

Naoma LeMasters Is Bride of Mr. Miller

Attractive Klamath Falls Maid Weds in Rites at Sacred Heart Church Tuesday Morning

In one of the season's most beautiful weddings which occurred at an eight o'clock nuptial mass at Sacred Heart church Tuesday morning, May the twenty-eighth, Miss Naoma Lucille LeMasters, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth LeMasters, became the bride of Mr. Dick Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller of this city. Rev. Father Timothy Casey read the services.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. William LeMasters, was beautiful in a gown of traditional white satin made with a sweetheart neck line, full puffed sleeves ending at the wrists in pointed cuffs, and a long full skirt which fell in a train. Her veil was fingertip length and caught about the head in a coronet of seed pearls. The bride's flowers were of lilies-of-the-valley centered with a single orchid.

Miss Margaret Mahoney was the maid-of-honor. She wore a full length frock of pink chiffon with puffed sleeves, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow tea roses. A wreath of pink carnations held a shoulder length veil on her hair.

The bridesmaids were Miss Pearl Adams, Miss Marian Schneider and Miss Bobbie Eades. Miss Adams wore a full length frock of sky blue organdy, Miss Schneider was in blue chiffon, and Miss Eades in peach chiffon. All three carried bouquets of yellow tea roses and wore similar head-dresses of pink carnations and shoulder length veils.

Mr. Darrell Miller, brother of the groom, was best man.

Music during the ceremony was provided by the academy choir directed by the nuns. The altar was arranged with roses, bridal wreath and salmon pink gladioli.

Following the service a wedding breakfast was served to twenty-one members of the bridal party and both families, in the blue room of the Willard hotel. Immediately after the breakfast the young couple left for San Francisco, planning to return this weekend. They will be at home on North Eighth street. For traveling the bride wore a dusty pink frock with a blue hat and coat.

Mrs. Miller was graduated with the class of 1938 from Sacred Heart academy. Mr. Miller attended the University of Oregon law school and was admitted to the bar in 1938. At the present time he is assistant district attorney in Klamath county.

JANICE BUBB HONOR GUEST ON ANNIVERSARY

Miss Janice Bubb was complimented on her sixteenth birthday anniversary when Miss Betty Ramage entertained at her home, 615 High street, with an informal affair Saturday evening, May the twenty-fifth.

A gaily decorated birthday cake centered the refreshment table with an arrangement of pink flowers flanked on either side by tall pink tapers.

Guests honoring Miss Bubb were Miss Margaret Horton, Miss Betty Reymers, Miss Phyllis Collier, Miss Jeanne Merrill, Miss Stella Bowne, Miss Marlice Erlanson, Miss June Van, Miss Betty Merrill, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Miss Virginia Ellen Smith, Miss Mary Lou Johnson, Miss Jean Wiesendanger, Miss Peggy Keating, Miss Mary Jane Drake, Miss Marlys Steinseifer, Miss Willa Mae Lehto, Miss Patty Schupp, Miss Merlon Albrecht, and the hostess, Miss Ramage.

Garden Club Plans Session

Mrs. Lamb To Represent Local Group in Portland Meet

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, active in garden and flower groups of this city, will leave Sunday morning for Portland to attend the Oregon State Federation of Garden clubs and the district federation which embraces the states of Oregon, Washington, California, Arizona, and Idaho. Mrs. Lamb goes as a delegate from the local group.

Mrs. Merle West will accompany Mrs. Lamb north.

The session is scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and interesting garden tours are planned for the guests throughout many of Portland's loveliest gardens. Two special affairs include a motor trip to Timberline lodge at Mt. Hood where luncheon has been arranged, and a salmon bake at the delightful home of Mrs. E. C. Dalton on the Columbia river near St. Helens. Mrs. Dalton is former president of the federation. A report on the three-day meet will be given by Mrs. Lamb on her return to Klamath Falls.

MRS. M'CORNACK ENTERTAINS AT LAKESHORE HOME

Mrs. Frank McCornack entertained members of the League of Western Writers and several friends at a delightful, informal social afternoon at her attractive new home on Lakeshore drive, Saturday, May the twenty-fifth. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. C. B. Austin.

Guests were shown through the house which is one of the most modern in design and appearance of those recently constructed in Klamath and which commands an unexcelled view of upper Klamath lake. A question and answer game provided the entertainment with the prizes awarded to Mrs. Robert Keeling of Algoma and Mrs. E. P. Livingston.

Guests were Mrs. Milton Robinson, Mrs. W. C. McAuley, Mrs. Effie Metsker, Mrs. Andrew Brink, Mrs. Etta Belle Livingston of Linden, Washington, Mrs. E. P. Livingston, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. E. K. MRS. MUSHEN HONOR GUEST IN VALLEY

Mrs. E. E. Gore entertained at her home on Geneva street yesterday afternoon for her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Mushen of Klamath Falls, who spent several days here visiting.

Thirty guests were bidden for tea and during the affair Mrs. Mushen, a talented pianist, played several selections which were much enjoyed by the guests. She is a member of the music department of the Klamath Union high school.

Mrs. Everett Faber presided at the tea table and Mrs. Dale Smith assisted Mrs. Gore.

Mrs. Mushen left this afternoon to return to her home in Klamath. She was accompanied by Miss Vera Humphrey, who will be her house guest until Sunday—Medford Mail Tribune.

Gustafsons Leave For California

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gustafson and daughter, Sonya, left by motor Thursday morning for Oakland, California, where they will spend the early part of the summer. Mr. Gustafson, football coach at Klamath Union high school, will attend summer school at the University of California. The latter part of the summer will be spent at Fort Lewis, Washington, where Mr. Gustafson will attend the reserve officers training camp. Mrs. Gustafson and Sonya will visit relatives in Washington.

CHARMING BRIDE

One of the season's most charming attractive brides was Miss Lois Porterfield, daughter of Mr. James G. Porterfield of Tulelake, California, and Mrs. Lucy Kirby of Oregon City, Oregon, who became the bride of Mr. Don Nettleton of Bend, in a ceremony read Saturday, May the twenty-fifth in the First Methodist church here.

Miss Barry Church Bride

Merrill Miss Weds in Ceremony Saturday Evening

At an informal ceremony in the chapel of the Holy Cross Catholic church, Saturday evening at seven o'clock, Miss Nellie Barry, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael P. Barry, became the bride of William K. Wahlert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Wahlert, Portland. The bride, daughter of pioneers, is a native of Merrill where she has lived all her life.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Father James O'Connor in the presence of immediate families of the young couple.

The bride, in a tailored coat of navy, with print dress of powder blue and white accessories, wore a corsage of gardenias. Her only attendant, Miss Alfreda Larkin of Alturas, wore a beige ensemble with corsage of Rap-ture rosebuds. Mr. Richard Luhrs, Merrill, was best man.

Mrs. Wahlert, a graduate of the Merrill high school and Sacred Heart Academy, Klamath Falls, attended Oregon State college where she majored in designing and recently has been associated with the Crater Lake store here. Mr. Wahlert also attended Oregon State. He is associated with the Merrill Mills.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wahlert will reside here.

Mrs. Schubert Returns Here

Mrs. Carl Schubert Sr. has returned to Klamath Falls after spending the past year visiting with her three daughters in California, Washington and eastern Oregon, and is being greeted by many friends. She plans to remain here.

Mrs. Schubert spent a portion of the time with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Byers, at Chowchilla, California, and the remainder of the time with Mrs. Charles Moran at Yakima, Washington and Mrs. Carl Tucker at Baker, Oregon. While in California, she also had the pleasure of visiting with an old Nebraska friend and neighbor whom she had not seen for thirty years.

Players Tie At Reames

First Flight To Qualify for Weatherly Cup Soon

Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger and Mrs. Mahr Reymers tied in the first flight obstacle tournament, both holding low scores, in Friday morning's play at Reames Golf and Country club. Both received prizes awarded by Mrs. C. C. Kelley, president of the group.

Thirty players were on the course during the morning, and Mrs. Ted Shoop won low for even hole play in the second flight. Mrs. Harry Welmar won low last Friday, it was announced. This week concluded second flight team play with Mrs. Shoop's team defeating the group captained by Mrs. John Houston, and the latter team will entertain Mrs. Shoop's team.

Scheduled for next week, first flight players will qualify for the Weatherly cup, and the second flight will participate in a flag tournament.

On duplicate bridge, Friday of last week, east and west honors went to Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw; north and south to Mrs. Peter A. Albertson and Mrs. Guy Hancock. High in progressive bridge this week were Mrs. Curt Strong, and Mrs. Lee McMullen.

Potluck luncheon was served at half past twelve o'clock, with Mrs. R. R. Proebstel, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, and Mrs. Herbert Hauger as hostesses.
