

LENN, BAKER, POLK LEAD SAFETY DRIVE

SALEM, March 27 (UP)—Lenn, Baker and Polk counties were leading their divisions in the 1940 county traffic safety contest at the end of February. Secretary of State Earl Snell announced here.

Polk led the first division, Washington and Clackamas were tied for second honors, and Marion county placed third. Lenn led the second division, with Lincoln second and Tillamook third.

Third division standings: Baker first, Union and Josephine tied for third.

Counties are grouped according to population and standings are based on the improvement in the number of accidents, injuries and deaths over the corresponding period a year ago.

Four-H News

ALTAMONT

The Sew-and-Sew club of Altamont junior high met Monday, March 18, for its weekly meeting with the president in charge. Six members were present. The discussion during the meeting was on exhibiting at the Spring fair to be held in April. Refreshments were served and the following mothers of club members were present as guests: Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Cox and also the club leader, Mrs. Charles Thurman.

News Reporter.

MILLS

The regular meeting of the Mills 4-H Livewires was held March 18. Spring fair premium lists were distributed by Mrs. Shepherd, leader of the club. A demonstration will be given by Mercedes Collins and Juanita Shinn on Good Grooming at the next club meeting. Mrs. Shepherd invited club members to her house to finish their dresses on the sewing machine so that they will all be done in time for the Spring fair in April.

News Reporter.

PELICAN CITY

The Pelican City Busy Bees met in the library of the school on March 15. The meeting was called to order by the president, minutes of previous meeting read and approved, and old and new business taken up. Plans were made to go roller skating the following night. The meeting was then turned over to the leader, Mrs. Hansen. She read directions for washing and ironing the towels that members of the club have been making as a part of the sewing project while club members worked on their sewing.

CRYSTAL

The Crystal Camp Cooks met at 10:45 a. m. on March 15 at which time a demonstration of making chocolate pudding was presented by Celia and Billy Brown, and cornbread by Danny Brown and Howard Collins. It was also decided at that time to postpone the hike scheduled for March 20 until better weather.

At noon Grant Brown was presented with a birthday cake in honor of his birthday on March 14. The cake was baked by Mary Jane Brown, and everyone enjoyed the treat.

On March 20 a camp meal was prepared, each club member preparing one dish. The menu was fried potatoes, pork roast, brown gravy, biscuits, carrot and apple salad, and cocoa. The roast was cooked in a pall hung over the camp fire on a cooking crane.

All the club members feel that they have learned a lot since the beginning of the club last September.

CHILCOQUIN

Helen McGaughey, news reporter for the Chilcoquin "Flying Needles" 4-H Sewing club, reports that the club elected a new secretary, Mary Melchori, to take the place of the former secretary, Myrtle Giles, who has moved away. This club, led by Mrs. Jesse Rowe, plans to have all its work completed in plenty of time for the Spring fair the last part of April.

MODOC POINT

The Breakfast Boys of Modoc Point met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Carson, on March 18. Record books were brought up to date. A demonstration on making peanut butter and tuna fish sandwiches was presented by Pat Myers. Mrs. Carson fixed some punch for refreshments and games were played until the meeting adjourned.

FAIRHAVEN

The Fairhaven Beaver Builders held regular meetings March 8 and March 15. At both meetings plans were made by various members for entering the poster contest, the camera contest, and other special contests at the Spring fair to be held in April. Plans were also made for raising money for the club, and for entering exhibits in the Spring fair.

YAMSA

Members of "Noah's Ark" Woodworking club met on March 14 at the home of their leader, Mrs. Ben Noah. Mr. Reed, assistant instructor, helped club members with the work on their tea tables which are nearly finished. The tea tables will be the fifth article that club members have completed this term of school.
