Missionary Meeting—The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church is to meet at the home of Mrs. George D. Grizzle, 227 Jefferson street, on Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. Mrs. William C. Hurn is to lead the devotion, Mrs. Theodore Smith the study, and Mrs. Ida Grimes and Mrs. Ada Brown are to assist the hostess. There will be reports regarding the executive committee meeting of the Women's Presbytery of the Presbytery of Southwest Oregon, held this Monday at Phoenix, Ore.

Dents Fender—Elmer Frieswold, 31, Tulelake, stated Tuesday that while driving on South Sixth street near Summerville lane, another car, attempting to pass him, was driven back by an oncoming car from the opposite direction and in so doing, nicked his left fender. The other car did not stop.

Cars Collide—George W. Vaughan, 46, of route 3, reported Tuesday that his car collided with that driven by J. H. Bernath, 329 Jefferson street. The accident took place on Altamont drive in front of the state highway shops. Both cars were damaged.

To Algoma—O. R. Trewartha of the Algoma Lumber company, has returned to his home from Klamath Valley hospital where he has received medical treatment.

Condition Same—The condition of Willis "Bill" Holmes, employee of the Oregon State highway shops in Altamont, was said to be unchanged at Hillside hospital late Wednesday. Holmes suffered head injuries late Saturday afternoon while working on a steep line at the shops. He has not regained consciousness yet. His parents of Santa Rosa, Calif., have arrived here to be with their son.

Rehearsal Meeting—The regular meeting of Prosperity Rehearsal will be held Thursday evening, 8 o'clock, at the IOOF hall and those who have not brought their canned fruit donations for the IOOF home in Portland are requested to bring it to this meeting in order that it may be sent north right away.

Called East—M. L. Gaetz, Great Northern district superintendent, and Mrs. Gaetz have left for Wilmar, Minn., where they were called by the death of Gaetz' mother. Before returning to her home here, Mrs. Gaetz plans to visit at their former home in Minot, N. D. with relatives and friends.

On Business—Al Beals, sales manager for the Klamath Lumber company, is expected home Thursday from Portland where he has been spending several days on business.

Drill Team—The Moose drill team is sponsoring a public pin-ochle party Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Mills community hall on Garden avenue. Members of the team are requested to sponsor one table and bring cards and tables. This will be the first of a series of five parties.

Reports Accident—S. E. Rife, 41, of Modoc Point, reported to police that a rock slide two miles south of Modoc Point caused his car to swerve into the side of the hill early Sunday morning. The front of his car was slightly damaged.

Card Party—An evening card party will be sponsored by Weyerhaeuser camp No. 4, PTA, in the community hall on Friday, January 19, at 7 o'clock. Members in charge of arrangements, prizes and refreshments, are Mrs. Clint Moore, Mrs. H. H. Ogil, Mrs. Bill Stacy and Mrs. Frank Steele.

Leaves for Home—Frank Oscarson, route 2 box 110, returned home Tuesday morning from Klamath Valley hospital where he had received treatment for back injuries received at the Ewauna Box company a short time ago.

Leave Hospital—Mrs. V. L. Alexander and infant daughter left Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday afternoon for their home at 2335 Garden avenue.

Dismissed—Carl Olson, 1016 Main street, was able to return to his home Tuesday morning from Klamath Valley hospital where he has received treatment for influenza.

Returns Home—Martha Bendin, daughter of Martin L. Bendin of 227 Commercial street, was able to return to her home Tuesday afternoon after submitting to an operation for the removal of her appendix at Klamath Valley hospital.

Sewing Circle—The sewing circle of the First Covenant church will meet Friday at 1:30 at the church. Hostess will be Mrs. Alvin Bloder. Interested parties are asked to note the change in date. All ladies are welcome.

Bring Bowls—Members of the Eagles auxiliary are asked to bring small bowls and teaspoons to the Eagles hall Friday night.

Have you tasted Wieland's Ale? Mmmm! Real treat!

IF YOUR NOSE "CLOSES UP" TIGHT AT NIGHT

Hinders Breathing—Spoils Sleep

DOES YOUR NOSE fill up at night and spoil sleep? Here's a tip. Put a few drops of Vicks Vapo-rinol up each nostril at bedtime. Then notice how it clears air passages, promotes freer breathing and so helps to pave the way for refreshing sleep!

THIS TREATMENT is so helpful because Vapo-rinol is expressly designed to bring relief in the nose and upper throat where transient congestion hinders breathing. Try Vicks Vapo-rinol tonight!
