STOCK MARKET

RALLY SPARKS

FOR ADVANCES

NEW YORK, Jan. 3 (AP)—The stock market today dared the hazards of the convening of congress and a presidential message by rallying briskly in continuation of yesterday's advance.

While business started off quietly it gained rapidly later and leaders pushed up fractions to 2 points or more.

Veterans of the trading floor recalled January market psychology is usually better than that of December and that for 38 of the past 39 years the first month's prices have been better than those of the preceding period.

Much of the support, brokers said, came in the investment stocks, and while there was a fair turnover of lower-priced issues, the big money was for the "blue chips," including the steels, motor and rails.

Transfers approximated 1,000,000 shares.

WHEAT WEAKENS ON FINAL QUOTATIONS

CHICAGO, Jan. 3 (AP)—After moving uncertainly above and below previous closing levels during much of the session wheat futures weakened today and lost nearly 1 1/2 cent a bushel at times.

The reaction came after an opening uptick of about a cent had carried September contracts to a new season high of $1.04 1/2. May contracts fell to $1.05 1/2, off 1 1/2 cents, and July to $1.03 1/2, off 1 1/2 cents.

Corn held steady, aided by a firmer cash market.
