STOCKS STRIKE SLOW CLIMBING RATE FOR 1940

NEW YORK, Jan. 2 (AP)—The stock market nodded cordially to 1940 today and then proceeded to work up a slow-going advance.

The list showed forward leanings at the start of another 12 month stretch, but the ticker tape never really got warm. While gains ranging from fractions to a point or so were well distributed at the close, transfers held to around 600,000 shares for the five hours.

Traders apparently took with a grain or two of salt the usual batch of New Year's predictions which, hopeful for the most part, still were tinged with caution.

With congress getting under way tomorrow, many potential stock buyers held aloof to await clues regarding taxes and forthcoming election-year political trends.

Strength in major commodities was a buoying influence, brokers believed. Wheat and cotton futures were brisk movers. Relaxation of tax selling and the appearance of investment purchasing here and there seemed hopeful.

U. S. Government bonds were popular in the bond department. Foreign securities markets turned a bit mixed.
