MERRILL—Old fashioned square dances and new fangled jitterbug steps, goody filled basket lunches and all the trimmings that go with a basket social and barn dance are on the calendar for the evening of April 6 when the Merrill Library club group working with Mrs. Hazel Lilly will sponsor a real old time fun-fest in the community hall.

Gaily decorated baskets to be brought by the ladies will be auctioned off by "Tiny" Taylor. The hall will look like a barn before the decorators, under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick are through with it.

Guests may come in overalls and aprons, in fancy costumes or just dress up duds and the public is cordially invited to attend.

A general admission of 50 cents will be made but those bringing baskets get in free. The dance is expected to be one of the highlights of the spring social season and is being given to raise funds for financing remodeling of the new clubhouse.

There will be no restrictions on age, mom and pop and all the young folks will be welcome and the committee promises there will be plenty of entertainment.
