Large Audience Attends Class Follies at Bonanza

BONANZA—The first annual class follies of last Friday night consisted of six main acts and seven minor ones. The production drew a crowd which filled the new Bonanza high gym to capacity.

The junior class won the cup which will be rotated from year to year to the class having the best skit. The points on which the skits were judged were: (1) class participation, (2) audience reception, (3) originality, (4) finish.

The judges for Friday evening were Don Norian, Miss Beth Glick and Miss Marion McKensie. The eighth grade won second place with a very humorous dramatization of "The Old Apple Tree in the Orchard" and "Ferdinand the Bull."

Third place went to the seventh grade, who gave us some humorous examples of "Why Teachers Get Grey." The following program was presented to an enthusiastic audience:

"Victory March," the band, directed by Mr. Wheeler; "Yuletide Echoes," the band, directed by Mr. Wheeler; "Why Teachers Get Grey," seventh grade; dramatiza-

PLANS MADE FOR SISKIYOU HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL

TULELAKE—The American way will be the theme of the 1940 edition of the White and Gold, high school annual published jointly by nine Siskiyou county union high schools. Dedication will be to the "American Flag." Plans for publication of the annual, to be effected next spring, were made at a meeting of representatives of all nine schools at Weed last weekend.

Marjorie Thacker, editor of the Tulelake division, Virginia Jones, business manager and faculty member, Principal George Reiben, Miss Eleanor Donohoe and Miss Gladys Neeley attended.

The local high school section will have 25 pages of printed material and advertising.

MALIN HOLDS FARM SCHOOL FOR MEN

MALIN—Classes in agricultural economics which include the study of laws relating to potatoes, grain, and hay grading and certification, and to rulings on shipping and storage of farm commodities are being offered in a part time school for young men of high school age and older who are interested in the subject.

The classes, directed by A. E. Street, principal of the high school, are attended by 25 students. Classes are held each Tuesday and Thursday evening.

At the last class night, R. G. Thompson, Great Northern railway agent here, talked on transportation of farm products.

Class members have organized a basketball squad and following the holidays a challenge will be sent out for games.

MALIN STAR WILL INSTALL

MALIN—Prosperity chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will install newly elected officers Friday evening, December 22 in the Malin Presbyterian church, with the Masonic lodge also installing at that time. Installing officer for the Star will be Mrs. Neta West, Klamath Falls. Mrs. Casper, also of that city, will act as installing chaplain. Mrs. Beulah Wiese, Tulelake, will officiate as installing marshal and Mrs. Fred Cofer, Klamath Falls, as installing pianist. The installation will be open.

Mrs. Leola Trotman, Merrill, has been elected to serve as worthy matron; Homer Heaton, Merrill, worthy patron; Florence DeMerritt, Malin, associate worthy matron; Ted A. DeMerritt, Malin, associate worthy patron; Mrs. Madge Cary, Merrill, conductress; Mrs. Marguerite Harbison, Malin, associate conductress; Mrs. Thelma Stukel, Merrill, secretary; Mrs. Ann Fruits, Merrill, treasurer.

SHASTA VIEW

Hugh Kaffon of Pleasant View tracts is recovering from a major operation.

Mary Lewis entertained the Interurban league auxiliary at her home on the Lakeview highway, Thursday afternoon, November 14.

Mrs. Richard Yates of the Goodwill grocery on Shasta Way is recuperating after an illness.

Mrs. Harriet Baird, formerly of Stewart addition, is a new resident in the Shasta district.

Members of the Suburban league and guests enjoyed a Christmas program after the regular meeting Friday evening in the Shasta school. Under the direction of Mrs. Russell McCollum the following program was presented: Christmas carols by the Campfire girls; recitation by Jackie Morris; song, "God Bless America," by Margaret Guffie; a series of accordion selections by Mr. Bergloff; song, "Christmas," by Patsy Lou Aubrey; also group singing and carols by the audience.

After the program candy, nuts and oranges were distributed to the children and refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

The remainder of the evening was spent dancing.

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the first meeting in January.

Both the Pacific and Indian oceans have a Christmas island.

HILDEBRAND GRANGE INSTALLS OFFICERS

HILDEBRAND—A special meeting was held at the Hildebrand grange hall on Saturday evening, December 9, to install the grange officers of Hildebrand, Bonanza and Langell valley.

Seldon Kirk of Williamson River grange was installing officer. Installing of the Hildebrand juvenile grange was also held at the same meeting with Mrs. Don Hamlin, county juvenile deputy as installing officer. After installation of officers, supper was served and dancing followed.

At the regular meeting of the grange on December 15, four of its members were honored at a reception.

Mr. and Mrs. William King, who celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary on December 12, and Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Hartler, whose 28th anniversary was on December 17, were feted. A beautiful cake, which was served with the lunch, was presented to each couple.

NEW DAUGHTER

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Pitts announce the arrival of a seven pound daughter, seventh child in the family, on December 18. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts make their home on a farm near the state line owned by Otto A. Shultz.

MERRILL BRIEFS

Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore has been confined to his bed the past several days with a case of influenza. He expects to be able to fill the pulpit of the Merrill Presbyterian church again by next Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. Mitchelmore will entertain Christmas day for Rev. and Mrs. Hugh L. Bronson, Tulelake.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daws, Kirkland, Wash., parents of Mrs. Frank E. Trotman, are here for installation ceremonies of Prosperity chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held Friday night in Malin when Mrs. Trotman will take the chair as worthy matron of the chapter. They will spend the holiday season here in the Trotman home.

Miss Louise Fotheringham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fotheringham, returned this week from Bakersfield, Calif., where she attends junior college. Miss Fotheringham will spend the holidays here.
