Special Meeting—The president of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Neva LaForge, has called a special meeting for May 3, at 8 p. m. in the Legion hall at which time state officers of the auxiliary will be present, including Mrs. Lydia Horsfall, Mrs. Laura Goode, Mrs. Mae Whitcomb and Mrs. Ruby Bergsvik. Mrs. Horsfall of Marshfield, state president, will speak on national defense and Mrs. Bergsvik will discuss the girls state project. Anyone interested, regardless of whether a member of the auxiliary or not, is invited to attend. Chairmen and officers of the auxiliary are urged to attend. There will be a no-hostess dinner at the Willard hotel previous to the meeting and anyone wishing to attend my call, 419-J-5.

Summer Roundup—The Mills PTA summer roundup chairman, Mrs. Lois Swisher, wishes to announce that visiting day will be held at the Mills school Friday, May 3, at 1 p. m. for all mothers and children who are entering school next fall. Mrs. Swisher suggested the children get acquainted with the first grade teachers. After room visiting, a motion picture will be shown by the school nurse, Amy Erickson, in the auditorium.

VFW Auxiliary—Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary will sponsor a pinochle party in the KC hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The public is invited. Hostesses will be Mrs. Anne McGilvery, Mrs. McLaughlin and Dora Lohery. The regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held in the public library club rooms Thursday night at 8 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.

Rebekah Meeting—An initiation will be held at a meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge, Thursday evening, May 2, in the IOOF hall, and refreshments will be served. Visiting Rebekahs are especially invited.

Returns Home—Lettie Ethridge has returned to Klamath Falls from Oakland, Calif., where she has been living. Mrs. Ethridge has taken over the management of the Stansbie apartments on Pine street.

Has Flu—Mrs. Floyd Bucoy of near Algoma, is confined to her bed with an attack of influenza.

NOTICE
In order to avoid boring readers with repetition, announcements of card parties, etc., will not be duplicated in the brief columns on successive days. Single announcements are gladly published, and later briefs on the same events will be run if there are changes or new developments in the plans. But for obvious reasons, exact duplications are taboo.

Return Home—Armed with loads of lovely wildflowers, a group of Klamath Falls women returned home Tuesday evening from Kirby, near Grants Pass, where they attended the wild flower show, reporting it exceptionally interesting. In the party were Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. F. O. Small, Mrs. C. C. Kelley and Mrs. Arch Proctor. The four came upon the tragic accident in which two women were killed and Mrs. Harry O. Smith, sister of Mrs. E. B. Ashurst of this city, was injured Monday evening. Mrs. Smith had taken an active part in the flower show that day. She is now recovering from minor burns and scratches and a lacerated knee, in a Grants Pass hospital.

Holds Demonstration—Lucy Case, extension specialist in nutrition, presented the first of the meat sundries demonstrations at a meeting of the Modoc Point home extension unit Wednesday, May 1. This demonstration will be presented at the rest of the unit meetings during May by Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, home demonstration agent for Klamath county. Recipes demonstrated were baked liver, sweetbreads a la Newburg, boiled tongue and kidney stew. Mimeographs of these recipes and others were handed out and there was a good attendance at the meeting.

Committee to Meet—The Homemaking committee of the Women of the Moose will hold a regular meeting Friday afternoon, May 3, in KC hall with a 12:30 o'clock potluck luncheon. All members are urged to attend. Hostesses will be LaVera McBride and Mildred Wilkerson.

Women of Moose—The Women of the Moose are to sponsor a public card party Friday afternoon, May 3, in KC hall, at 2 o'clock. Hostesses will be Margaret Eckert, Eva Richardson, Laura Baldwin and Margaret Woyak.

Society to Meet—The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Nazarene church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Grace Little, 248 East Main street. Friends are welcome.

In Lakeview—Mrs. Harry Bokvin was in Lakeview Tuesday and Wednesday on business for the farm security administration office.

Theft Reported—City police were advised by the Snyder Motor company, Eleventh street and Klamath avenue, of the theft of an electric drill Friday or Saturday night. The drill was valued at between $40 and $50, officers were advised.

Tire Stolen—A wheel and tire, along with a wool blanket, were stolen from LeRoy Brown's car when it was parked at 234 South Riverside, police were advised Wednesday morning. Brown lives at 1915 Worden avenue.

Wiley to Speak—Wilson S. Wiley will address the Kiwanis club Thursday on the subject, "United States and Canada." Good will week is being celebrated by Kiwanians this week. O. D. Matthews will preside.

Card Party—The Altamont Elementary PTA is sponsoring a card party on Friday evening, 8 p. m., May 3. Auction, contract and pinochle will be played. The public is invited.

In Hospital—Sam Freeman is a patient at Klamath Valley hospital where he is receiving treatment. Freeman is an employee of the Algoma Lumber company and lives near Algoma.

On Vacation—George Stodick, elevator operator of the federal building, will return to his position Monday following his annual vacation which he spent in Medford.

Leaves Hospital—William Hackler, Fort Klamath rancher, was able to leave Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday for his home.

Rummage Sale—The American Legion auxiliary is sponsoring a white elephant and rummage sale at the Legion hall Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4.

Study Club—The Independent Study club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Stella Smith, 419 Pacific Terrace. Members are to meet at 1 p. m., at the home of Nona Hall, 915 East Main street, for transportation.

Motor to Valley—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hall of Roseway drive were weekend visitors in Medford, guests of Mrs. Hall's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allan F. Perry.

Give Tea—The Young Ladies social club entertained for their mothers with a May day tea at the home of Mrs. Orrin H. Fraley, 608 North Sixth street, Wednesday afternoon.
