

Miss Barrow Lovely Bride of Thursday

First Covenant Church Scene of Formal Wedding With Bride's Brother Reading Ceremony

Before an altar banked with yellow acacia, white calla lilies and palms Miss Agnes Barrow became the bride of Mr. Melvin O. Solberg in a candlelight ceremony read at the First Covenant church at half past eight o'clock Thursday evening. Miss Marion Anderson played Lohengrin's processional and Mendelssohn's recessional on the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. M. C. Barrow of Redding. She chose traditional white satin for her wedding gown which was fashioned with long sleeves, puffed at the shoulder, a full bodice gathered at the waist by a close fitting girde, and full floor length skirt with a brief train. Her white tulle finger tip length veil was caught at the head by a halo of white carnations. Her flowers were fashioned into a bouquet of white sweet peas, Roman hyacinths, pink rosebuds and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons on which were caught Finch rosebuds.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Dick Reeder sang "O Promise Me" and "At Dawning." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

The bride's maid of honor was her niece, Miss Eleanor Barrow of Redding. She was lovely in a gown of lavender net with a yellow sash and she carried yellow rosebuds, lavender sweet peas and Roman hyacinths.

Mr. Arthur C. Solberg, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Baker, Mrs. Earle Diskin, Mrs. Reed Dros, Mrs. Ray Mustoe and Miss Eileen Nicholson. All wore similar frocks of net with puffed sleeves, full floor-length skirts and snug bodices. Their bouquets were of spring flowers, daffodils, white cyclamens, sweet peas and Roman hyacinths. Mrs. Baker wore pink net, Mrs. Diskin was in blue, Mrs. Dros wore green, Mrs. Mustoe, apricot, and Miss Nicholson wore a frock of orchid net.

The service was read by the bride's brother, Rev. Eugene B. Barrow of Bend.

Ushers were Mr. H. R. Barrow, Mr. Earle Diskin, Mr. Harry Goertzen, Mr. Elmer Hamilton and Mr. Hilbert Herzog.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Pouring at the coffee table and assisting about the room were Mrs. Louise Benson, Mrs. H. R. Barrow, Mrs. E. B. Barrow and Mrs. M. C. Barrow. The bride's cake centered a lace cloth on which were placed ivory tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Solberg left Friday for southern California and upon their return here will make their home at 914 Lincoln street.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barrow. She has made her home in Klamath Falls with her sister, Mrs. M. G. Lee.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Solberg of Klamath Falls and is affiliated with Kesterson Lumber company.

For traveling the bride wore an Oxford grey suit with black accessories.

April Tea Planned

Mrs. Scharfenstein To Speak At Guild Benefit Party

Plans are being made for a delightful April affair to be given the seventeenth of the month by St. Paul's Episcopal church guild.

At that time a Hawaiian tea will be given. Hours will be from two o'clock to five o'clock. A feature of the afternoon will be a showing of the interesting collection from the islands owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scharfenstein.

The Scharfensteins made their home in the islands for several years and Mrs. Scharfenstein made an intensive study of the island peoples, their customs, habits and their art. She will review the book, "Under Hawaiian Skies," by Albert P. Taylor and include in her talk the legends and customs of the natives.

Mrs. Scharfenstein was presented once each year in a musical review by the Women's Century club of Seattle, and women of this city are anticipating her talk at the tea to be given in April.

HOUSEWARMING GIVEN SUNDAY FOR GARDNERS

A group of friends complimented Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner with a housewarming in their new home near St. Francis park on Sunday evening.

Supper was served and games and cards played during the evening. The Gardners were presented with a fireplace curtain screen by their guests.

Honoring the Gardners in their new home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bolvin, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ekstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schleferstein, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wold, Mrs. Winifred Gillen, Mrs. Berford Hyatt, Miss Ruth Childgren, Miss Veril Southard, Mr. Walter Jendrejewski, and Mr. R. T. McDonald of Portland.

A guest of the club at the Thursday meeting was Mrs. Ruth Kaylor, daughter of Mrs. Beulah Ray.

PAST MATRONS CLUB TO HOLD JANUARY MEET

A one o'clock luncheon, followed by a short business meeting and bridge, will be enjoyed by the Past Matrons club, O.R.S., at the January meeting to be held Friday afternoon, the twenty-sixth, at the Masonic temple.

DANCING CLUB PLANS CARNIVAL

The first party of the year planned by the Winter Dancing club was slated for Saturday evening in the Willard hotel when a carnival dance was to be given by the members.

Hosts for the affair were to be Mr. and Mrs. David Bullis, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Jobe, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pagenhart of Mason City, Iowa, who arrived here Wednesday evening and will leave Wednesday morning of next week for southern California, New Orleans and Florida. Mrs. Pagenhart is Mrs. Weaver's aunt.

MISS EVERITT GIVEN HONOR AT UNIVERSITY

Word has come from the University of Washington in Seattle of the honor given Miss Dawn Everitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitlock.

Dawn, freshman at the university, was chosen from her sorority, Chi Omega, as one of the twenty girls for the rally committee.

Final selection of five girls was made Wednesday and she was among those remaining on the committee.

Dawn also was given a second honor this week when she was picked from a group of eighteen candidates to appear in a modern dance drama at the university on February the eighteenth.

No Fair Peekin'

Kommitten for hjälpanet av Finland, onskar framfora till alla Skandinaver "Ett hjertligt tack" for det goda understod givet kommitten vid biograf forestallningen Tisdag kvall. Och hoppas vi att ingen glommer bort dansen den 10 Februari uti armory. And Dr. Scott in his Finn nightshirt chasing a bunch of fur-lined Russians brought more laughs than the theatre could hold!

Most embarrassing moment of the week, when the three-year-old corrected an old friend who said, "Oh, just run up to Monkey Ward!" "You must not say 'Monkey Ward,' you must say 'Gunnery-Ward!'" said the smug wee one.

One of my friends was gaily scraping carrots in the kitchen and singing the words of, "Oh Johnny, Oh!" Her young high school son walked into the room with eyes wide. "Why, Sweetie, I didn't know you knew the words of that new song!" Said Sweetie with a grim look. "Son, I knew that song before you were out of the cradle!"

That's no worse than giving away your age by humming, "Red Wing, My Pretty Red Wing." But there weren't a big handful of us that knew the words of that song when the Gay Nineties orchestra played it at the Finn benefit.

Seated around the newsroom desk late one night we fell to talking about what "easterners thought of westerners." Said one of the boys: "When I was working at the World's Fair in Chicago in the Hall of Science I answered more dumb questions. One woman asked me when they were going to feed the 'lagoons'."

One day, my mother was riding on the "L" in Chicago and in woman-fashion started to talk with the lady next. On learning she was from Oregon, (accent on the "gon")—the woman perked right up. Said she—"You must know my brother, he's been west for years!" She should roll a peanut over this country of ours and she'd find out it's plenty big!

Never will forget the teacher in Gary, Indiana, who doubted we were true Westerners. She asked us to "get up before the class and tell the boys and girls about the Indians." Closest we ever came to Indians was driving by the school at Chemawa.

Men are like that! Overheard on Main street one day this week—one cab driver to another: "Look at these white pants, and I just put them on this morning." (Emily Post says no lady ever uses the two words, 'gents or pants'.)

Every time we walk through the dime store we have that certain feeling that things would have been different if we could have had that Bazaar of Baubles when the Indians sold out to Pete Stuyvesant for 24 iron men and a handful of beads.

The boss has suggested we sign our name to this section and column. If there is going to be anything wrong our phone will ring from now on. Yours with bated breath,—Lois Bynon Stewart.

Benefit Tea Plans Made

Lioness Club to Sponsor Bridge Party at Willard Hotel

Reservations are coming in nicely for the annual benefit bridge party to be given by the Lioness club of Klamath Falls on the afternoon of Saturday, February the third, in the Willard hotel ballroom.

Mrs. Ted Shoop, chairman of the party, has invited women of the city to attend the benefit and those not interested in cards are asked to drop in for a cup of tea between four o'clock and five o'clock.

Money derived from the party will be used by the Lioness club for eight conservation of young children in Klamath county. Many glasses, a great many treatments for eye deficiencies, and many, many more acts of kindness by the club members in the care of young eyes has been paid from the proceeds of the annual card party which women of the entire county are asked to attend.

St. Valentine's day colors of red and white will be used in both the treatment of the tea table and decorations in the large room.

Women who have not been contacted are asked to call either Mrs. Shoop or Mrs. Vernon Moore for reservations.

MRS. BUSCH TO SPEAK AT LEAGUE MEET

"What Education in a Democracy Means to Achieve," will be the subject ably presented by Mrs. James Busch, at the League of Women Voters meeting Monday, January the twenty-second at two o'clock in the library club rooms.

Mrs. Busch, in presenting her subject, will divide her material into four parts. First she will give the background of our national schools; second, the needs for improvement; third she will present the "Proposed Aims," and last, the "Means of Attaining These Aims."

"With the world full of turmoil, it is most important that we educate for democracy. The best place to do this is in the schools," Mrs. Busch said.

Following Mrs. Busch, there will be a brief review of the subject, "Federal Aid to Education," and members will vote to establish the league's stand on this question.

Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

MRS. GUERNSEY HOSTESS TO MARINERS

Mrs. O. G. Guernsey entertained a group of Mariners on Monday evening. Games were played and prizes awarded to each participant. Dr. Guernsey entertained the guests with the showing of moving pictures.
