

Officers To Be Installed

BPW To Meet Monday Night at Willard For Dinner

Installation of officers will feature the program at the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, to be held Monday evening, May the twenty-first, at the Willard hotel. Ruth Olds Bathiany, past president and state finance chairman, will be the installing officer.

Officers to be installed are: Flo Ann Eaton, president; Eleanor Weatherford, first vice president; Lillie Darby, second vice president; Gertrude Tolle, recording secretary; Claudia Lorenz, corresponding secretary; Gwendolyn Lorenz, treasurer. Berenice Griffin is the outgoing president.

Reports will be made by delegates on the state convention which was held at Grants Pass this weekend. Around fifty business women were planning to make the drive across the mountains and the Glee club entered the state contest Saturday evening.

President Berenice Griffin held the executive council meeting Monday evening at the Pelican cafe with the following members present for the final meeting of the year: Jewell Cantrill, Dorothy Bailey, Lois Rumer, Ida Nordine, Stella Bowne, Nello Olson, Alice Allen, Emma Carter, Maude Melton, Carolina Vascetti, Gwendolyn Lorenz, Esther Lawler, Flo Ann Eaton, Irma Badger, Anne Price, Ruth Bathiany, Ardye Rumer, Dora Goddard, Catherine Gaylord and Lydia Hone.

Plans for the convention were discussed and arrangements made for transportation of those desiring to attend. The regular business meeting followed dinner and yearly reports of the chairmen were read and voted upon. The dining room was lavishly decorated with bowls of purple iris intermixed with yellow and pink tulips.

MISS JONES PRESENTS TALK AT CIRCLE MEET

The Congregational Community Circle met Friday, May the tenth, in the Community Social hall on Garden avenue. A potluck luncheon was served at one o'clock with Mrs. Ruby Harvey as hostess, and after luncheon a short business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds.

During the program hour an interesting talk on India was given by Miss Marycarol Jones.

Plans were made for the circle members to hold neighborhood teas and work on aprons that will be sold this fall. The first tea will be at the home of Mrs. W. R. Nelson, 2025 Reclamation avenue, Friday afternoon, June the seventh, at half past one o'clock.

Those present were Mrs. Glen Stivers and daughter Barbara, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. Alta Randall, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. H. G. McGilvray, Mrs. W. L. Larson, Mrs. L. E. Henry, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. L. MISS HYDE HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWER

A miscellaneous bridal shower complemented Miss Edythe Hyde on Wednesday, May the eighth, when Mrs. Elmer Hanegan and Miss Margaret Jolly were co-hostesses at the Hanegan home, 920 Lincoln street.

Miss Hyde who is the bride-elect of Mr. LeRoy Leslie, their marriage to be solemnized the latter part of May, was the recipient of many lovely gifts following a pretty appointed noon luncheon.

Honoring Miss Hyde, besides the hostesses, were Mrs. C. M. Larson, Gertrude Schupp, Elaine Johnson, Della Conner, Marion Schneider, Loreen Hazelrig, Maide Bauer, Virginia Cilk, Lucille Jonas, Charlotte Donelson, June Handford, Avenell Leslie, Lorene Rouse, Harriet Ezell, Vera Hanegan and Pearl Adams.

LODGE INITIATES LARGE CLASS OF NEW MEMBERS

A class of new members, largest in the history of the local lodge, was initiated into the Degree of Honor lodge Monday evening, May the thirteenth, and initiation of a still larger class is being planned for May the twenty-seventh.

A banquet was enjoyed preceding the meeting when Mrs. Lois A. Geiser, the national and state officer, and Mrs. Minnie Card, special organizer and past state president, were special guests.

The newly organized drill team, under the leadership of Mrs. Viola Dickson, gave its first public performance. A lovely basket of flowers was presented to Mrs. Geiser and Mrs. Card. Mrs. Geiser also presented Mrs. Grubb with a special gift.

On Tuesday following the meeting a potluck dinner was held at the home of Mrs. Grace Bock when Mrs. Geiser held a class of instruction and officers of the local lodge were honored.

Degree Is Conferred

National Officer Attends Moose Session Here on Monday

The Degree of Friendship, Women of the Moose, was conferred Monday evening, May the thirteenth, at the Elks temple at half past five o'clock with State Dean Naomi Warman presiding. Mr. Lawrence Grove, grand governor of degrees, came from Washington, D. C., with authority to confer the degree. Mrs. Fannie May Thompson, state regent, assisted in the work.

Twenty-four members from the state were in Klamath Falls to receive the degree, five coming from Corvallis, four from Eugene, two from Merrill and thirteen from the Klamath Falls chapter. Following the awarding of the degree, a banquet was served at the Willard hotel to the membership of the Women of the Moose, Loyal Order of Moose and all visiting members when Mr. Grove gave the principal address.

A symposium was held at the Elks temple after the banquet.

A vote of thanks was given to the local papers for their assistance in making the affair a success and to the Elks lodge for the use of the temple.

A meeting of the Women of the Moose Sunday evening, May the twelfth, at KC hall honored State Dean Naomi Warman of Corvallis, with the session called to order at eight o'clock by Senior Regent Blanche Dixon.

After the business session, the doors were opened to members of the Loyal Order of Moose and a class of candidates was initiated into the order by the state dean. The Merrill chapter assisted with the ritual work and took part in the initiation.

Twelve visiting members were present to hear the address given by Mrs. Warman, four from Eugene, two from Corvallis and six from Merrill.

Women of the Moose sponsored a public card party Tuesday evening, May the fourteenth, in KC hall with ten tables in play.

A regular meeting of the alumnae committee will be held Wednesday afternoon, May the twenty-second, when a one o'clock luncheon will be served at the home of Mrs. Annette Hall.
