

STUDENTS PLANNING PARTY AT REAMES

One of the gayest parties of the month is planned for Klamath Union high school students and one-year alumni, when the DeMoisy Mothers club and Hi-Y club of KUHS entertain at Reames Golf and Country club on Friday night following graduation.

The party will be formal, and many surprises are in store for the guests. Buddy Gray's orchestra will play.

Tickets are being sold by Hi-Y boys and are in the nature of programs, cleverly tinted pictures of the high school buildings and approaches. Dancing will start at 9 o'clock sharp, and those planning to attend are urged to buy their tickets in order to have their programs filled.

ARTICLES STOLEN FROM CEMETERY

The meanest man in town is showing signs of activities again, this time in the Linkville cemetery. W. K. Thomas, caretaker, reported to city police the theft of one 12 by 14-foot waterproof canvas, and one brass rose sprinkler from the cemetery. Officers will keep a close watch over the place until after Decoration day.

Mrs. Louise Clapp reported to police the theft of one 10-ton hydraulic jack from 2266 South Sixth street some time within the past three weeks.

Officials of the Deschutes Lumber company at Mowich asked officers to keep a watch for two Ford wheels and tires said stolen from their plant Tuesday.

British Troops Poised for Nazi Advance

Amid ruins of bombed and shelled buildings, a British anti-tank unit barricades to attempt to stem the Nazi advance in Louvain, but Germany's mechanized might was not to be denied, and British were forced from that position by the Nazi drive. Cablephoto from London.

KERNS HONORED

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis—John Kerns of Klamath Falls, senior in agriculture, was one of 19 new members formally initiated this week into Alpha Zeta, national professional fraternity in agriculture. Members of the organization are leaders in scholarship and activities in the school of agriculture.

Kissing, they continue to tell us, shortens life. The Indians can remember when it was biting the dust that produced such results.

That Livingston is found does not interest gas-starved European motorists, who are wondering where Stanley might be, and his gasless steamer.

FELL OVER CHAIR

PORTLAND, May 22 (AP)—William Wicks, 16, of Portland, hurt in a fall over a chair at a theatre May 17, died of his injuries yesterday.

If civilization were predominately feminine, as it is now masculine... we wouldn't have as many wars, but life would be somewhat duller.—Mrs. Helen Z. M. Rodgers, Buffalo attorney.

We must be prepared to shoulder our share of the world's problems or be submerged by them.—W. S. Swingle, National Foreign Trade council.

Bees are reported especially fond of blue flowers. The wary picknicker, then, will think twice before spreading his cloth in a field of violets.

FINAL MEETING OF AAUW SCHEDULED THURSDAY NIGHT

The final meeting of Klamath county chapter, American Association of University Women, will be held Thursday night at 7 o'clock in the Willard hotel at which time a banquet will be enjoyed, installation of officers will take place and a program presented.

Chairman of the calling committee is Mrs. Frank Holmes and reservations for dinner may be made with her. Katherine Walton is in charge of decorations. Members of the Business and Professional Women's club will present the three numbers they sang at the recent state convention which won them first prize. Two Klamath Union

JOHNSON HONORED

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis — Floyd Johnson of Klamath Falls, junior in forestry, was one of the 80 students who were pledged to Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honor society, at the honors and awards convocation held at Oregon State college. This society has the highest scholastic requirements among all honor groups on the campus.

RECEPTION FOR GRADUATES AT KUHS SLATED

The annual reception for the graduating class of Klamath Union high school and their parents will be held Friday afternoon following commencement exercises in the KUHS gymnasium.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. James E. Smith, chairman; Mrs. C. Sparks, Mrs. A. H. McLean, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson.

YELL LEADER

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis — Bill Wierland of Klamath Falls, sophomore in agriculture, was recently appointed one of the four assistant yell leaders for the coming year by Bill Hunter, OSC yell king. The men were judged on coordination, appearance before a crowd, and general enthusiasm.

CITY OFFICIALS LEAVE FOR OREGON CITIES CONCLAVE

Mayor Clifton Richmond and members of the city council left by motor Wednesday morning for Seaside to attend the annual meeting of the League of Oregon Cities.

Police Judge Carl K. Cook, Mrs. Ruth Olds Bathiany, city treasurer, and Building Inspector Harold Franey, left Tuesday for Seaside to take part in convention activities.
