

Wedding of Interest

Corliss Orr Ground To Become Bride Of Bend Resident

A wedding of interest in Klamath Falls is that of Mrs. Corliss Orr Ground who was to become the bride of Mr. Virgil Charles Lomax of Bend at a beautiful ceremony to be read Saturday evening at seven o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hillis on Eldorado street.

Mrs. Ground chose a gown of soft spring green crepe beaded with seed pearls with which she will carry an arm bouquet of spring blossoms, rosebuds and sweet peas.

Her only attendant was to be Miss Mary Shafer of Eugene and formerly of Klamath Falls, who was to wear a bouffant frock of black taffeta with silver and gold plaid trim and a corsage of spring flowers.

Mr. Dan Orr of Marshfield, brother of the bride, was to be the groom's attendant.

Rev. Victor E. Newman of St. Paul's Episcopal church was to read the ceremony before an improvised altar of beautiful yellow acacia and daffodils, yellow greens and tall white tapers around which slender greens were placed. Only a few guests were invited to attend the candlelight ceremony in the living room of the Hillis home.

Mrs. Dan F. Orr of Marshfield, Mrs. Ground's mother, arrived here Saturday morning. She was to wear a gown of Alice blue lace with a corsage of gardenias at her daughter's wedding. Mrs. J. M. Lomax of Seattle, mother of the groom, also arrived here this weekend. She chose a gown of spring lace with which she was to wear gardenias.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was to be served in the blue room of the Willard hotel at a table arranged with spring blossoms and tall white tapers. Covers at supper were to be laid for the wedding party, Mrs. Lomax, Mrs. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. George Hillis and their young daughter, Sylvia Clyde, Miss Ruth Flier, Mrs. Victor E. Newman, and Miss James Huser of San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dan F. Orr and the late Mr. Orr, pioneer residents of Marshfield. She was graduated from Southern Oregon College of Education and recently has taught at the Shasta View school from which position she resigned this week.

Mr. Lomax is the son of Mrs. J. M. Lomax of Seattle and is a graduate of the University of Washington. He is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. At the present time he is the Gilmore Oil company distributor in Bend where the young couple will make their home following a wedding trip which will take them to Southern California and Catalina Island.

BRIDGE AFFAIR HONORS VISITOR FROM ISLANDS

Complicating Mrs. James Smith, daughter of Mrs. John Perry of Algona, who is spending several months here from her home in the Philippine Islands. Mrs. Roland E. Oakes entertained at a prettily appointed bridge luncheon at her home, 434 North Second street, Friday afternoon, January the twelfth.

Four tables were in play during the afternoon hours with Mrs. T. E. Shoop receiving the award for high score, Mrs. Jerry Ricker for second high and Mrs. Smith the guest prize and consolation.

BOOK CLUBS PLAN MEETINGS DURING WEEK

Members of the evening book club of the Klamath county chapter, American Association of University Women, will meet Monday evening at half past seven o'clock with Mrs. Robert Hart, 1410 Pacific Terrace. Reviews of "Country Lawyer," and "Rebecca" will be given by Mrs. William Ferguson and Mrs. Eric Majors.

SHOWER COMPLIMENTS MRS. GROUND

Complimenting Mrs. Corliss Orr Ground on Friday evening, Mrs. Clara Shaw entertained a group of friends at her home on the Homedale road with a shower and supper. Bidden to the affair were Miss Mary Shafer of Eugene, Mrs. Ground, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Louis Serrys, Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. R. D. Eller, Miss Caroline Vasretti, Miss Ruth Flood, Miss Imogene Boothby, Miss Mabel Hansen, and Miss Alice Rutanctutter.

HOSTESSES FOR WINTER DANCING CLUB'S WINTER CARNIVAL

One of the most interesting events of the coming weekend is the mid-winter dancing party planned by the Winter Dancing club on Saturday evening, January the twentieth in the Willard hotel ballroom. Hostesses will be, left to right, Mrs. Hollis Jobe, Mrs. David Bullis, and Mrs. Joe Mercer. Several interesting features are planned for the evening and the carnival spirit, planned by the dance committee, will prevail.

MOTHERSINGERS ENTERTAINED AT OLSON HOME

The P.T.A. Mothersingers were entertained on Tuesday, January the ninth by Mrs. L. J. Olson, 912 Prospect street. A business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. John Selby. Final plans were made for the rummage sale to be held Saturday in the former Hardenbrook store.

Mrs. Olson served refreshments at the close of the meeting. The many friends of Mrs. W. O. Smith will be happy to learn that she has arrived in Boston, where she was called by the illness of her son, Dr. Buford Hargus, who has been at one of the large New York hospitals in White Plains. Going east with Mrs. Smith was her sister, Mrs. Emil Pell of Ashland, well known here. Mrs. Theodore S. Durment has received word from her mother that Dr. Hargus is improving.

Many Dads from Klamath Falls are planning to attend the annual "Dads' day" celebration at the University of Oregon on the dates of January the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh. Dean Karl W. Onthank, executive secretary for the University of Oregon Dads said at least 800 were expected from over the state.

Members of Sigma Theta chapter of Delphian will meet Wednesday evening at eight o'clock with Mrs. George Hillis on Eldorado street. Mrs. Hillis will be the leader and the topic will be, "Development of Piano Music."

No Fair Peekin'

All those people who breathed a sigh of relief when the holidays turned into just a memory, now wonder who started the idea that "after the holidays everything will quiet down and we'll just have a nice little rest!" Maybe they haven't read about all the benefits we're going to go to. Positively a whirl!

Somebody ought to have a benefit benefit for the benefit of the society editor whose page this week seems to have benefited by the many benefits about to be given!

Fashion Note: Along with the mention of all the new spring colors—who was the buxom little girl in her very early teens who had talked Mamma into letting her wear a short skirt and knee length socks, but couldn't talk her out of the long underwear? Reminds us of the "Camel With the Wrinkly Knees!"

Glimpsed on Main street Friday, and a fashion note for the Harried Business Man! The gentleman who dressed so fast he forgot to put his galluses up over his shoulders and they dangled under his coat tails!

Four young couples were having a typical American evening, the girls at the bridge table and the men rubbing their paws together for a game of po—, we mean tiddly-winks. The host felt a little peculiar after the fresh crab and relaxed on theavenport. Said one of the lady guests—"I'm sorry R. is feeling so badly, but I'm glad it's not one of the girls. I've just been perishing for a good game of bridge all day!"

Wonder how many people glued their ears to the radios to hear A. and how many to hear F. D. R. last Monday night!

People expect Newspaper People to know an Awful Lot, much to the embarrassment of the N. P. and chagrin of the public. You'd be surprised, but it seems the most frequent question we've been asked the last few years is—"When did the White Pelican hotel burn?"

Don't forget the benefit performance of "Intermezzo" at the Pelican, Tuesday afternoon and evening. All funds go toward the Finnish relief fund. We have it from Grade A authority that the Gay Nineties skit, "How Russia Won the War," is going to be a riot.

Things my children will never do: March in a parade with Civil war veterans. Watch their mother put up black-berry jelly in half-gallon jars instead of these little cup affairs. Wear white starched dresses with eyelid embroidery and high top black slippers with red tops and tassels. Save tin foil for May baskets. Chew nice warm bits of fat donated by the paving crew. Greet the ice man with glee and ride a block on the dray behing a spanking pair of plugs. (Now it's the GE and an ice chopper). Buy thick pencil tablets with pictures of the Titanic and an iceberg. Play "out-at-night" under the charcoal street lamps. And when the charcoal is replaced, use the charcoal for hop-scotch. Go crowd fishing!

It's a fairly rare occasion when we have a flat tire these days. Shades of our first car. Had no front doors. Out riding every Sunday with mother wearing a paper over her chest and under her linen duster. All of us had goggles. Most irritating memory: The time dad made us jump out of the car. (He nearly threw us out when he stopped so fast), run up the road then roll real fast in the dust. This, dear reader, was fire practice. Pa always suspected those gas wagons were going to burst into flames!

Doernbecher Benefit Plans Announced

Annual Bridge Party for Children's Hospital to Be Given at Willard on Saturday, January 27

Plans are complete for the annual benefit bridge party which will be given again this year by the Klamath Falls Women's Library club to raise money for the Doernbecher hospital for children in Portland, a worthy project which the women of Klamath Falls have long supported. This year the party will be given on Saturday, January the twenty-seventh, in the Willard hotel ballroom.

MRS. BUSCH TO DISCUSS PROBLEM AT LEAGUE MEET

Of interest to members of the Klamath county League of Women Voters will be the next meeting when Mrs. James Busch speaks on the league's educational aims on Monday afternoon, January the twenty-second, at two o'clock in the library club rooms.

Mrs. Busch is a most engaging speaker and has been prominent in Klamath county educational circles for some time. To be presented also in the same afternoon will be a review of the panel discussion, federal aid to education, which was covered in interesting detail last year by four local League members.

Following the review a vote will be taken to establish the Klamath League's stand on the question.

Miss Virginia Bubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb of Klamath Falls, has pledged Chi Omega sorority at the University of Oregon according to word received here this week. Miss Bubb is a freshman student at the university. She was active in affairs of the Klamath Union high school group before going to school.

Friends will greet Mrs. Douglas Sbarpe, (Enid Wingham), who is expected to arrive here Sunday from San Anselmo, California, to visit for a time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milus F. Wingham, 1841 Painter street. Lt. Sbarpe is stationed with the US air force at Hamilton Field.

Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones will be hostess to members of the Art Needle Work club at the regular meeting called for Wednesday, January the seventeenth, at half past two o'clock.

CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE MAKING ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE BENEFIT IS MRS. DAYTON E. VAN VACTOR AND SHE IS ASSISTED BY A LARGE GROUP OF CLUB WOMEN.

Although there is a calling committee named, perhaps some women in the city will not be contacted and if they wish to reserve a table they are asked to call Mrs. Van Vactor at 1929, Mrs. Horace E. Geitz at 1062, or Mrs. Andrew Collier at 495.

Named to call for reservations are Mrs. E. H. Balager, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. Frank Holmes, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. George H. Merryman, Mrs. E. A. Thomas, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. C. G. Kelley, Mrs. G. L. Sparks, Mrs. Clark Rawlings, Mrs. C. G. Reymers, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. O. D. Matthews and Mrs. Charles J. Martin.

It was announced that both contract and auction bridge and pinbills will be played. Cards will start at half past one o'clock and tea hour is from four o'clock until five o'clock.

Mrs. E. D. Lamb is in charge of tea and Mrs. John Houston will be in charge of serving. Their committees will be announced later.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY ON ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating their thirty-third wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Moteschenbacher entertained at a family dinner party at their home, 729 Walnut street, on Monday evening, January the eighth.

HOUSEWARMING GIVEN FOR GARDNERS

A group of friends called at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner near St. Francis park and honored them with a housewarming on Sunday evening.

Supper was brought by the guests and later cards were played. Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gardner were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Britti, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoggans, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. Harry Bathiany and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Innan.

Parents and Patrons club members will meet in Klamath Union high school on Wednesday, January the seventeenth, at eight o'clock. A meeting of board members is called for a quarter past seven o'clock.

Benefits Planned

President's Ball, Finnish Relief Fund Events Slated

Two benefits of nation-wide importance are also of great importance in Klamath Falls. One is the president's birthday ball to be given here on Saturday, January the twenty-seventh in the armory with proceeds going toward the prevention, cure and study of infantile paralysis, the other the Finnish relief fund benefit which will be in the form of a theatre performance at the Pelican theatre, Tuesday, January the sixteenth.

Mr. S. P. Miller heads the infantile paralysis committee, and Mr. C. E. Carlson is chairman of the Finnish relief fund drive.

Also planned to obtain money for the Finnish fund is a dance slated for Saturday evening, February the tenth, in the Klamath Falls armory. There will be further details of the dance given later in the coming week.

Making plans for the dance for the infantile paralysis fund, is Mr. George Clark. He will be assisted by other members of the committee including Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, Mr. E. Nicodemus, Rev. Eugene V. Haynes, Mrs. Katherine Nelson and Mr. Miller.

The public is not only invited to the benefits as outlined here, but they are urged to support them as Klamath Falls has other benefits during the year. The theatre performance Tuesday night of this coming week for the Finnish fund, Ingrid Bergman, the Swedish actress, will be starred in the film, "Intermezzo" with Leslie Howard. There is no advance sale of tickets but all proceeds from the one afternoon and two evening performances will go into the fund, it was announced by Mrs. Rose M. Poole, member of the relief committee.
