9:45 o'clock, with the various superintendents in charge of the different departments: Mrs. Calvin Peyton of the beginners, Mrs. G. W. Mcintyre of the primary, Mrs. D. D. Havens of the junior, and George W. Mcintyre of the senior and adult department. There is a class for every member of the family in this school.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17 (A)—After a listless early trade at steady prices, the wheat market turned fractionally lower today in sympathy with a reaction of securities. Unsettled weather over the eastern part of the hard winter wheat belt kept buying in check.

Most of the support came into the market apparently originated with commercial interests who are watching the domestic supply situation closely. The amount of domestic wheat under loan was reported as slightly above 157,-000.000 bushels, with more than 1,000,000 bushels additional held in reserve under the insurance program. This is helping to main-tain prices of actual wheat above the futures market, with red vari-eties recently quoted well above 90 cents a bushel here.
