

KLAMATH CHAPTER TO GIVE DEGREES

TULELAKE—With receipt of letters temporary from DeMolay headquarters at San Francisco, degrees will be conferred on members of the Tulelake chapter, Order of DeMolay, May 3 by the Klamath Falls chapter, it was announced this week by Charles Coates, chapter advisor who was instrumental in the organization. The local chapter will be included in the Oregon jurisdiction. On May 10, the Klamath Falls chapter will be present to institute and to install officers, at an open meeting. Masons, parents of the young men and friends will be invited. Tentative plans include a dance following the installation.

Darrell Vernon has been elected master counselor; Carl Coulson, scribe; Bob Nelson, treasurer; senior counselor, Dan Crawford; junior counselor, Keith Gentry; senior deacon, Carter Wilkins; junior deacon, Maurice Ott; senior steward, James Lash; junior steward, Bill McClemonds; chaplain, Bill Nelson; almoner, Thurloft Ott; marshal, Bob McClemonds; standard bearer, Harry Galloway; orator, Conrad Shultz; sentinel, Dean Callas; organist, Ray Porterfield. The seven preceptors include George Cross, Stewart Miller, Herman Turnbaugh, Kenneth Stark, Dick Fensler, Dick Golden and J. Ernst.

Coates, who became a member of the North Hollywood Masonic lodge in 1922 has served under all masters of Tulelake Canby Cross lodge, becoming actively associated with the work here in 1926. He has served also as an officer in the Tulelake chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

BUTTE VALLEY HIGH ENTERTAINS GUESTS

DORRIS—Butte Valley high school last Monday entertained distinguished guests. They were Dr. Charles W. Burch and Stark of the state department of education, division of schoolhouse planning; J. E. Hurley, district superintendent, and William Hagelstein of the school board. The men inspected the school plant and equipment.

Plans are rapidly taking shape for the public schools program which is to be held at the Butte Valley high school at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, April 24. The highlight of the program will be the exhibits, and the public is cordially welcomed.

SAYRE RESIGNS IN GRANGE SUPPLY POST

MERRILL—Floyd Sayre, for the past year and a half manager of the Klamath Grange Supply company, is resigning to become associated with the Tulelake branch of the Turner Chevrolet company as salesman. His resignation becomes effective May 1. Previous to his resignation here Sayre was affiliated with the grange supply headquarters at Portland. His successor has as yet not been announced. With Mrs. Sayre and small son he will make his home in Tulelake.

Bly

Mrs. Charley Hitchcock, commonly known as "Ma" of the White lunch is in the hospital in Klamath Falls with appendicitis. She was taken sick Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshal Aust visited relatives in Medford recently.

The concrete has been poured, the foundation is up and a new Associated service station is under way. The new station, which is located at the east end of town on the road to Lakeview, will require a dirt fill of approximately four feet. Jefferson Causole, local Associated distributor, is the owner.

Miss Mary Nakashima, sister of Dr. Victor Nakashima of the Bly CCC camp, returned to her home in Portland after several days' visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elder have returned from a week's visit in Grants Pass where they were called by the death of Mr. Elder's daughter-in-law.

Several of the Bly houses have been seen to light up in the small hours of the morning as the inhabitants, or at least part of them, prepared to go fishing. Draws creek and North Fork seem to be the favorites but owing to high water the success has not been too great, however, one well known sport lover landed a 30-inch trout that weighed 84 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Conn are parents of a fine baby girl born Thursday night in Klamath Falls. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernard Esgate Thursday evening.
