Fishin's Fun

DIAMOND LAKE, as expected, had the welcome sign out and the fish co-operated 100 per cent, except for the inconvenience of the detour on the west side, everyone had ideal fishing. The weatherman did his share to help. Most everyone caught fish and limits were common. Double flashers with a worm baited No. 4 hook was the bait used almost exclusively. Most of the fish caught ran over 12 inches. According to several fishermen, the fish on being opened showed signs of being well fed.

The people who fished at PAULINA LAKE had fairly good luck. Trolling with flashers is most popular, usually getting the largest fish. Fly fishing is good on brown colored flies. The fish caught here are rainbow, brook trout and German brown.

EAST LAKE limits are getting as scarce as hen's teeth. Bait fishing with worms is the most successful. Trolling is starting to pick up, but the fish run small. Fly fishing has yet to be good.

According to Doc Noggle, the fishing on CHEWAUCAN RIVER is very good. There has been very little reported locally on this stream, but the fishermen around Lakeview have been taking advantage of this good fishing.

Quite a few fished the NORTH FORK OF THE SPRAGUE RIVER, with little luck. The water is still too high. The only fish caught were on cluster eggs.

Fishing was poor on WOOD RIVER, but fishing on the lake at the mouth was good, both for trolling with wobblers and bait fishing with cluster eggs. The mouth of SEVEN MILE was good for those who trolled with flashers. The fish ran small.

ROCKY POINT fishing picked up over a week ago and the flasher fishermen had to give up and change to wobblers.

ODELL LAKE reported in on some fish caught on trolls, but it is a little early.

UNION CREEK was pretty good on bait and the fishing here should get good when the water goes down a little.

ELK LAKE is right up at the head of the class. Reporting limits for most every day. Fly fishing is good, also trolling. Mr. Wilcox reports the lodge can be reached without chains. Fish up to 21 inches are being caught.

There were quite a few Klamath fishermen who fished the DESCHUTES RIVER. Most of the fish are caught on flies. The section above BEND seems to be the best. Bucktail Caddis, Ginger Quill, Coachman, and especially the Water Call Polar Bear flies were very good.

LOST RIVER still holds forth as the bass fishermen's paradise. Some nice fish are being caught with a 7 1/2 pounder still top fish.

B. L. Hardenbrook and Walter Webster reported in with two limits of eastern brook out of EAST LAKE. They sure didn't lose any time and after three hours were on their way home.

Clint Myers hooked three out of the KLAMATH RIVER that averaged 3 1/2 pounds.

Clint says he could have had a limit if the water hadn't started to rise. The KLAMATH RIVER to date has been quite a disappointment to most fishermen. Even those that had some good fishing from time to time ran into just about as much very poor fishing. The RIVER will close Friday, May 31, without any question. June would have been perfect. I understand that there has been sent to the game commission a request to keep the river open during June. It would really be the ideal time to fish, and should be open during the month of June.

We started working on the subject of carelessness in the woods with LIGHTED MATCHES AND CIGARETTES last year and for those of you who read this far in the column, you are going to see it this year. But really, after listening to the forest service officials speak on forest fires and the fact that 80 per cent are man made, it pays to take a little time and be sure it's OUT WHEN YOU THROW IT AWAY. "TAKE A BOY FISHING"

Beavers Annex Northern Crown

SEATTLE, May 21 (UP)—Oregon State college annexed the northern division, Pacific coast conference baseball title Monday by edging out University of Washington 2-1.

Glen Elliott of Oregon State allowed more hits than the Huskies' Sam Baker but slammed out a triple in the eighth and scored the winning run on an outfield fly.

Short score: R. H. E. Oregon State 2 3 1 Washington 1 5 3 Elliott and Leovich; Baker and Young.

Jeffra Stakes New Claim to Feather Title

BALTIMORE, Md., May 21 (UP)—Harry Jeffra staked out a new claim to the featherweight boxing championship recognition from the New York and Maryland boxing commissions. But it did not affect the National Boxing association's recognition of Petey Scalzo as the champ.

Jeffra floored Archibald twice in the second round, with the Providence fighter taking a count of nine each time.

Two Clubs Pace Play in WIL

Spokane and Yakima continued to pace other Western international league baseball clubs Monday night by pounding out wins over second-division teams in the only two games of the evening.

The Yakima Pippins returned home to score five runs in the sixth inning and two more in the eighth to defeat Vancouver, B. C., 7-4. Three Canadian pitchers tried in vain to stop the assault.

At Spokane the Indians carved out a comparatively easy 10 to 5 triumph over Wenatchee, although each team got seven hits. Wildness on the part of the Chiefs' hurlers paved the way to Spokane's victory. Wenatchee scored all of its runs in the fifth.

PRINCE MEETS INDIAN BOY; PANTHER AND ITALIAN VIE

Fans who have watched Ernie Piluso of Portland climb to the peak of popularity in Klamath wrestling circles will see their dreams of a "natural" main event come true tonight when the smashing Portlander tangles with Bulldog Jackson in the nightcap at the armory.

In the middle tussle Prince Nihalakis will meet Frankie Clemens Indian Wonder Boy, and in the first event of the evening the Black Panther, dusky matman, will meet big Al Ferona of Italy.

The top bout brings together two wrestlers of exactly opposite technique—a combination which can't fail to produce action.

Jackson, who has defeated some of the best men in the business, is a wrestler who never hesitates to cut loose with unorthodox matwork when he can't win the other way. Against Piluso he'll probably have to dig deep into his bag of tricks to come out on top of the one hour or two-out-of-three fall affair.

Jackson Crafty The Portland Italian, whose specialties are the dropkick and the sonnenberg, is the hardest-hitting wrestler to appear here in many months. His technique is highly spectacular. Jackson's style is the opposite. He is cautious and crafty, specializing in a corkscrew hammerlock and on dirty work to gain falls. He originated and has made famous the arm stomp as a means of punishing his foes.

The middle event should provide fans with a scientific exhibition. Both Nihalakis and Clemens are clean, but when irked are capable of plenty of fireworks. This match is a natural for wrestling skill.

Ferona Dismiked Al Ferona is one of the toughest hoppers of the ring to gain a berth at the local grappling arena, and in his initial appearance last week promptly gained the dislike of the customers.

The Italian is billed for a spot against another newcomer, The Panther, who was seen only for a split minute in last week's battle royal. The Panther is said to be able to take care of himself against any odds.

The card will get underway at 8:30.

Stork to Visit 'Boiler Kid'

CHICAGO, May 21 (UP)—Frederick B. Snite Jr., 29, the "Boiler Kid" who has battled infantile paralysis in "iron lungs" for four years, revealed today his bride of last August expects a baby in September.

His wife is the former Teresa Larkin, 27, Dayton, O., whom he married last August 10 after a secret courtship of more than two years. They are at Miami Beach, Fla., and plan to return north next month to await the stork at the palatial Snite home in suburban River Forest.

He made the announcement in "Back Talk," a mimeographed newspaper which he publishes frequently to answer letters of hundreds of correspondents. He said he had received announcements that two former Notre Dame classmates were expecting to become parents soon and added:

"The two-legged bird is expected by Freddy and Tessie in September."

JUMPER ANGELS CAMP, Calif. (AP)—Slippery, an energetic frog owned by Louis Fisher of Stockton, Calif., on the 13th annual international frog jumping contest.

Slippery jumped 14 feet 11 inches but failed to threaten the record of 15 feet, 10 inches. The contest was in connection with the 77th anniversary of the visit of Mark Twain, who wrote "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras."

TITLE CHANGE GIVEN WINNER OF MITT FRAY

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—Promotor Mike Jacobs gilded Thursday night's Garcia-Overlin middleweight title fight today when he announced unexpectedly that the winner will get a shot at the light heavyweight crown this summer.

Cefeirino Garcia, Filipino "bolo" puncher, is favored at 12 to 5 to retain his claims to the middleweight crown against Ken Overlin of Washington, D. C., at Madison Square garden.

Similarly, Billy Conn, the ring's master-boxer, is favored to keep his light heavy title in a return engagement with Gus Lesnevich of New Jersey at Detroit, June 5.

If Garcia and Conn come through these tilts as expected, today's announcement would toss them into the ring for a big-gate "natural," probably in August.

Today's development was unexpected because it had been unofficially understood that the Conn-Lesnevich winner would meet Heavyweight Bob Pastor this summer, paving the way for a possible title brawl with Joe Louis. It was likewise understood that Garcia's next important match would be a non-title affair at Chicago with Tony Zale, the hard-hitter who won an over-the-weight match against Seattle's Al Hostak in January.

Art Cohn, Oakland Tribune: "Belle Martell of Los Angeles, the only licensed woman referee in the world, made her debut at Pasadena last week. Gross receipts of the show totaled $117,000. Offhand, I would say the gal lacked oomph."

A bunch of Brooklyn political barons were riding high, wide and handsome on Corydon, the 42-1 shot that trimmed Bimelech and friends, Saturday. The Cubs have been sending out feelers for Shortstop Eddie Miller, but the Boston Bees won't listen. Bill Terry's salary as manager of the Giants is several grand higher than the president and secretary-treasurer of the club draw down.

Down in the Florida East Coast league the other night the Palm Beach-Fort Lauderdale game was called on the stroke of midnight, in the 12th inning with the teams tied up at 12-12. Between 'em they made 12 errors.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21 (UP)—Norman W. Church today filed a report on his custodianship of the Pacific States Savings and Loan company showing the company's operating profit increased $468,189 and administrative expenses dropped $47,506 under his management, as compared with figures of the last year under the old management.

The Thursday Night bridge club was entertained by Kathryn Huffman in her home last week. The room was beautifully decorated with pastel colored sweetpeas.

Honored guest at the affair was Mary Ewing who was the recipient of many lovely gifts in the form of a layette shower. Prize winners for the evening were Hazel Wagner, high; Hazel Hickey, second, and Winifred Johnson, low.

Principal Thorke of the Edgewood grammar school, his wife and a teacher, Miss Kusel, attended the dinner meeting of the Siskiyou County Teachers' association in Yreka May 8.

Mrs. R. Sanderson spent last Thursday in Weed visiting. Bert Iyunker of Yreka visited at the Cavanaugh store last Thursday on his way to Mt. Shasta.

John L. Dennis of San Jose left by train for his home last Sunday, after a two-weeks' visit among friends and relatives. Dennis did a great deal of fishing while here.

The Edgewood study club met at the home of Mrs. Kice Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. This was the last meeting of the club for the summer.

Mrs. E. B. Cavanaugh and sister, Mrs. Lottie Colvin and son-in-law, John Dennis, had a dinner at the Weed hotel in

SMITH DROPS YANKEES TO CELLAR WITH 10-2 CONTEST

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—Among other things, Al Smith has been a jewelry worker, silk salesman, hod carrier and an ice-man but Monday, to the New York Yankees, it seemed as if the 32-year-old southpaw had been pitching baseball since the cradle.

Smith beat the Yankees, 10-2, dropping them into the American league cellar, behind the Cleveland Indians' 17-hit assault for his second consecutive win over the Champions and his third of the season.

The Detroit Tigers rallied for four runs in the seventh inning and walloped the Red Sox, 10-7. Pinkey Higgins hit three homers for the Tigers, driving in seven runs, while Birdy Tebbetts clouted another. Lefty Grove and Jimmy Foxx homered for the Sox.

Clint Brown stopped a Washington Senators' rally in the eighth inning just one run short of a tie and the Chicago White Sox evened their series, 5-4.

Chubby Dean won his fourth game of the year for the Philadelphia Athletics as he beat the St. Louis Browns, 8-4. Frank Hayes, with two homers and Bob Johnson and Wally Moses with one each, sparked the A's attack.

The two pace-setting teams in the National league took it on the chin, the Boston Bees knocking off the first-place Cincinnati Reds, 13-4 and the up-and-coming Chicago Cubs walloping the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-4.

Dick Erickson scattered 11 Cincinnati hits for the Bees while Al Lopez topped off the Boston hitting spurge with a three-run homer in the third.

40 Qualifying Sites Listed For Golf Play

NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—The United States Golf association announced there will be 40 qualifying sites this year, an increase of seven over 1939, for the national public links championship, largest major golf event in the world.

Sectional rounds will determine the field of 192 players for the championship to be played over the Rackham golf course at Detroit, July 22-27.

Ten new qualifying sections were added, three were abandoned and numerous ones shifted. The new ones were Pocatello, Idaho; South Bend, Ind.; Wichita, Kas.; Grand Rapids, Mich.; Kansas City, Mo.; Fargo, N. D.; Toledo, O.; Nashville, Tenn.; Salt Lake City, and Norfolk, Va.

United Press Correspondent NEW YORK, May 21 (UP)—Baseball Potpourri:

Larry MacPhail says the follows Commissioner Landis declared free agents off the Detroit Tigers agents turned out to be a pretty sorry lot of ball players. Without calling any names MacPhail said he doubted if any of them would do anybody any good. Since the Dodgers gave Roy Cullenbine $25,000 to sign with them MacPhail must have meant him too. Cullenbine, with an average of .217, can't savvy National league pitching.

Donie Bush saw Jimmy Foxx hit a 440-foot homer against the White Sox in Comiskey park last week and said, "he's the hardest hitter I've ever seen in baseball." And Bush played with Cobb, Crawford and Veach, three of the hardest hitters of this generation.

The report the National league is threatening to pass a rule preventing a club from traveling by air isn't baring Larry MacPhail. "I don't care if they do pass that rule. Brooklyn will still travel by plane if the players want to," says MacPhail.

Bill Hershberger, Cincinnati's substitute for Ernie Lombardi, is the best No. 2 catcher in baseball. There aren't many first string catchers on other clubs who could keep him on the bench.

PADRES TAKE UP DOGFIGHT AGAINST OAKS FOR 1ST SPOT

Separated by only half a game, San Diego and Oakland resume their dogfight this week for leadership of the Pacific Coast league. The Padres tackle the San Francisco Seals, now in fifth place, and Oakland meets the Seattle Rainiers.

Johnny Moore, Los Angeles' outfielder, became the league's leading hitter this week, replacing Ted Jennings of San Francisco, who slumped to third place. According to figures compiled by William McGee, league statistician, Moore has hit safely 34 times and scored ten runs in 81 trips to the plate for an average of .420.

Mike Christoff stayed in second place with 75 hits and 29 runs in 181 tries, an average of .414, while Jennings has hit 64 times and scored 38 runs in 164 attempts. Steve Mesner of San Diego was fourth with 385, and Louis Novikoff, Los Angeles, was fifth with 360.

Dick Newsome, San Diego hurler, retained his lead among the league's pitchers, with a total of seven wins and one loss since the season started. Dick Barrett of Seattle was second with 5 wins and one defeat and Ralph Buxton, Oakland, was third with eight wins and two losses. Other leaders were Byron Humphreys, San Diego; Lee Stine, Los Angeles; Larry Powell, San Francisco, and Wayne Osborne, Hollywood.
