Missionary Tea Set for Wednesday

Womens Council of First Christian Church Issues Invitations to Affair in Library Club Rooms

An affair planned for the coming week which is of interest to church women of this city is the missionary silver tea to be given in the city library club rooms on Wednesday afternoon, June the fifth, between the hours of half past two o'clock, and half past four o'clock, by the Womens Council of the First Christian church.

Invitations have been issued to women of the various churches to attend. There will be interesting exhibits from the various foreign countries, and this is expected to attract a great deal of attention.

Mrs. Bert Schultz is general chairman. Mrs. Carl Schubert will be in charge of the tea table. Mrs. Elona Kafton with the high school class and Young Peoples Missionary circle, the decorations. Miss Mickey Pearson has been named to arrange the programs and invitations, and Mrs. George Wirtz heads the exhibit committee.

Pouring during the tea hours are Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. A. Theodore Smith, Mrs. Arthur Charles Bates, and Mrs. John Yadon. The invitations which were issued by the council were attractively decorated on the cover with little people in various costumes dancing about the world.

OLENE YOUTH MARRIED IN BOISE, IDAHO

A wedding of interest to their friends in Klamath Falls was that of Miss Ruth Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers of Condon, Oregon, and Mr. William Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Marshall of Olene.

The ceremony was read in Boise, Idaho, May the twenty-first. The young couple will make their home in Condon. The groom is a member of one of the county's pioneer families and following his graduation from Oregon State college has served as county agent of Gilliam county. He is a member of Kappa Delta Rho fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall visited here this past week at the A. L. Marshall home.

Teachers On Vacation

Motor Tours And Visits Planned By Many For Summer Months

With the start of vacation, a number of the teachers of the city schools left this past week on motor trips to various points, others will leave soon to attend summer school sessions, but many plan to remain in Klamath Falls for the summer, except for short trips.

Mrs. Vera Pearson, Miss Lillian Redkey and Miss Emily Haldemann left immediately after the close of school on a fortnight's motor trip to Mexico City, and a second group with Mexico City as its destination was composed of Miss Olive Wilson, Miss Marguerite Hundley, Miss Della Records and Miss Florence Walker. They planned an itinerary of several weeks, including trips through several of the national parks.

Miss Lillie Darby, Mrs. Eva Mary Lovely and Mr. and Mrs. William Owsley motored together to eastern points. Miss Darby will spend the summer with relatives at Ringwood, Illinois; Mrs. Lovely will visit a sister at Howard City, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Owsley will visit at various eastern points, returning (Continued on Page Seven)

One of the most active clubs in the state of Oregon is the Klamath Falls branch of the Business and Professional Women's club, made up of prominent women in the city. At the election of officers held this spring, the following were chosen to head the organization: Flo Ann Eaton, president; Eleanor Weatherford, first vice president; Lillie Darby, second vice president; Gertrude Tolle, recording secretary; Claudia Lorenz, (not in the above group), corresponding secretary; Gwendolyn Lorenz, treasurer; Berenice Griffin, retiring president.

Officers were given their posts in the beautiful installation ceremony held at the Willard hotel May the twentieth, with Mrs. Ruth Olds Bathiany, former president of the club, as installing officer. The club year opens on July the first, but installation of officers was early as the retiring president, Miss Griffin, left for summer school in the north.

Mrs. Guy Stoddard and infant daughter, Lucie, are visitors at the home of Mrs. McCormick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford McCormick, on Geneva street, Medford. The two expect to remain here about a month. They reside in Klamath Falls. — Medford Mail Tribune.

New Service Club Installed Saturday

Banquet Sponsored By Soroptimists To Be Attended By Portland, Seattle Members

Of this week's events the outstanding is the charter and installation banquet to be given at the Willard hotel Saturday evening, June the first, at eight o'clock when the newly organized Venture club will become this city's newest service club.

A committee composed of Mrs. Sophia Kenoffel, Mrs. Ruth Ray and Mrs. Sylvia McClelland has been busy this past week making preparations for the banquet which is being held under the sponsorship of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club.

VESTRY PLANS DANCING PARTY, AT WILLARD

An affair of interest is the dancing party planned for the evening of Wednesday, June the twelfth, in the Willard hotel, by members of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mr. Lou Langworthy is chairman of the affair. Tickets will be in the hands of the vestrymen within a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nihil left Monday for San Francisco where they will spend the summer months. Mr. Nihil, member of the coaching staff of Klamath Union high school, will attend the summer session of the University of California.

Honored guests at the installation will be Frances Finical, Northwestern Regional Director of Venture clubs; Flora Kemp, councillor of the Portland Venture club; Mary Jayne Helfrich, president of the Portland Venture club, and Mary Boyle, president of the Portland Soroptimist club, together with other members of both clubs from Portland and Seattle who are expected to arrive Saturday evening about six o'clock. The installation will be conducted by Frances Finical.

The complete program of the evening follows: "America," Salute to the flag. Mrs. George W. McIntyre at the piano. Invocation, Sylvia McClelland. Washington's prayer for his country. Greetings, Mrs. Robert Odell. (Continued on Page Seven)
