Ceremony Read Sunday

Mary Zetocka Weds Lloyd Drew in Church Service

In a lovely afternoon ceremony read by Rev. A. Theodore Smith of the First Presbyterian church, Miss Kathryn Zetocka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zetocka of North Dakota, became the bride of Mr. Lloyd Alton Drew, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew, long-time residents of this city. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and spring flowers.

The service was performed at half past one o'clock Sunday afternoon, May the nineteenth, in the presence of many friends and relatives of the young couple. Mrs. Raymond Cooney presided at the organ and played both the processional and recessional. The bride was attractive in an afternoon frock of Alice blue with a small matching hat from which hung a brief blue veil. She carried an arm bouquet of Tulleman rosebuds.

Miss Marian Snyder was the bride's only attendant. She was also gowned in blue and carried an arm bouquet of summer blossoms.

Mr. Cecil Drew, younger brother of the groom, was best man, and two other brothers, Mr. Greer F. Drew and Mr. Frank P. Drew, were ushers.

Following the ceremony the young couple greeted friends at the door of the church and left a short time later to spend several days at the Drew summer home at Diamond lake. They spent this past weekend in San Francisco and will return here to make their home.

Invitations to Church Wedding Sent

Invitations were received this week to the wedding of Miss Beverly Joyce O'Keefe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Keefe, and Mr. Clarence Crapo. The ceremony will be read by Rev. Victor E. Newman of St. Paul's Episcopal church at half past eight o'clock Saturday evening, June the first, in St. Paul's. A reception will follow in the parish house. Miss O'Keefe's bridesmaid will be her twin sister, Miss Dorothy O'Keefe.

The next regular meeting of the Klamath Falls Shrine club will be held at the Willard hotel the evening of June the fifth when dinner will be served at half past six o'clock.

Lee Metz, student at Oregon State college, was among those home for the weekend. Lee visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Metz.

Teacher Weds in Reno

California Scott Bride of John Taylor May Eighteenth

KENO — Miss California Scott and John T. Taylor of Keno were married Saturday morning, May the eighteenth, in Reno, Nevada. They were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matson. The Matsons visited Mrs. Taylor's father while in Reno. The couples then went to Lake Tahoe and over Donner pass to the Sacramento valley. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor stopped at Corning, California, to visit relatives.

Mrs. Taylor is the daughter of Mrs. Lena Harkey Scott, a resident of Eugene, Oregon. Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of the University of Oregon, class of 1937, and is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, and Pi Lambda Theta, education honorary.

Mrs. J. A. Anderson of St. Francis park entertained for members of the Thursday club on Thursday afternoon at her home. Tea was served late in the day to the eighteen guests.

Dancing Party Ends Graduation Week

Klamath Union High School Students and Alumni Entertained at Reames Clubhouse Friday

One of the highlights of graduation week was the dancing party given at Reames Golf and Country club on Friday evening of this week by the DeMolay Mothers club and the Hi Y Boys club of Klamath Union high school. The grand march was led by Miss Dean Hamilton and Mr. Robert Kent, and Miss Frances Foster and Mr. Richard Blohm.

The club house was particularly lovely with a profusion of spring blossoms. The punch bowl was in charge of Hi Y Boys.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Z. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Vanderpool, Mrs. C. Jester, and Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm.

The committee in charge of arrangements was made up of Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, chairman, Mrs. C. Jester, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, president of DeMolay Mothers club, Mrs. Cecil L. Sparks, and Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, and three members of Hi Y, Mr. Richard Blohm, Mr. Robert Kent, and Mr. Carter Sparks.

Guests at the party were Klamath Union high school students and one-year alumni. Clever programs of tinted high school scenes were used, and favors for seniors and one-year alumni were miniature mortar boards, both programs and boards designed by Mrs. Jester, mother of Bob Jester, KUHS alumni, and made by members of the DeMolay Mothers club.

Guest prizes, two enlarged tinted pictures of the high school and approach, were presented during the evening to Miss Frances Foster and Mr. Robert Kent.
