

Worthy Grand Matron Pays Official Visit

Mrs. Dora E. Stipe of Beaverton Guest of Aloha Chapter on Tuesday Evening Here

Mrs. Dora E. Stipe of Beaverton, worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star for Oregon, paid an official visit to Aloha chapter, No. 61, OES, of Klamath Falls, on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Inez Glaisyer of Redmond, past worthy grand matron of Oregon; Mrs. Hazel Foster of Prineville, grand chaplain of the Oregon society, and member of the international temple committee; and Mrs. Gladys McKinley Miller of Portland, editor of The Eastern Star of the West magazine, accompanied Mrs. Stipe to this meeting.

Mrs. Earl J. Templar, worthy matron, and Mr. Lloyd Robinson, worthy patron, presided during the regular session of the chapter.

The half past six o'clock buffet dinner served in the main dining room, opened the program for the evening. Tables were arranged to form a triangle, lighted candles outlining a five-pointed star at the apex of the triangle, and bouquets of daffodils, carried out a brilliant and effective scheme of decoration for the dining room.

Easter lilies, palms, and daffodils were used in the chapter room decorations. Mrs. Stipe and other distinguished guests were accorded honors and seated in the East. Mrs. Cleave Snider, worthy matron of Oriental chapter No. 5, of Lakeview, was also introduced and escorted to a seat of honor in the East.

Mrs. Kate Schmitz, a member of Queen Bess chapter OES, of Eureka, Kansas, for the past fifty years, was present. Mrs. Schmitz now makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Redman of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Stipe, at the request of the grand chapter of Kansas, presented to Mrs. Schmitz a fifty-year membership jewel, the gift of her Kansas chapter.

Mrs. Schmitz, a sprightly little woman, in accepting the gift said she had come to Klamath Falls ten years ago to die, but so far wasn't making much headway toward that end.

A brief history and floral degree honoring Adah, the first point of the Eastern Star, was carried out under the direction of Mrs. Wilbur Jones and Mrs. H. E. Getz. Mrs. Glenn Kent, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Cofer, gave a lovely rendition of an old arrangement of "A Londonderry Air."

Mrs. Oliver Spiker, associate matron, in behalf of the chapter, presented a gift of silver to Mrs. Stipe. A basket of violets was presented to Mrs. Schmitz. All guests of honor wore coronas of rosebuds and violets, the gift of the chapter.

Mrs. Stipe, in addressing the assembly, paid a high compliment to the officers for the manner in which the ritualistic work had been exemplified during the evening. Much of her talk dealt with recent changes in the details of initiation work, and other regular ceremonies of the order. The more than one-hundred and fifty members present were favorably impressed with the pleasing personality of the worthy grand matron, and her devotion to the principles of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. C. O. Dryden was chairman of the dinner committee. She was assisted by Mrs. F. E. Drake, Mrs. L. N. Haines, Mrs. Esther Dunnivan, Mrs. T. D. Case, Mrs. R. P. Eugene Gleemen to Sing in Concert

Rotary Club To Sponsor Appearance of Well Known Musical Group on April Seventeenth

"The butcher, the baker, the candle stick maker," singers of talent all, the seventy Eugene Gleemen who take the concert stage here on Wednesday, April the seventeenth, will bring to Klamath Falls an ear-pleasing demonstration of near-perfection in community choral accomplishment. With members drawn from nearly every walk of life, and not professional musicians, the Gleemen hold their coveted places in the chorus by constant tryouts at the beginning of concert seasons. Holding no music, the Gleemen must memorize every detail of their concert numbers, and are enabled to give undivided attention to the director's baton.

John Stark Evans, director, has won nation-wide acclaim for his ability to weld a heterogeneous group of song-loving business and professional men into a musical unit whose work compares favorably with that of the professional choruses of radio and screen.
