their efforts to bring about the rate reduction.

Bank Prospect
The speaker, remarking on the closing of the Malin branch of the First National bank and transfer of business to the Merrill branch, said there are prospects for opening another bank in Malin in the coming year.

Persons introduced for short talks by President Thompson included Earl C. Reynolds, secretary of the Klamath county chamber of commerce; Harry Wayne, general agent of the Great Northern; Luther Taber, president of the Merrill Service club; Joe Pryor, vice president of the Tulake chamber of commerce; Henry Semon, state representative; A. Kalina, mayor of Malin; Malcolm Epley, managing editor of The Klamath News and Evening Herald; Andy Street, principal of Malin schools; John Ebinger, Klamath Falls attorney for the Malin chamber; Orth Sisemore, district attorney; Irving Capek, secretary of the Malin chamber; Lloyd Low, sheriff of Klamath county, and Clifford Jenkins, county Four-H leader.

The Gay Nineties orchestra received a tremendous ovation, and presented a new feature—a gal singer who moaned the old-time tune, "You Made Me What I Am Today." Investigation revealed the singer to be Eleanor Cook, wife of Police Judge Carl Cook of Klamath Falls and a member of the orchestra. A new member of the unique aggregation is Charles Stanfield, KUHS music director. The director is Dr. S. F. Scott and other members are Dewey Powell, Fred Houston, Dr. Bill Peak and Kyle Morgan.

effort—plain lucky and nothing else. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

The guy who gets there in a big way does it by staying on his toes all the time, never relaxing when he shouldn't, picking 'em up and laying 'em down according to carefully worked out schemes whose working out brings brain fag in the long hours. And as often as not it isn't the dollar he makes as much as the fun of the thing that keeps him driving on.

DOWN a sage brush draw at one side of the tracks through this wide desert, two men are walking. They carry guns. Their manner is furtive. One has the feeling that their eyes are shifty, searching each clump of sage, appraising it for what may lurk in its shadow.

When this writer, fresh out of college, first crossed these desert wastes, headed West, he would have identified them unhesitatingly as bandits, their hands red with violent crime, their shifty eyes alert for posess; prepared to sell their lives dearly.

The clearer vision that comes with years and experience indicates that they're probably hunting jackrabbits, and a glance at the rattletap jalloppy parked in the middle distance suggests that a can of jackrabbit stew would be an important and welcome incident in their lives.

ISN'T it terrible to discover that you're getting to the point where you're losing your illusions?

SOVIET ARMY BATTERS BOTH ENDS OF LINE

lasted far into the night, Finland reported today.

The red army smashed at the western end of the isthmus defense line and at Taipale, the eastern sector where the two divisions launched their attack.

The twin offensives meant the Russians were trying to break through across nearly the entire width of the isthmus and that the battle still was most critical for Finland.

Finnish hopes were raised by the onset of a swirling blizzard which was expected to balk the Russian drive and further strengthen the defense.

Eight hundred Russian planes were authoritatively estimated to have participated in yesterday's raids, which continued into the early morning.

A Finnish announcement said although many bombs were dropped yesterday, damage was relatively slight. It said that probably 1000 bombs fell in the town of Riihimaki and the surrounding area alone.

Apparently attempting a knockout blow from the skies, the soviet aerial armada ranged southern and central Finland through the night and into the early morning hours, sending bombs crashing onto cities, railways and roads.

Girl Tells of Cousin's Cruelty

SOMERSET, Pa., Feb. 21 (AP)—Struggling to hold back tears, Ada Paugh, 22, told authorities today how she was locked out of her cousin's home while barefoot, causing her ears, feet and right hand to freeze in the intense cold.

Probation Officer A. D. Shaffer reported that when the young woman was kept out of the house at neighboring Queecreek, she wore only a flimsy black dress wet from just being washed. She stood in the foot-deep snow and shivered in an outbuilding until he and a constable, informed of her plight, arrived and took her to a hospital.

Shaffer said that Miss Paugh, whose left hand has been paralyzed since childhood, had soiled the dress and was sent to the outbuilding to wash it. Her back was bruised from a beating, he added.

New Church Organ Picks Up Radio

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 21 (AP)—Through some freak of wiring, the new $2200 electric organ at the Freeport Methodist church picks up amateur short-wave broadcasts and sends them through the amplifier, like a radio.

When the "voice" came on during the quiet of a service, organist Emma Chapman saved embarrassment by switching the organ off "real quickly, so that nobody heard it." "But the next time it comes on," Miss Chapman said today, "we're not going to turn it off. The congregation is curious about the voice and we'll let them hear it."

PLANES FLY OVER GERMAN SEA BASE

al enemy planes from the west and northwest" over Helgoland Bight was reported today by the high command communique, which, however, did not give results of the flight.

The communique also reported that one German submarine, "returning from a distant voyage, reported the sinking of 27,795 gross register tons" of shipping.

Repeating claims made last night by the official news agency, DNB, the communique reported the sinking of two minelayers and destruction of an "armed commercial vessel" in yesterday's wide-ranging raids by German warplanes along the coasts of England and Scotland.

LONDON, Feb. 21 (AP)—Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, declared today the British navy was maintaining a high rate in the destruction of German submarines. "Successes of recent weeks," he told the house of commons, show that the weekly sinkings are continuing at such a rate that his assertion of Dec. 6 that the British navy was sinking two to four u-boats a week "was in no way exaggerated."

500 planes at regular intervals roar over the peaceful villages of Finland, dropping crates of bombs to terrify, maim and kill defenseless women and children. ed her in a shack on the Indian reservation there yesterday afternoon. The child's body, with a crushed skull, was found in a rest room of a park in nearby Montebello Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Hardaker was returned here last night to face questioning by psychiatrists and for determination of formal charges.

Police said they would ask her about a strange religious sect which her husband, Charles Hardaker, 29, informed them she had joined. Officers quoted him as saying:

"She told me that the cult members believed in human sacrifice. She thinks God tells them to kill people."

Dr. Russell M. Gray, Palm Springs physician who treated and questioned her, reported she said she had been "hearing voices" for a year or so. He quoted her:

"I think it's God that has been talking to me. But I can't hear just what the voices say. God did not tell me to kill my child."

Bispham, chief of Palm Springs police, released a statement he said she made shortly after she was found in a shack on an Indian reservation. She had hitchhiked nearly 100 miles.

First in the Hearts of its Countrymen

YOU don't have to look farther than the nearest parking lot to see how the public has taken to this 1940 Buick.

Although it is not the largest seller, polls of public opinion mark it clearly as the car "first in the hearts of its countrymen."

On general appearance, for instance, Buick gets better than a 19% vote as best looking, to 11% for the Number Two car.

Its thrifty Dynaflex power plant, now balanced after assembly, gives it twice as many Best-of-the-Bunch votes as any other, as does its chassis construction.

With soft and easy coil springs all around it's only natural that some two and a half times as many people pick Buick as best for ride. And a two to one vote on room is understandable in view of the SUPER'S close-to-five-foot front seat. But the really satisfying thing to us is the way people size up Buick's value.

Half again as many people pick

The model illustrated is the Buick Super model 51 four-door touring sedan $1109 delivered at Flint, Mich. White sidewall tires additional.

Buick as best buy as pick any other. And three out of five who rate Buick No. 1 say it's the value that gives it the edge.

So it's not surprising when polls show more people wanting Buick than want any other car—and when Buick's midwinter sales hit new peaks.

And shouldn't that, in turn, logically suggest: better get yours now—and be sure of having it?

"Best buy's Buick!"
