

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES SET BY MINISTERS

Wednesday in the First Methodist church the passion week services were in charge of the Rev. Gottfred Anderson, vice president of the Klamath Falls Ministerial association. The Rev. Eugene V. Haynes delivered the message on "Christ in the Upper Room," emphasizing the ideal Christian life as going beyond the requirements of the law. Thursday the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates, pastor of the First Christian church was to speak on "Christ in Gethsemane."

Good Friday service will open at the usual time of 12:25 in the afternoon and in the same place, the First Methodist church. There will be seven 20-minute periods with two-minute intervals. The different brief addresses center in "The Seven Last Words."

The schedule follows:
12:25 to 12:45 p. m., the Rev. Lawrence Mitchellmore, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Merrill. "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." Luke 23:34.

12:47 to 1:07 p. m., Rev. Roy Southard, pastor of Klamath Temple. "Verily I say unto thee, today thou shalt be with Me in Paradise." Luke 23:43.

1:09 to 1:29 p. m., Rev. Harry L. Russell, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene. "Woman, behold thy son." "Son, behold thy mother." John 19:26, 27.

1:31 to 1:51 p. m., Rev. Theodore Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" Matthew 27:46.

1:53 to 2:13 p. m., Rev. J. Clarence Orr, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church. "I Thirst." John 19:28.

2:15 to 2:35 p. m., Rev. Gottfred J. Anderson, pastor of the First Covenant church. "It is Finished." John 19:30.

2:37 to 3 p. m., Rev. W. C. Faucette, pastor of the Altamont Presbyterian church. "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit." Luke 23:46.

PRE-EASTER RITES AT COMMUNITY CHURCH SLATED

The annual pre-Easter candle-light communion service of the Community Congregational church was to be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock, according to announcement made by Rev. Eugene V. Haynes, pastor. The public was issued an invitation to attend the service of beauty and helpfulness. Administration of communion was to be by Rev. Haynes, assisted by the deacons, A. F. Joens, Fritz Vance and Theodore N. Case. The service of baptism was also to be observed.

Special music was to include "Ave Verum," by Mozart; the choir; "Near to the Heart of God," by McAfee; duet by Dorben Butts and Louise Mitchell; and "Ave Maria," by Mascagni; solo, Elsie Eschebeck.

As of Jan. 1, 1940, there were 2451 airports, landing fields and seaplane bases in the United States.

Klamath Falls, Mr. Carney will go to The Dalles and have a class there for Hood River county, Wasco county and Sherman county. On March 28, he will be assisted in his class work by Ellis H. Edgington, assistant supervisor of district 5. "On March 28 we will have a class here in Bend for Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson counties and the enumerators for Fort Rock, Lake county."

CONDITION OF INJURED CYCLIST STILL CRITICAL

The condition of Paul Jones, injured in a crash between his motorcycle and a car driven by Albert Langer early Sunday afternoon, remains critical according to Hillside hospital attendants.

Lawrence Stevens, riding with Jones on the motorcycle, is reported as slightly improved.

Many employers have neglected to get the co-operation of trade unions in reducing costs by increasing efficiency. The prospect of getting more help through such co-operation is good.—Sumner H. Slichter, Harvard university economist.

CENSUS HEADS SLATE CLASS FOR COUNTERS

A class of instructions on population and agriculture census work will be held Saturday, March 23, at the Fremont school at Eighth and High streets. This class will be for prospective enumerators who have already been notified of the date.

Class instruction will be held from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. or until the work is finished.

Byron G. Carney, area manager, will do the instructing, assisted by District Supervisor

Katherine G. Nelson and the three business enumerators, John H. Copeland of Chiloquin and John A. Penny and Mrs. E. Babbette Heath of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Nelson stated: "About 75 persons have been requested to attend this meeting. I shall be in Klamath Falls all day Friday and Saturday. Sunday afternoon I plan to go to Lakeview and hold school there on March 25 all day."

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
